P.O. Box 3291

Dear Mr. Mull:

While I thank you for your reassuring letter of April 23 I have still as of Friday noon, received nothing tangible from you in the way of meteorites.

I can understand and sympathize with you for your various difficulties, and maybe you didn't get to mail the pieces Monday, but ordinarily they should surely be here. I will hope it is a postoffice delay, which sometimes seem to apply particularly to insured items.

Now please be sure to take action and send me what you can so that we can agree on a settlement and refund if one is involved. If you had propositioned me about the large specimen I might have taken it on a reduced basis and saved your returning it.

PLEASE, MR. MULL, LET US GET THIS THING SETTLED. I HAVE NOT RELISHED SITTING HERE WITH NOTHING TO SHOW FOR A CONSIDERABLE SUM OF MONEY I AM OUT.

Yours sincerely,
