Fort Sam Houston
January 1, 1935

Dear Grandma and Grandpa:

A happy new year to you.
There certainly was a big celebration downtown last night. The New year was ushered in, in great style. Every body had two or three @ bottles of whiskey.

I got home all right. I arrived about 4:00 P.M. Sunday.
The Bus John and I was on wrecked about 5 miles from Hugo.
One was hurt very bad. The bus and Chevrolet car were wrecked.

I can't send but $5 this month because I drew half of my pay to come home on.

I am feeling fine and hope
you are the same.

I highwayed from Hugo
I made good time though, about
as fast as bus time.

well I can't think of anything else.

Goodbye.

Smith
