Dear Mr. Shelly:

I do not seem to have heard from you about the piece of stone meteorite you sent, & I am anxious to learn from you just where and how you found it.

Won't you please write me? Use the bottom & back of this sheet & the enclosed stamped envelope. With thanks in advance, I am

Yours sincerely,
Oscar E. Monnig.

Dear Sir:

I found this rock while plowing
about 3 miles west of the Chamberlaine place on what is known as the Jess Akeley Place.

Yours Truly:

W. R. Shely.
