Mr. Jim Mull,

Portland Ore. 97202.

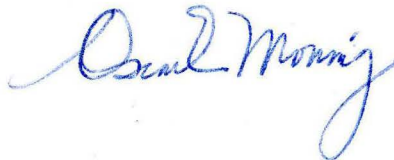

Dear Mr. Mull:

Your letter about the Nazareth piece came just as I was ready to leave on a vacation cruise to see the total solar eclipse. We departed June 22 and I was in New York and Washington some after the three weeks trip so that I was really snowed on my business work when I got home and I'm just now catching up on matters astronomical.

One piece of Nazareth that I saw had rusted pretty quickly, and that worried me some because I don't like these pieces that are hard to keep. It may be my home is too moist!--I live in a rather low spot.

Anyhow, I have just about/to pass this acquisition (assuming you still have it). I would take it at $250.00. Thanks for writing me, and I'm sorry other things have delayed my definitive answer so long. I think I saw a slice in the Smithsonian when I was there recently but I believe theirs was only polished, not etched. I forgot to ask them why, there was so much going on and being talked about!

Sincerely,

MONNIG DRY GOODS CO.
