EX-STUDENT INDUCTION CEREMONY

By HARTWELL M. RAMSEY, Executive Secretary

The Constitution and By-Laws of the T. C. U. Ex-Students Association reveals the following about its nature and purpose:

"This is a voluntary association of former students of Texas Christian University of Fort Worth, Texas. The association, fraternal in nature, is formed to promote closer relationship and to provide opportunity for continued friendship among Texas Christian University Ex-Students wherever they may be; to cooperate with the administrative officials, the members of the faculty, staff, and the Board of Trustees of Texas Christian University, with their development, educational, trust and other responsibilities in every possible way consistent with the policies of the University; to encourage and cooperate with other organizations or associations now existing or which may hereafter be formed to assist and aid the University in its overall program; to encourage good students to enroll in Texas Christian University and to render such aid and assistance to such prospective students and to those enrolled in the University as may be consistent with the policies of the University; to strive continually to promote its best interest and development and thereby assure Texas Christian University a well-rounded program comparable to any of the major universities."
