

THE VICE PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER

WASHINGTON

Chicago, Illinois.

November Nineteenth
Nineteen Hundred
Twenty-eight.

My dear Mr. MacVeagh:

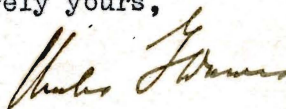

When visiting with him in New Mexico last summer, Mr. Waite Phillips told me it was always his expectation to live at Tulsa where he has just finished a beautiful home.

Under the circumstances, I do not feel that I should write a letter of introduction, the purposes of which are so inconsistent with what I know to be the fact.

In order, however, that the matter may come to his attention, I am forwarding your letter to him and I enclose you a copy of my letter to him.

With best regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Eames MacVeagh,
333 West Lake Street,
Chicago, Illinois.
