

Washington,

July, 1st, 1863.

Col Greene,

Dear Sir,

Allow me to introduce to you Mr Edward A. Hobman who desires a situation as clerk.
He is the young man of whom I spoke last night and if you can give him the position mentioned I shall be much gratified. I believe he will be faithful in the discharge of his duties.

Yours truly
J. Wilson
