INAUGURATION OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

Great preparations are being made by the Colored citizens of Washington, D. C. in anticipation of a great throng of visitors to the Inaugural ceremonies which are being planned on a scale of magnificence never before attempted. The Inaugural Committee has secured all of the colossal plaster casts of statuary which were such a feature of the St. Louis Exposition and with them will line the route of the Inaugural procession. The whole City will be illuminated at night during Inaugural week and one night will be set aside for a display of fireworks which will excel in splendor anything ever seen before in this country. The Colored citizens of Washington, D. C. have organized for the occasion, and have secured Convention Hall, the largest in the city, where they will receive and entertain the great throng of visitors expected. The several Auxiliary chairmen of the local committee on Public Comfort, are authorized to arrange by correspondence for invitations to the reception for all Alexandria Va people who expect to be in Washington on March 5th to the end that they may attend. The guests are admitted on their invitation but must be provided with a supper ticket which will cost One dollar, which can be obtained of Mr. Daniel Murray in Washington, or it will be sent through the local chairman in advance along with the invitation.

P.S. Give as wide publicity by publication of this reception feature as you can.
