Dear Johnnie:

You will probably be surprised to receive this letter from an ex-poker player. Until I played with you in Miami, I thought I would enjoy playing poker the rest of my life. However, I have now sworn off and will never play again.

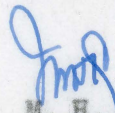

I certainly appreciate you and the other members of the Committee permitting me to sit in on the meetings last week in Miami. I think that I learned a great deal, and I hope that I will be able to sit in on the meetings in October when you come to Fort Worth.

I was sorry to see that you were not much of a fisherman, but if you keep trying I am sure you will learn some day. I will be very happy most any time to go to Port Aransas or back to Miami with you and give you some lessons.

I would like to hear from you if you have anything on the National Flying Farmers meeting in Fort Worth in 1951.

With best regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

M. H. HUFFMAN
