

June 17, 1952

Mr. O. M. Mosier
American Airlines
100 Park Avenue
New York, N. Y.

Dear Red:

It was a pleasure to see you and Frances briefly in the terminal in Dallas on my arrival from Mexico City. I told you then what a grand job the people in American Airlines had done for me, but I would not feel that I had really expressed my appreciation without telling you in more detail how grand everyone was to us. I have done business with a lot of companies in my life, but none to compare with the absolute friendliness and the desire to serve that is expressed by the personnel of American Airlines.

Fourteen people went down on the trip to Mexico with me. After I first called Mr. Tull Rea to tell him of the proposed trip, the people of the airlines simply took over every task for us. Mr. Rea, Mr. Kern and Mr. Roy arranged for our space, secured all of our tourist cards, and did everything that was necessary at all for a pleasant stay in Mexico. When we arrived at Dallas, the entire crew was on hand to see us off, and arranged every detail of our customs inspection and departure so that we felt as if we were real royalty. When we arrived in Mexico City, Mr. Van Nostrand also called at our hotel and constantly was in attendance on every wish that we had. Miss Josephina Aquinoco devoted a substantial part of her time to being sure that everyone of our wants were taken care of, and even made a full day's trip on her off day to Cuernavaca in order to assist Mrs. Anderson in locating a place to stay for the summer.

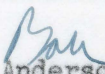

Even as I was leaving Mexico, Van was with me at the terminal giving me renewed assurance that he would look after Ollie and the boys while they were there this summer. I could not say enough to tell you how very much I appreciate all of the courtesies and attention that we have received from these gentlemen and Miss Aquinoco. It is an eloquent testimony to the reason why the American Airlines is the greatest in the world. It is a real tribute to you to have such fine and capable people as your associates.

I sincerely hope some day that I will have the privilege of repaying the courtesies shown to me by all of these fine people, and I can assure you that I will lead the cheering section in any country for your company.

I plan to be in New York at the end of this week, probably arriving on Friday evening. John Biggs and Bill McBroom will be with me and we will give you and Frances a call when we arrive.

With kindest regards and best wishes to you and Frances,
I am,

Sincerely yours,

R. B. Anderson

RBA:R

cc: Mr. C. R. Smith
President, American Airlines
100 Park Avenue
New York, N.Y.

cc: Mr. Amon G. Carter
Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

