

IN 1950 AMERICAN sets the pace-with the FLAGSHIP FLEET!

The largest and most modern fleet of transport aircraft in the world today!

IN 1950—THE FLEET OF THE YEAR IS THE FLAGSHIP FLEET! For American Airlines, and only American, can offer such a vast fleet of aircraft, such a completely modern fleet in every respect. And such a versatile fleet as well—for both the DC-6 and the Convair are designed for the type of route they serve. So whether you're traveling coast-to-coast, or to a nearby city, make sure you go by American Airlines Flagship and enjoy air travel at its best on every trip.

THE DC-6 FLAGSHIP

The acknowledged leader in trans-continental travel—first choice of passengers from coast to coast.

THE CONVAIR FLAGSHIP

Especially designed for inter-city travel—especially popular for its comfort and speed.

AMERICAN AIRLINES INC.

AMERICA'S LEADING AIRLINE

Reprint of 4-color spread advertisement appearing in Life, January 16th; Saturday Evening Post, January 21st; Time, January 30th and Collier's, February 18th.

This advertisement will reach approximately 30,267,000 men and women adult readers at a cost of three-sevenths of a cent per reader.