As I stepped off the plane this morning from New York at 4:00 A.M. the message was given me that your sweet mother had passed on. While I had heard of her illness, I didn't know of its seriousness and it is impossible for me to convey the sympathy I feel for you. She was one of the sweetest characters I have ever known and the good influence that she exerted extended far beyond the confines of her family PERIOD Your sweet ol' Dad always said, "Whatever I am, I owe to Betty" PERIOD Those of us who knew intimately and loved him, while recognizing to the fullest his great ability and beautiful character, appreciated what he meant when we came to know her PERIOD Truly, she benefitted all who came within the range of her influence and made the world better for her having lived PERIOD To have enjoyed her friendship has been a rare privilege for me. Bless your hearts, I only wish there were something I could do or say to lessen your BOWROW.

Amon G. Carter

P.S: I will be at the Biltmore Sunday.
