

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Date March 5, 1953

Mr. Dear Harold:

_____ Department

Incidentally, I am dictating this letter from the hospital where I have been flat of my back for the past ten days, but I do feel that this site is so tremendously important that it would justify you, even as busy as I realize you are, flying down, spending the day looking the site over, verifying this information first hand, and you could be back in Washington for dinner that night,

Sincerely,
