Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter of the 7th of July.

We would advise that, due to new government regulations, we can no longer send Food parcels to prisoners of war, even with the "next of kin" label. However, we are in a position to send cigarettes and books and enclose herewith our circular giving full details of our service. We would state that we are still sending Food parcels to civilians in Great Britain and enclose herewith our current lists.

Assuring you of our best attention, we are,

Yours faithfully,
For and on behalf of
PARCELS FOR THE FORCES
