

THE VICE PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER
WASHINGTON

Sept. 27, 1939

Hon. Amon Carter,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mr. Carter:

Just before he left to keep an engagement Mr. Garner said to tell you that he had read the editorials and that both of them were splendid- in fact the best he had seen for a long time. He is kept rather busy even though the Senate has only been convening every three days.

Mr. Crooks was in the office yesterday and told me that Mrs. Carter was on her way to place your daughter back in school. Genevieve was back last week- has a very stiff course and wont have much play time this year.

We hope that we will be able to get back to Texas before the regular session.

With love from us both,

Sincerely,

E. R. Garner

E. R. Garner

Secretary to the Vice President.
