Mr. Lawrence H. Conklin,
2 WEST 46th St.
New York NY 10036

Dear Mr. Conklin:

After thinking about our telephone conversation the other day I have decided to withdraw my offer on the Toluca piece.

It just wouldn't be worth that much to me, and I prefer to drop the negotiations.

I appreciate your thinking of me and regret we did not get together on anything this time. Try me again if another specimen becomes available.

I would prefer, however, to deal by letter in the future. I don't like to make these decisions over the phone.

Yours sincerely,
