

TEXAS
Press Clipping Bureau
DALLAS

From

Edinburg (Tex.) Review

Date MAR 17 1943

REPORTED MISSING

—The Adjutant General's office in Washington notified Amon Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, that his son, Second Lt. Amon Carter, Jr., an artillery officer in the north African zone, was missing in action. He had been a forward observer for a field artillery battalion.