Dear Amon:

As a Director of American Airlines may I thank you for the generous bonus accorded to me for the year 1944.

I had hoped to have an opportunity to express my appreciation to you personally and still hope to do so, but just in case opportunity does not afford in the near future, I am taking this occasion to tell you what a pleasure it is to work for the President and Directors of American Airlines.

I think we had a fair year in 1944. We did not accomplish all that we had hoped to do but in round figures we turned in a pretty good score. We are facing many problems today of which you are apprised, but I have confidence that we can resolve these at least as well as the next guy and I hope a little bit better and thereby lengthen American's leadership.

Yours sincerely,

R. S. Damon
