hour show airs on NBC5. The first 100 guests will receive a "You're Fired!" T-shirt. All guests will enjoy pizza and drinks with Neeley alumni, faculty, staff and friends.

Henry graduated as a Neeley M.B.A. Scholar in 1997 and has worked in leading edge technology companies. As the last female competitor on "The Apprentice," Henry describes herself as 1/2 tough, smart businesswoman and 1/2 sweet, Southern gal.

Note: If Amy was fired last Thursday (after TCU This Week went to press), the party will be cancelled. ♦

Personal safety course for children will be offered in early June

STAFF ASSEMBLY'S COMMUNITY Service committee will sponsor a free, personal safety education program for children (ages 5-11) of TCU faculty and staff. The week-long day camp, called RADKids, will be from 9 - 11 a.m. June 7-11 at the University Recreation Center.

A national, nonprofit education organization, RADKids is committed to providing proven and effective life saving skills to children by teaching them to "Resist Aggression Defensively." The instruction covers seven basic areas: home safety, school safety, out-and-about safety, vehicle safety, stranger tricks (including physical defense against abduction), person safety (including good, bad and uncomfortable touch) and self-realization of personal power.

To register your child, contact Hao Tran at ext. 7778 or by e-mail at h.tran@tcu.edu. For additional information about the program, visit www.radkids.org. ♦
