DALLAS, TEXAS

March 13, 1943.

Dear Amon:-

Hazel and I were very sorry and distressed to note in the papers that your son is missing in North Africa. We know what a fine youngster he is and also how worried you are. We can only hope he is a prisoner of war and will be safe and sound when hostilities cease. This little note is to extend to you our deepest sympathies.

Very sincerely yours,

Roger Dixon
