Dear Mr. Carter:

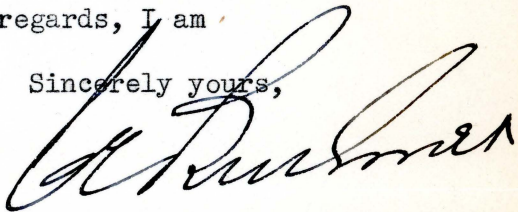

The daily press brings us the report of Amon, Jr. missing in action in Africa.

I think I can appreciate your concern and the emotional strain through which you are going, because Mrs. Buchner and I have had ourselves braced ever since our boy has been in service.

Words are so inadequate, but I want you to know that we are thinking about you, that you have our sympathy, and that we are remembering you in prayer.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

C. E. Buchner
