Dear Mr. Rogers:

We have read with interest your splendid offer of service to the cause of the distressed and are pleased to note that you will be in Austin.

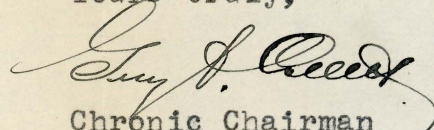

Our old friend Niles Graham has been sick and for the last two months has been in the East trying to build himself back to standard.

He will be home soon and his close friends and your admirers want to give you and Niles a joint party - you because you favor us with a visit and a home coming party for Niles.

Please advise me your Austin date - or as near as you can now fix it and also if you will help us welcome old Niles on that occasion.

With best wishes I am

Yours truly,

Chronic Chairman
