Come Again Aggies

'Aggies Here' Is Universal Cry 3000 Cadets Parade in Town—Fort Worth Is Hostess.

"The Aggies are here!" Such is the universal cry of nearly all of Fort Worth today, as T. C. U., the Horned Frogs, and the citizenry of Fort Worth play hostess to approximately 3,000 Texas A. & M. cadets, Aggie officials, ex-students, and countless visitors who swept into the city yesterday and today to witness the Horned Frogs and Aggie clash in the initial conference game for both teams this season.

The line of march led from the Texas & Pacific station up Main to First Street, west to Houston Street, then back down Houston past the reviewing stand on Eighth to Twelfth Street. Here the cadets were met by automobiles and street cars which brought them out to the T. C. U. campus. At noon the cadets were given a barbecue in the basketball gym, where practically the entire corps was waited upon by T. C. U. faculty women and members of the T. C. U. Mothers Club.

The A. & M. faculty were honor guests of the A. & M. Ex-Students Club at a luncheon given at the University Club at noon. Members of the A. & M. Ex-Students' Club, representatives of the T. C. U. faculty, and members of the A. & M. Mothers Club attended the luncheon.

Mrs. S. R. Hoyt, president of the A. & M. Mothers Club, was in charge of the reception for wives of the visiting faculty members.

The Aggie cadets were presented coupon books which entitled them to a free supper at any one of nine Fort Worth restaurants. The books will entitle them to admission to one of three theaters tonight, and the cadets will be admitted free at the dance at the Texas tonight from 9 o'clock to midnight.

Football players of both schools will be admitted free at the dance, which will feature two orchestras, The Texas Hotel Orchestra and probably the Aggieband Orchestra. A portion of the cadets will return to A. & M. after the dance tonight while the remainder will leave for Aggie-land tomorrow and tomorrow night.

Barefoot Hike for Loser.

Either Bill O'Dowd, reserve end for the Aggies or Gordon McMahon, T. C. U., should be getting ready now to take a barefoot hike down the street car track from the T. C. U. O'Dowd and McMahon, both former Cleburne High football stars, made a wager during the summer to the effect that if A. & M. lost McMahon would take a hike down the track.

COME AGAIN, AGGIES.

They have met again, the Farmers and the Frogs, on the campus in friendship, on the gridiron in battle. They have had barbecue together and have played together like true sports. T. C. U. has even loaned its best girls to the Aggies for the day.

We hope you have felt the welcome which we have tried to impart, a welcome which came straight from our hearts. We hope that you enjoy your visit as we enjoyed ours in Aggicland last year. If you do, then we have accomplished our purpose.

T. C. U. is glad to welcome the cadets of Texas A. & M. College. We know that whether winning or losing the Aggies are always good sports. The Aggies and the Frogs have just settled their score on the football field, and are ready to take up friendly relations again. The cadets will be here only a few more hours this time, but if this visit has been pleasant we hope that they will come again. T. C. U. feels honored, as does our city, that the Aggies should choose to come here. We hope to have that honor again.

NEW LIGHTS ON THE ABSENT-MINDED PROFESSOR.

Humor magazines never appear without at least one good joke about the absent-minded professor. According to publications of this type, our professors walk around in a daze half of the time and are in a semi-conscious state the other half.

This pet idea no longer holds good. In fact, it could well be reversed in some instances. For, how many students go to class and sit there the entire hour in absolute ignorance of what is being said or done, while the instructor tries to impart a certain amount of knowledge to his unresponsive audience? Considering the many little details, the names and faces, and the abundance of stored up knowledge he must remember, how can anyone say the professor is absent-minded? On the contrary, he is bound to have an unusually alert mind. He is a smart, brilliant man, and absent-mindedness doesn't agree with his brilliance.

In regard to the discontinuing of granting of free passes to mind and that with it all they maintain their equilibrium with seeming ease, it is unfair and incorrect to continue to make them, by virtue of their absent-mindedness, the target of jokes and unkind remarks.

COLLEGIATE OPINION.

Conduct at football games, in chapel and the support of student government are some of the topics being discussed by editors of college papers.

In regard to the discontinuing of granting of free passes to Houston high school students because of improper conduct at football games, the Rice Thresher says: "Apparently there are some Rice students who have not yet outgrown their juvenile pranks. If the bottles continue to crash from the stands and the peanut shells and cushions to fly through the air, other bans are to follow, and these will affect Rice students. Certainly a little common sense could find a place, even at a football game."

As for chapel, this comes from the Semi-Weekly Campus, S. M. U.: "Chapel misconduct is a reflection on the student body of the university. The actions of thoughtless students, sophisticated (in the worst sense of the word) upperclassmen, and 'cute' freshmen are a disgrace to the institution."

From the Baylor College Bells: "One does not hear frequent mention of the old prejudice that has previously existed against The Student Government Association. Leaders of other organizations on the campus have expressed a desire to co-operate with Baylor's governing body in all its undertakings."

Open Forum

Dear Editor:

As one of the students who has been around our school for a good many days and has seen the results of many thoughtless acts of various student organizations, I would like to call your attention to one case of this kind.

In the past years many of our organizations have promoted various entertainments in our school. At times they have had some "high-powered advertising manager" and have posted bulletins and painted signs that have marred the beauty of our campus. In several cases serious accidents have come as a result of their thoughtless acts.

If I may mention one example, and I do not mean to criticize the particular organization, it might help the students to realize the really serious nature of such acts. Last year the freshman class gave a show in the auditorium. Several days before the performance they pasted stickers all over the sidewalks of the campus. Before they had been worn off it rained on them and they became very slick because of the surplus amount of paste on them. On the occasion of some meeting in the auditorium the night before the show, and when the stickers were very wet, Mrs. Dean, the mother of our yell leader, slipped on one of the stickers and broke her wrist. Of course the students who had put them there did not intend that anything like this should happen, but that did not relieve the suffering caused Mrs. Dean by their carelessness.

The same group painted signs on the front steps of the administration building. This sign with several others that were put there in previous years are still plainly visible. And they surely do not look very good to our own students. I imagine they make a worse impression on our visitors.

If the other students of the University look at this thing in the same light, I wonder if we could not have a gentleman's agreement that nothing like that is to happen this year or in the years to come. If such an understanding will not work, then I for one, would like to see some amendment to the by-laws of our student body forbidding such practice.

Sincerely,

BILL ROGERS,

Editor of The Skiff:

In your Open Forum column there have appeared several articles with flippant names as signatures. If a matter is worth considering, one should think enough of his viewpoint to attach his name.

The question under discussion is—shall the name Herved Frog be changed or retained? Granting that this name has been the symbol of our athletics, even unto 50 years, shall we be bound by tradition?

Often in articles of the press our boys are referred to as "the Christians." Would not this name be far superior to that of a Herved Frog? I, for another would like to see the name changed.

Consider the name Christian. Speak it aloud—"The Christians." It rings, it penetrates into the very soul of man. Only those that are worthy should bear the name. If we think our boys are entitled to the best, let's give it to them. This name is symbolic of what our school, Texas Christian University, stands for and represents.

May I quote from Randolph Clark, "The crown is given when the battle is over, and the Chief Captain says: 'Well done. We will win in the midst of the conflict, as with the first disciples, the voice of the leader can be heard saying: 'Watch, stand fast,

COME AGAIN AGGIES

SNOOPY SUE

Snoopy heard Wendell Schuler telling an admiring bunch of girls that the reason he does not go with only one girl is because he thinks in doing so a boy loses his pride. A gift to the girls—Wendell is!

Jim Gaddy Norris was unfortunately last week in having his car burned up. Snoopy did not hear whether the engine got too hot or not.

Did everyone see Lillis Mae Dinkins' picture in the paper. She was so modest in not wanting it there, but not everyone can get a scholarship.

Jay Williams is in love! Snoopy saw him clipping an inspiring love poem from the Battalion.

Ask any member of the Bryson Club what highly educational book was circulated among the members at the last meeting.

Oh yes, and Snoopy heard that Dub Davis was unusually fond of garlic.

Snoopy heard Weir McDiarmid sigh as he saw John McDiarmid come in the other night at a pep-meeting with a date. "There goes my best tie," said Weir. "These brothers will borrow things, won't they?"

Clarence Thomas is on the lookout for a social secretary to aid him in looking out after a certain attractive freshman girl, who is to his notion, a little too popular.

Band boys have been conducting a city-wide search for flannel night-shirts, but have almost arrived at the conclusion that they are an extinct species.

Snoopy Sue would like to know why Professor McDiarmid was throwing spit balls made out of Eskimo pie wrappers, at Louise Lester during the report of the game Saturday afternoon, in the auditorium.

Club Leaders Chosen

Misses Robison, Buckley and Morrill Are Officers.

Miss Marjorie Lee Robison, a junior in T. C. U., was elected president of the dramatic section of the Fort Worth Junior Woman's Club at the meeting Friday afternoon. Miss Mamie Louise Buckley, a senior in T. C. U., was elected vice president, and Miss Elizabeth Morrill, a sophomore, was made chairman of the opening meeting.

The dramatic section meets the second Friday in each month. Other T. C. U. students who are members of this section are: Misses Ruth Johnson, Mary Croft, and Benita Wagonman. Miss Helen Gertrude Sparks is director of the group.

Music School Graduates Teach

Miss-Veale Is New Uppercette President

Misses Texora Pierce, Frances Anderson Are Other Officers Chosen.

Uppercettes, an organization of the upperclassman girls in Jarvis Hall, held its first meeting at 7:30 o'clock, Oct. 11, in the parlor of Jarvis Hall.

The meeting was called to order by Miss Maxine Russell, ex-president of the Uppercettes, for the purpose of electing new officers and making plans for the immediate future. Officers elected were: President, Frances Veale; vice president, Texora Pierce; secretary-treasurer, Frances Anderson; faculty sponsor, Miss Lorraine Sherry.

MORE THAN 1000 ATTEND BONFIRE

made talks to the students and the Horned Frog Band kept the spirit of the crowd at its height with a number of selections between talks and yells.

Immediately after the pep rally the freshman boys staked a pajama "review" around the campus, after which the student body held the bonfire. The bonfire activities were led by Dean and by Hugh Back, student body president.

After the bonfire, the students, including the dormitory boys and girls, attended the "final act" of the celebration—a midnight showing of "Salute," a picture of West Point and Annapolis life, at the Majestic. Incidentally, last night marked the first time in history that T. C. U. dormitory girls have been allowed to attend—collectively—a midnight show.

The show last night was put on for the benefit of the Horned Frog Band's proposed trip to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention at El Paso the latter part of this month. The Frog Band will be the official band for the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce delegates to the convention.

Miss Schutze Attends Yale

Miss Katherine Schutze of Marfa, a graduate of the class of '27, is now attending Yale University. Miss Schutze has been teaching for the past two years in the Marfa schools. She is preparing herself for a medical missionary.

Miss Helen Seymore, who was a freshman in T. C. U. last year, is attending Texas Woman's College this year.

Leslie "Doc" Ribbons attended the Dallas-Birmingham baseball game in Dallas recently.

Miss Roberta Dedmon, a senior in the University, visited in California and in the East this summer. In June Miss Dedmon went to California with the Shriners as accompanist for the Shrine Chanters. In August Miss Dedmon visited 23 states in the eastern part of the United States.

SOCIETY

T. C. U. Alumni to Meet Saturday

The Woman's Branch of the T. C. U. Ex-Students and Alumni Association will hold its first get-together dinner at 8 o'clock Saturday night in the French dining room of the Blackstone Hotel, according to Mrs. H. B. Beckman, president of the club.

The program includes a piano solo by Mrs. Ann McClendon Brooks, a talk by Dean L. L. Leftwich, a vocal solo by Mrs. Berdie J. Baird, a talk, "Organizing a Club," by Mrs. Esther M. Halle, a talk, "Living in the Afterglow," by Charles Stephens, talks by Van Zandt Jarvis, Milton Daniels and Dan Rogers, and some selections by the T. C. U. Girls' Quartet.

Dinner Is Given for Faculty Members

Columbus Day was observed in the T. C. U. dining room Wednesday night, Oct. 9, by a formal dinner party honoring the new faculty members.

The theme of Columbus Day was carried out in the decorations of crepe paper and flowers which adorned the tables. The guests were entertained during the evening by an orchestra composed of Misses Marjorie Scott, Edith Armstrong, James Miller, Willis Cox, Perry Sandifer, Jo Brice Wilmethe and James Watkins. Approximately 125 students in evening dress as well as faculty members and wives attended the affair.

Outcasts to Give Picnic Monday

The Outcasts will entertain with a picnic in Forest Park Monday evening at 5:30 o'clock, according to Miss Siddle Joe Johnson, president of the club.

Tennis matches will be played after which a camp-fire will be had. The committee for arrangements for the affair include Misses Lena Agnes Johnson, Pearl Decker and Dohit Norman.

Los Hialgos Have Meeting Thursday

Los Hialgos met in the club room of Brito College Thursday evening with Kenneth Martin, president of the organization, presiding.

Following the business session a program was given, the main feature of which was a play, "The Discovery of America." The cast for this included Kenneth Martin and Misses Elizabeth Rice, Frances Carmichael, Zilpha Haskins, Thelma Brethaupt and Frances Schober. A skit, "El Recruta Inteligente," was given by Misses Anne Houle and Ruth Burnam. Miss Thelma Lawrence played a piano solo and Miss Marjorie Miller gave a violin solo. A social hour was held after the program.

The sophomore class held open house at the home of Miss Marian Smith, Tuesday, Oct. 15. Music was furnished throughout the evening by the following: Vess Taylor, Margaret Clements, Marjorie Miller, Rowena Doss, Lloyd Motley and Zilpha Haskins. Proms were held much the same as they were at the annual freshman prom.

A pink color scheme was carried out in the decorations. Misses Mary Jean Knight and Marjorie Miller were on the decorating committee.

Punch was served by Misses Elizabeth Bryson, Mary Jean Knight, Bettie Ellis and Maurice McClinton.

Miss Katherine Martin Marries

Miss Katherine Martin, a former student of T. C. U., and daughter of Mrs. R. S. Martin of Smackover, Ark., was married last week to Mr. Joe Bailey Skeen. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother.

The bride is also a former student of Central College, Conway, Ark. The groom is a former student of the University of Arkansas.

The couple will make their home in McCamey.

Jimmie White and Leon Taylor were visitors in Coleman last week-end.

T. C. U. Students Stop at Nothing To Go to Centenary and Return

Although there was only a small part of the T. C. U. student body present at the T. C. U.-Centenary game there was plenty of noise in the west stands, where all of the T. C. U. supporters were congregated. Thirty-one students were present and five ex-students were present.

Sid Latham, last year's yell leader, and Lowell Holloway, of the freshman football squad in '28, drove over from Longview to see the game. D. Tomlinson, who graduated last year and who is now working for Montgomery Ward & Co., drove to Shreveport accompanied by Frank Wynne, Ralph Isley and Duane Smith.

Jimmy Beal and Carl Rolater started out on the highway and were picked up on the other side of Dallas by Mrs. A. Thompson of Dallas, who has a son in Centenary College.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Eylers left Fort Worth Saturday morning in their car with Janet Largent, Ruth Mahlen, Ruth Burman and Curtis McHorse. Before they had been on the road very long they found Tom Cook and picked him up.

Joe Bailey Meacham took a car-load of boys to the game and due to car trouble had to stay in a small town west of Marshall almost the entire night until the car was fixed. The other occupants of the car were: Gordon McMahon, "Freshman" Mabery and R. Z. Dallas, who spent their time playing dominoes while the car was being repaired.

C. C. Isbell drove his father's car, loaded with a group of unlucky T. C. U. fans, unluckily because they also had car trouble. Joe Pate and Travis White were with him.

The happiest freshman in the world was "Cotton" Kirkland, who not only got to see the home folks at Shreveport, but saw the Frogs run over the Centenary Gents in an un molested manner.

Jay Williams sat in the press box as her visitor Saturday and Sunday her mother, Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Addie Goates of Jarvis Hall spent the week-end at her home in Troy.

Among the girls of Jarvis Hall who spent the week-end in Dallas were: Margaret Johnson, Inez Reynolds, Dorothy Elliott, Randolph Clark, LaVelle Stubblefield, Annie Ruth Mitchell, Marian Howry and Virginia Saunders.

Miss Ruby Williams, a freshman in the University, spent the week-end in Olney visiting her father.

Ruth Martel, freshman in T. C. U. last year, who is now attending N. T. S. T. C. at Denton, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the All Saints Hospital on Sunday, Oct. 6.

Miss Mary Grace Cheatham spent the week-end at her home in Rising Star.

Miss Eulalie Whitefield was the guest of Miss Martha Templeton in Ennis last week-end.

Mrs. Cecil Garrard was the guest of her daughter, Miss Betsy Garrard, Sunday in Jarvis Hall.

John McDiarmid attended the football game between Centenary and T. C. U. at Shreveport Saturday.

Miss Jo Doris Hooper attended the T. C. U.-Centenary game at Shreveport last Saturday.

during the game helping write up the game for The Skiff.

Charles Ewell and Fred Whittaker went down as "stowaways" on the train but returned by automobile. Robert George proved to all comers that he could ride a Texas and Pacific passenger train to Shreveport and back without paying them a cent.

Norwood McGuire, the only "gentleman of highway" who started out by himself had a lot of trouble in getting to Shreveport but who has the distinction of being the only T. C. U. student to return to Fort Worth in a lower berth of a Pullman coach.

Gordon Bounds and Cy Terry were on the highway to Shreveport but Bounds received an advancement at Centenary and rode the train back, Terry having to stay with the long-some East Texas highway back to T. C. U.

Hayes Barker and Jack Belzner claim the honor of going to Shreveport faster than any other contestant who relied on the highway to get to the game. Their biggest obstacle was to get the none too loving conductor to believe they could not afford to pay for their fare. This happened along about Wills Point and almost resulted in a walk.

Gene Turner and Ernest Strange also attended the game but due to difficulties they had rather not have their method of going or returning exposed to the general public.

Cy Young, an ex-Frog student, who is now living in Marshall, attended the game.

Moreen Woolwine, who graduated from T. C. U. last year, attended the game with her father and mother.

The remaining T. C. U. fans at the game were: Mrs. Francis Schmidt, Mrs. Raymond Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. Butler Smiser, L. C. Wright and Prof. J. Willard Ridings.

Miss Carter Honored

Delta Kappa Gamma Elects Spanish Teacher.

Miss Eula Lee Carter, assistant professor of Spanish in T. C. U., has recently been elected to membership in Delta Kappa Gamma, a national honorary fraternity in education for women.

A quotation from the formal invitation sent out by the fraternity gives the principle upon which members are chosen. "Only those are admitted to membership who have achieved distinction in the teaching profession and whose honor and high ideals have been vouched for by the officials of the society. The roll may include only the upper one-tenth of the women in the teaching profession."

The Fort Worth chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma with which Miss Carter is affiliated was organized last spring.

Merger Voted Down

Bryson-Sigma Tau Delta Issue Unacceptable to Members.

Members of the Bryson Club voted against the issue that the Bryson Club and Sigma Tau Delta should merge, at its meeting Thursday at the home of Miss Louise Burgess, secretary. The issue was discussed and a secret ballot taken.

The T. C. U. chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, which is a national professional English fraternity, is, according to Dr. H. L. Hughes, head of the English department, concerned mostly with creative literature. Bryson, on the other hand, deals largely with criticism; however, the work of the two clubs overlap somewhat, he said.

New members admitted to the club are Misses Geraldine Debnay, Harriet Copeland, Josephine Smith, Helen Merre, Siddle Joe Johnson, Hazel Wales, Jane Jarvis, Clarence Marshall, Henry McLelland and Elmer Staude. The old members present were Misses Burgess, Elizabeth Ayres, Mary Adams, and Dick Long, Owsley Shepherd, Tom King.

Bill Smith, a former student of T. C. U., who is now attending A. & M. College at College Station, spent last week-end in Fort Worth.

Wendell A. Schuler, president of the sophomore class, spent the past week-end with his parents in Houston.

Miss Weddell to Marry Next Month

The announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Minnie Weddell of San Angelo, who attended T. C. U. last year, to Mr. Joe C. Trammell was made known last week at a bridge party given by the mother of the bride-to-be, and her sister Miss Margaret Weddell at her home in San Angelo.

Interest in the announcement was heightened by the fact that Miss Weddell belongs to one of the pioneer families of Texas and is one of the well known "Weddell Twins."

The twins so nearly resemble each other that many find it difficult to distinguish one from the other. They attended Lindenwood College in St. Charles, Mo., before coming to T. C. U. The wedding will take place in November.

The Fightin' Frog forwards who matched brawn and brain with Matty Bell's Aggies this afternoon. They are, left to right: Clyde Roberson, 190-pound end, whose playing this year and last has brought back memories of "Rags" Matthews; Robert Moore, 195-lb. tackle who is playing his third year for the Purple, and who on occasion can drop back and punt high and far; Capt. Lester Brumbelow, 185-pound guard, who is one of the greatest leaders the Frogs have ever had, and who last year rated all-conference; Noble Atkins, 200-pound center, who ranks with the best in the conference on both offense and defense at the pivot position; "Motsy" Handler, 206-pound guard, the heaviest though one of the fastest men in the line; Milford "Buck" Barr, 190-pound tackle, whose play has been consistent and effective the past two years; and "Buster" Walker, 180-pound end, who can also drop out of the line and punt effectively. Of these seven men only Roberson, Atkins and Walker will be back next season.

SPORT WAVES

BY JAY WILLIAMS

MATTY BELL, we extend to you and your Aggies our heartiest welcome. As friend and as foe, T. C. U., the Horned Frogs, and all Fort Worth are glad that you are here. Again, welcome!

Looking over all available records of past games with the Aggies we found that, including last year's tilt at College Station, the Frogs and Aggies have clashed 16 times in athletic history. T. C. U. has been able to win only four out of the 16, and three of the games resulted in ties.

ONE thing we like so well about Schmidt is that he believes in giving all the boys a chance. Every man that made the Centenary trip last week was in the game at some time, and every one of them did nobly. Matty Bell isn't quite inclined to be that way, and thereby his reserves do not have the chance to develop as they should develop.

Coming back from Shreveport Saturday night Leo Butler kept most of the bunch up late with his wise-cracking. He calls Baxter one of the "oatmeal" men on the club but won't explain. Butler says that all his life he had thought that Pullman cars were just made up of "uppers" and "lowers," but that Saturday night he found out that what he thought was "lowers" was really "middle" berths. Something in that, too.

There were some mysterious happenings on the Pullman coming back, as the fellows in the uppers in the end of the Pullman can agree. Seems like the conductors resented their riding in berths that were not made up, but the "squad" arrived in Fort Worth intact. Leaving Shreveport at midnight Schmidt said he wouldn't be surprised to hear a terrible lot of

Centenary Gents Routed by Frogs

Grubbs, Roberson, Leland and Moore Make Touchdowns.

By JAY WILLIAMS.

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 12.—Flashing a brilliant passing attack and a smooth running, driving offense, the Horned Frogs completely routed the giant Crimson Centenary Gentlemen this afternoon at Fair Park Stadium 28 to 0, before a crowd of 4,000 people, approximately 100 of whom were students of T. C. U. who journeyed down yesterday and today for the game.

The Frogs scored in the first quarter when Howard Grubbs, purple quarterback, climaxed a drive down the field led by Harlos Green, Leland, and himself by plunging off-tackle for the score. After that the Gentlemen partially succeeded in stopping the Frogs' running game, and Grubbs took to the air where he found the Gents lacking in a pass defense.

Two touchdowns were added in the third quarter, with Grubbs tossing passes to Roberson and Leland for the scores. The fourth score came in the final period, when "Football" Moore, behind perfect interference, circled his left end and went over untouched. Green, Frog fullback, added the extra point after each touchdown with goals from placement.

Jake Hanna, highly touted Gentlemen quarter, was completely stopped by the Frogs and managed to get away for a good gain only once, when splashing if the train stopped somewhere down in the Caddo Lake swamps.

SCHMIDT is one of the loudest talking coaches we have ever heard. Out at the game those of us in the press box heard his voice booming across the field frequently. He pulled the "boner" of the game when, with the Frogs backed up almost on their goal line with Centenary trying desperately to score, he yelled out, "Come on, Arkansas!"

Water Sport Opens

Miss McKissick Is Manager of W. A. A. Swimming Team.

Swimming classes have been organized for the regular school year, according to Miss Elizabeth McKissick, manager for that sport. Two regular classes, one for beginners and intermediate swimmers, and the other for life savers, is in the regular course for girls taking physical training. Girls wishing to make points for swimming in the W. A. A. may do so by coming to the gym on Fridays from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. or any day after 4 p. m. Thirty hours are required to make the team. A varsity team is to be chosen later. Miss McKissick says that throughout the year water pageants will be held. Swimming is an all year sport.

Miss Camilla Collett, who attended the Ogentz school for girls last year, is enrolled in the University this fall.

he caught a pass and ran 35 yards before being thrown. The Frogs outplayed the Gents in every department of play, and presented a well-balanced, powerful, and fast team.

"No. 13 Not So Unlucky," Says Big Buck Barr

"It's a wonder you don't get killed." That is what fans tell Milford (Buck) Barr, giant tackle from Kaufman, when they see No. 13 on his football uniform. Barr is playing his third year for the T. C. U. Horned Frogs, and for the last two years has been No. 13 on the roster. "I'm not superstitious," Barr says. "When Matty Bell last year offered 13 to me, after several other fellows had refused it, I took it. So far it has had no effect on me. Some people believe 13 is good luck. Well—maybe so."

Dr. Salkeld Talks in Chapel

Dr. E. D. Salkeld, pastor of the First Christian Church of Abilene, talked in chapel Friday. His subject was the trip which he and Mrs. Salkeld took through the Holy Land this summer. Dr. Salkeld is the father of Dan Bert Salkeld, one of the freshman football players.

Officers Are Elected

Tennis Club Names Miss Bill Schultz as President.

Racketeers, girls' tennis club, elected the following officers at its initial meeting last Tuesday afternoon: President, Miss Bill Schultz, vice president, Miss Virginia Bryson; secretary, Miss Inez Reynolds; treasurer, Miss Julie Pearl Morgan, and reporter, Miss Jacque Laynsdale. In order to get credit for tennis in W. A. A. a girl must either play on the campus or with some other W. A. A. member. Girls who do not know the game will be instructed by members. Thirty hours are required to make the club. Miss Madeline Westbrook is the W. A. A. tennis manager, under whose supervision the club was organized.

Kathryn McDaniel of Stamford, who has been enrolled in T. C. U. for the past two years, is a student at C. I. A. in Denton this year.

Miss Josephine Hughes is now living in Attalla, Ala., where she is employed in the office of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company. Miss Hughes was a sophomore in T. C. U. last year.

Misses Una Winters and Dorothy Mays, students in T. C. U., attended the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, this last summer. Miss Winters is also a former student of the University of Texas.

Practice Begins For Basketball

Sessions to Meet Under Direction of Wallin and Flynn.

Twelve men, both varsity and freshman candidates, answered first call for basketball practice at T. C. U. last Wednesday night, when Coach Francis Schmidt opened the fall practice season with a call for candidates who are not out for varsity or freshman football.

Practice sessions will be held three nights a week from now until the close of the football season and will be held under the direction of Horace Wallin, captain of the cage squad last year. Wallin will be assisted by Al Flynn, letterman at forward last year. Schmidt will work with the team as much as his football duties will allow him, and at the close of the grid season he will begin active practice with the varsity squad.

Wallin, Flynn and Chappell, letterman; and Duane Smith, squadman, will be the only veterans to work out regularly, but the squad will be increased at various times by some of the last year lettermen and squadmen who are out for football. The latter will not be able to practice regularly. Following is a list of those, both freshmen and varsity, who reported at the opening practice: Wallin, Fort Worth; Flynn, Fort Worth; Atkins, Crystal Falls; Hugh and Maynard Buck, Crosbyton; Al Parker, Dallas; John McDiarmid, Fort Worth; Rozelle, Fort Worth.

Freshmen—Summer, Athens; Tiner, Waco; Bailey, Midlothian, and Freeze, Sweetwater.

Two Football Men Begin Practice Again

Griffith, Frog Fullback, Will Be Able to Meet Rice—Cox Has Started Work.

Horned Frog followers were encouraged this week with the announcement that Austin Griffith, Frog fullback ace who chipped his shoulder in the initial game of the season and has been lost to the team since, will be back in uniform again Monday and will perhaps be available for use during the last four conference games of the season.

Griffith says that doctors will remove the brace on his shoulder next Monday, and that he feels certain that he will be able to take light workouts and be ready when the Frogs meet Rice here Nov. 8.

Moore good news for Frog coaches and fans appeared the past week in the fact that Rob El Cox, 190-pound tackle from the squad last year, began workouts with the team Monday and is expected to be ready to play two weeks hence. Cox was operated on for appendicitis a few days before school started, and until he began working out Monday it was thought that he would be lost to the team all season.

If he is ready to play in two weeks he will be a great help to the Frog forward line, for he was one of the best prospects on the squad last year at the close of the season.

"I never felt better in my life," was Cox's comment on his physical condition. "I am gaining back all the weight I lost, and if anything keeps me off this ball club in two weeks it will be something besides poor condition and an operation."

Rhodes Scholarship Candidates Chosen

Buck and McDiarmid to Represent T. C. U. at Austin During Tryouts.

Hugh Quinn Buck of Crosbyton and Welf McDiarmid of Fort Worth will be candidates from T. C. U. for the Rhodes scholarship to be given a Texas college student this year. Buck is president of the student body, while McDiarmid, now doing graduate work in the University, held that position last year. They will go to Austin soon to appear before the selection committee there.

Buck, who will graduate this year, represented T. C. U. at the Southern Oratory Contest held in Shreveport, La., in 1926 and was the first freshman to make the T. C. U. debating team. When a sophomore he attended the Pi Kappa Delta convention held at Tiffin, Ohio. He is majoring in government. Last year Buck was one of T. C. U.'s best track and a member of the "T" Assn. McDiarmid, son of Prof. Hart Schaeffer, is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and is doing graduate work in his Master's Degree. H

Report of Game by Telephone Lasts 3 Hours and 20 Minutes

Probably the longest telephone conversation in the history of T. C. U. was held last Saturday when the Western Union telephoned The Skiff a play-by-play report of the T. C. U.-Centenary football game. The report lasted from 2:30 p. m. until 5:50 o'clock, 3 hours and 20 minutes.

Approximately 500 heard the description of the game, as announced by A. H. Montford through a speech-input amplifier connected to a loudspeaker in the auditorium. Miss Pauline Barnes, editor of The Skiff, got the report first over the telephone and dictated the results to Joseph B. Cowan, instructor in journalism, who typed them. The typewritten reports were passed to Montford. Jay Williams, who attended the game in Shreveport, called off the plays for the Western Union operator there.

The amplifier used to broadcast the game is owned by the physics department of T. C. U., which under the direction of Prof. Clois Sanders, Brant Conway and James Parker arranged the radio apparatus for the broadcast. The loudspeaker used is one belonging in Jarvis Hall.

A slicker that stands the gaff...

THE fellow who first called a Fish Brand Slicker "The Rainy Day Pal" said something. A pal stands by you through thick and thin. That's one of the points college men always make when they talk to us about Fish Brand Slickers. They're weather-proof and comfortable after long years of service.

Buy yourself a real Fish Brand "Varsity" or "Topper" model, and you'll have a slicker for keeps. A. J. Tower Company, Boston, Mass.
