April 20, 1953

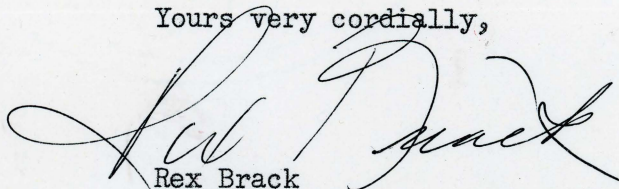

Congratulations.....

When the Greater Fort Worth International Airport is officially opened on April 26, as one of the citizens of Fort Worth you can take great pride in your city as having one of the finest airports in the Western Hemisphere.

In keeping with this splendid contribution to the aviation industry, Braniff Airways happily announces an expansion of service in Fort Worth, designed to provide you with excellent and convenient airline service to meet your travel requirements. A total of 32 daily flights will operate in and out of the Greater Fort Worth International Airport, which represents an increase of 12 flights over our March 1 schedules. This increase doubles our seating capacity, which means it is now twice as convenient for you to fly to all parts of North and South America on the Braniff system .... whether by one of our newly added DC-6 flights, DC-4, DC-3 or on one of our brand new Super Convair 340 flights.

We invite you to call on any of our 141 offices in the Western Hemisphere for service any time and, of course, in Fort Worth our people at the Texas Hotel are always at your service in helping you with your travel needs. We're looking forward to having you fly with us soon, and enclose our latest schedule folder for your information and use.

Yours very cordially,

Rex Brack
