Dear Mr. Carter:

Mr. Doolittle and I returned to the office early this week and this is the first opportunity that I have had to drop you a note of sincere thanks for the many courtesies and kindnesses which you showed to us while we were in Fort Worth.

It was a great privilege and pleasure for me to have the opportunity of becoming acquainted with you and I am sure that anyone who has never been the recipient of your most gracious hospitality has missed a quality of friendship and good living found no place else in the world.

The hat that you gave me is one of my prized possessions. Both Mr. Doolittle and I are wearing our "Amon Carter" hats continuously and a little to the consternation of the local cliff dwellers.

Please be assured that if there is ever an opportunity when I can be of service to you, I stand ready and anxious to help you.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Very truly yours,

H. F. Brown
