EX-STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

The T. C. U. Ex-Students Association is a voluntary association of former students of Texas Christian University. Fraternal in nature, it exists to promote closer relationship and to provide opportunity for continued friendship among Texas Christian University Ex-Students wherever they may be; to cooperate with the administrative officials, faculty, staff and Board of Trustees of Texas Christian University with their development, educational, trust and other responsibilities in every possible way consistent with the policies of the University; to encourage and cooperate with other organizations or associations now existing or which may hereafter be formed to assist and aid the University in its overall program; to encourage good students to enroll in Texas Christian University and to render such aid and assistance to such prospective students and to those enrolled in the University as may be consistent with the policies of the University; to continually strive to promote its best interests and development and thereby assure Texas Christian University a well-rounded program comparable to any of the major universities.

In the interest of furthering these charter purposes of the T. C. U. Ex-Students Association and in behalf of its executive officers, Mr. Paul O. Ridings, Class of 1938, president; Miss Eugenia Luker, Class of 1951, and Mr. Warren C. Logan, Class of 1934, vice-presidents; and Miss Doris Gregg, Class of 1951, treasurer; its Board of Directors and Presidents of active T. C. U. Ex-Student Clubs.
