Mrs. K. Deakins,
Secretary to Amon G. Carter,
Fort Worth Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Mrs. Deakins:

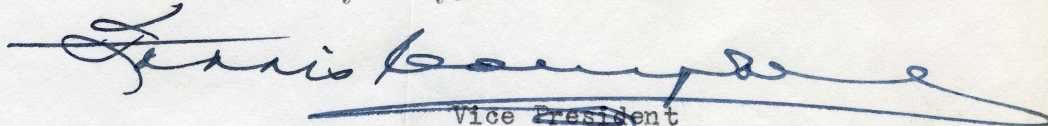

It is my pleasure to acknowledge receipt of your letter of April 28 and I shall look forward to receiving the special edition of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram issued April 19 in connection with the formal opening of Consolidated Aircraft Corporation's new bomber plant at Fort Worth.

On the occasion of the opening of the plant all the press despatches up this way read - "Somewhere in the Southwest" -- not that that was very much of a disguise.

When Mr. Carter returns please tell him I thought about him one night here recently when an announcer said the next song would be dedicated to Fort Worth. You can guess what they played - "Deep In The Heart of Texas". Unless Amon has been misleading us, or I have gotten mixed up in my geography, I didn't know that Fort Worth was in that part of the State.

With kind regards, I am

Yours very truly,

Vice President
