Dear Mr. Carter:

On June 9 and 10, 1951, we will dedicate our Waterloo Municipal Airport and new airport terminal building. Saturday, June 9th, will be open house at the airport, with a banquet Saturday evening at which Mr. Jennings Randolph, Assistant to the President, Capital Airlines, will be the principal speaker.

I would like you to be one of our honored guests on this occasion and would like to have you at the banquet to make a few remarks if you could work it into your schedule at all.

Charles F. Horne and Phillips Moore are coming out from Washington, as well as Postmaster General Jesse Donaldson.

The dedication ceremony proper will be held at the airport at 2:30 PM Sunday afternoon, June 10th. This of course will not be a dedication ceremony on the same plane as the one which you will have at Midway Airport next spring, but we do expect to have Air Force and Navy participation, both in static displays and flying.

We would really consider it an honor if you could arrange to be with us.

Cordially,
