AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 30.—Resignation of Amon G. Carter as a member of the Board of Directors of the West Texas Technological College was requested in a letter today by Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson.

The letter says the task is unpleasant to the Governor and says she is informed that in December last year Carter "fitted up a building owned or controlled by you (perhaps a garage building) in the old-fashioned barroom way, providing a bar with the foot rail and the sawdust on the floor, and behind the bar you had a man dressed in the old-fashioned bartender white apron style for the Oil Men's Association in Fort Worth."

"I am informed that you invited some 200 or 300 guests and to those who came, you dispensed drinks that were, to say the least, stimulating and that you caused to be given away souvenir canes in which there is a hidden vial some 30 inches in length that contained approximately one pint of beverage" the letter reads.

Has One of Canes.

"I have one of the canes in my possession which I am reliably informed came from your place. I am also advised that at said reception given by you many became stimulated and others were under the influence of an invigorating decoction and that you in company
