

December 21, 1940,

Mr. Jimmie Rogers,
1551 South Reeves Street,
Los Angeles, Calif.

Dear Jimmie:

You are the "Gol durndest" guy in the world! I misplaced your address and asked my secretary, Mrs. Deakins, to write and ascertain it for me. She had to establish a regular follow-up system and it took several letters to reach you. However, I am glad to have your letter and although your smoked turkey and pecans will be a little late in reaching you, they will be sent and you can nibble on the turkeys and pecans I sent your Mother and Bill until yours arrives.

I am sorry you could not have been with us at the time they were here.

With best wishes to Astree and Kem, I am

Sincerely,

AGC.KD
