March 23, 1945.

Mrs. C. L. Donaho,
Stephenville, Texas.

Dear Mrs. Donaho:

I have delayed acknowledging your wire advising that Captain Donaho's release had been confirmed by the United States Military Mission in Moscow because I thought I might have the same news about Amon Junior any day. It has been two months now since some of the boys were liberated, so I feel rather confident that he is among those that were moved on to other camps. Anyway, I am delighted that Captain Donaho has been liberated and hope that he will soon arrive in the States.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

AGC:KD
