FISH VICTORS IN CLASS DAY EVENTS; GET CUP; PROFS BEAT PREACHERS

By CHAS. W. CHRISTENBERRY

Through the efforts of M. E. Daniel, professor of law, and the co-operation of Dean Parks and the faculty, the field day exercises planned for April Fool's Day were carried out in a highly successful manner on last Friday, San Jacinto Day.

The main events consisted of a track meet and tug o' war between the freshman class and the sophomore class, and a baseball game (if such can be called a game) between the faculty and the preacher boys. The fish were the winners of the contests by several points, and great joy has reigned in the camp of the verdant followers for the last week; for they defeated the dignified sophomores and won from them the handsome loving cup awarded the victors by the Cauble Drug Store, Seventh and Houston Streets.

To Be Annual Event.

These field day exercises will be held annually, and the above firm, a staunch friend of the University, will give a similar cup every year. Mr. Cauble, owner, and Mr. Brown, manager of the Cauble Drug store, were present at the chapel exercises last Saturday, when the loving cup was publicly and officially awarded to the Freshman Class. Paul Pirke, president of the victorious class, made a very appropriate speech of acknowledgement of the gift. Pope Ager-ton led yells for both the freshmen and sophomores.

Track Meet First

The track meet was to begin at 2:30. At 1:30, Jo Edens, the leader of the "fish" forces, led his troops upon the field, and put them through preliminary paces in preparation for the gruelling contests to follow. A few minutes later, "Doc" Ramsey, general for the sophs, led his bunch of second year men upon the field.

By 2:30, the whole student body had turned out, eager for the fray to begin. The meet opened with the 100-yard dash, and a close, exciting race it was, which ended by Peyton Jones, a wearer of the "Green," first, and Dudley Smith, also a fish, and "General" Ramsey of the sophs tied for second. Undaunted by this first defeat, the sophomores went into the next event, the broad jump, with pep and fight. It appeared in the first trials, that Dudley Smith (fish) would take this; but at the end of the contest, Glenn Hutton (soph) copped first place with a jump of 19 feet 6 inches, Claud Kornegay and D. Smith, both freshmen, took second and third places, respectively.

Divide Honors in 2 Events.

The next event was the 220-yard dash, Loraine Dutton (fish), taking first honors, and Aubrey Leveridge (soph) running him a close second. This race was followed by the high jump; and the result of this event proved to be the surprise of the whole meet. The men who made it interesting were Kornegay, Hutton, Pirkle, and Armour. The winner of first place was "Linnie" Armour, a stocky sophomore, who out-jumped the lanky fish competitor, Claud Kornegay. Claude finished second, and Glenn Hutton, soph, came third.

Fish Take Relay.

The first year men easily took the next event, the relay, which proved exciting, however, from the very nature of the race. Peyton Jones, winner of the 100-yard dash, started for the fish, and Noel Branton for the sophomores. The lead gained by Jones on the first lap was held by the succeeding freshmen runners—Dutton, Johnson, and Kornegay. Sowell, Snow, and A. Leveridge did their level best to overcome the fish's lead, but were defeated by several yards. Snow was "dead game,"

VARSAITY TAKES 2 FROM BROWNWOOD BOYS; READY FOR 6-DAY ROAD TRIP

By Ulmont Johnson.

T. C. U. climbed two rungs closer to the top of the T. I. A. A. ladder by taking two games from Daniel Baker Monday and Tuesday.

Lee's effectiveness in the pinches was largely responsible for the first victory, as he kept the hits well scattered and won by a score of 9 to 4. In the second game the Christians gamely overcame a six run lead and won out 8 to 6.

McKee was the bright star, getting five hits and fielding well. Nelson, Stangl, Baker and Dickinson also hit well. The hitting of Dossey and the fielding of Phillips were the features of Daniel Baker's play.

The team leaves Sunday for a long trip, playing two games each with Southwestern, Baylor and Texas. The final standing of the team depends upon this trip, as both Baylor and Texas stand high in the association.

First Game.

The Daniel Baker crew often threatened, but were never able to get enough runs to take the lead. Their frequent errors were responsible for several runs. In the second inning Stangl took a first on an error, Baker knocked a pretty double and Raley drove both in with a single. Several runs were added on errors, and in the eighth, after two were out, Vaughn walked, and singles by Lee, McKee, Gunter and Nelson brought four runs across the pan, cinching the game.

Second Game.

The second game looked very doubtful for a while. Edens got a bad start, walking two men and allowing a hit, and was relieved by Willis. The spit ball artist was not right, and Daniel Baker made five runs before they could be retired. They added another in the second on hits by Anderson and Overcash and an error by Stangl. The Christians began to score in the latter part of the game, and finally a bunch of errors and hits by Stangl, Baker and Christenberry brought in three runs, enough to win.

The score:

DR. GUMM IS ELECTED ASSISTANT SECRETARY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Dr. C. C. Gumm, head of the Department of English in the University for the past two years, will become active assistant secretary of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce Monday following his election to the place by the board of directors this week.

In order to assume this new work at once, Dr. Gumm has turned over all of his class work except the senior English to Mr. Crain for the remainder of the term. He will, however, remain active head of the department and will also retain the directorship of athletics until the close of school.

President Ben Keith of the Chamber of Commerce conferred with Acting President W. B. Parks of the University in regard to the matter and as a result Dr. Gumm was given a leave of absence from active teaching.

CRAIN RESIGNS CHURCH.

Mr. Crain last Sunday tendered his resignation as pastor of the Chestnut Avenue Christian Church in order to be able to give his entire time to the work here. He will reside in Goode Hall beginning Monday. Mr. Crain will offer all courses outlined for the summer session.

So far as is known no action has been contemplated with respect to electing a man to succeed Dr. Gumm as head of the English Department. Mr. Crain will have charge of the work only through the summer school as he has already been chosen to take charge of the History Department next year. His success in his church is shown by the fact that the membership was increased during his pastorate from 89 to 240, and the church now has property valued at $3,500 and pledges amounting to $3,000, whereas when he accepted the leadership of the congregation it had no capital whatever.

Election a Surprise.

The election of Dr. Gumm to the position with the Chamber of Commerce came as a surprise to him; the place was offered him because of his fitness for the work and because of the interest he has shown in civic affairs.

Dr. Gumm did his major work in Vanderbilt University in economics and sociology and has never lost his love for the work in which he specialized. This is attested by his connections with many movements for civic and state betterment. He is general chairman of the Fort Worth branch of the Buy-It-Made-in-Texas Association, general chairman of a committee planning the establishment of a railroad Y. M. C. A. in Fort Worth, and is a director of the city Y. M. C. A.

Just this week he was elected vice-president of the State Association of Young Men's Business Leagues.

Opportunity for Service.

It is known that he was offered a flattering position earlier in the year with a state organization but refused it because he liked T. C. U. too well to leave. The place with the Chamber of Commerce, in connection with which he will also have charge of the publicity department, affords Dr. Gumm an opportunity for larger service. He represents the strong spirit of social service which has been so thoroughly advocated in T. C. U.

Will Help T. C. U.

It is considered a direct compliment to T. C. U. that the Chamber of Commerce directors should come to the University and take a professor from his chair and put him in such a responsible position. Dr. Gumm will now be in a still better situation for cementing a firmer bond between T. C. U. and Fort Worth.

Dr. Gumm is a man of all-round accomplishment. He has shown his business ability by the scrupulous care with which he has spent the University's money while he has been director of athletics. The finances are now in excellent condition. Dr. Gumm holds a place of high regard in the T. I. A. A., being chairman on

FINE ART FACULTY ENTERTAINS AT CAHOON'S

The fine arts faculty entertained other members of the faculty and the trustees who reside in the city at the home of Prof. and Mrs. F. M. Cahoon on Monday evening, April 24.

A large number of the local faculty, the medical faculty and the trustees were present. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rogers and Dr. and Mrs. McFarland came over from Dallas in their cars.

The Cahoon home was decorated in regal purple and white with lilies in thought of Easter-tide. Frozen grape punch, individual cakes with T. C. U. in purple and purple and white mints were served by Misses Erskine and Alice Long, Vestal Tompkins and Grace Brown.

In the receiving line were Mr. Frederick Cahoon, Helen Fouts Cahoon, Mr. Lewis Casperson, Dura Brokaw Cockrell, Miss Cecile Craiger, Mr. Thomas H. Hamilton, Miss Leslie Fern Mosey, Mr. Guy R. Pitner, Miss Leila Long Powell and Miss Aline Weir Wilson.

KEITH OF T. C. U. IS SECOND IN STATE CONTEST, TEXAS U. FIRST

Contest Results.

First place—Jerome K. Crossman, University of Texas.

Second place—John M. Keith, Texas Christian University.

New Officers.

William H. Sealy, Trinity, president.

Lee Beckham, Daniel Baker, vice-president.

Allen Grundy, Trinity, corresponding secretary.

Claude Lloyd, Simmons, recording secretary.

Carl Callaway, Texas U., treasurer.

The sixteen orators and delegates who attended the meeting of the Texas State Oratorical Association here last week have a warm spot in their hearts for T. C. U. following the two days' entertainment given them during their stay in the University.

Most of the representatives arrived in time for the banquet which was given in their honor Thursday night at the Westbrook. The men were located in Clark Hall.

A special car carried the banqueters from the campus to the Westbrook and back.

Give Toasts.

The idea of the program committee—to have a number of snappy and spicy talks—was thoroughly carried out by the after-dinner speakers. Although the committee did not know the men to whom they assigned the toasts, it seemed that they hit exactly the right man in each instance.

The following program was given except in the case of W. Floyd Sweet, who was unable to attend on account of sickness: Toastmaster, Horace Jones; "Welcome," Clyde Grissom, president T. C. U. Oratorical Association; "Oratory," Prof. E. R. Cockrell; "Weak Knees in the Evolution of Oratory," Lee Beckham of Daniel Baker; "Banquet Oratory—Its Inspiration and Purpose," W. Floyd Sweet, T. C. U.; "Left-Overs From Last Year's Convention," L. L. McCutchen, Austin College; Vocal Solo, Miss Vestal Tompkins; "What the State Contest Means to Texas Colleges," Will W. Jackson, Southwestern; "Frontier Oratory," M. L. Hopson, Simmons; "The Also-Rans," Claude V. King, Trinity; "To the Victor the Spoils," Carl Callaway, University of Texas.

38 Couples Attend.

The following couples attended the banquet: Ester Moore, L. L. McCutchen; Irene Carson, J. K. Crossman; Lola McFarland, W. W. Jack-

MISS MARION BAUGH IS ELECTED MAID-OF-HONOR FOR T.W.C. MAY FESTIVAL

Miss Marion Baugh was elected by the student body last Saturday to represent T. C. U. as maid-of-honor at the May festival to be given Monday, May 1, at Texas Woman's College.

Nominations were made at a student body meeting in chapel Saturday morning and the voting took place during the day. Misses Marion Baugh, Monette Whaley and Pansy Bozeman received nominations for the honor.

PUPILS OF MRS. CAHOON AND MR. PITNER GIVE ENJOYABLE MUSICALE

The whirl of brilliant fine arts programs and recitals which began a week ago has had several events added to its list this week. One of these, and was a most enjoyable one, was an "At Home Musicale," given by pupils of Helen Fouts Cahoon and Guy Richardson Pitner, assisted by the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Hamilton. Quite a number of people from the city attended.

The program, which showed careful thought and work throughout, follows:

- (a) Venetian Love Song.....Nevin
- (b) Farewell ..... Nevin
- Girls' Glee Club
- Aria, "He Is Kind".....Massanet
- Miss Margaret Bell
- Automme .....Chaminade
- Miss Frances Williams

- Miss Gertrude Morris

PERSONALS and LOCALS

Miss May Owen and Claude Wingo went as representatives of the Y. W. C. A. and Volunteer Band, respectively, to the state conference of the Student Volunteer Union at Georgetown.

Mrs. Dan Hartman, Mrs. Roger Stevenson, Miss Frances Stevenson and Miss Vida George, alumnae of Daniel Baker, were the guests of Mrs. Freeland at the Daniel Baker-T. C. U. baseball game Monday.

Lee Beckham, delegate from Daniel Baker to the State Oratorical Association meeting, remained in the University Saturday and Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Freeland. Beckham is a member of the ball team.

The Christian Endeavorers held a sunrise prayer meeting at oFrest Park last Sunday morning. The Endeavorers left the University at about six o'clock, returning in time for breakfast at seven. The meeting was led by Miss Bernice Holmes, and a good attendance is reported.

Stillwell Melton, Alden Evans, James McBride, W. L. Thornton, Horace Jones and Willis McGregor served as judges in the interscholastic debates held at the High School last Saturday. One team in each county in this district participated; Weatherford won the final contest.

Liven Up Chapel.

An hour in chapel was turned over to the State Association Friday morning following an address on "Oratory," by Prof. E. R. Cockrell. A series of rapid-fire chapel talks bristling with interesting stories made the hour a fascinating one for the student body. Those called on to say what was nearest their hearts were Claude King, W. H. Sealy and Kent Andrews of Trinity; S. Finley Ewing, and J. K. Crossman of the University of Texas; J. D. Aldredge and W. A. Bowen of Baylor University; W. B. Phipps and Raymond Roy of Simmons College; W. M. Comfort of Austin College; W. W. Jackson of Southwestern; Lee Beckham of Daniel Baker, and John Keith of T. C. U.

Following the talks of the delegates, Homer Tomlinson, student yell leader, stirred up the pep by leading fifteen rahs for the various colleges represented.

No More Manuscripts.

The passing of an amendment to the constitution at the business meeting will eliminate the system of submitting manuscripts for consideration. In the future the three judges present on the night of the contest will grade the speakers on thought, composition and delivery.

A committee consisting of J. D. Aldredge of Baylor, Lee Beckham of Daniel Baker and W. Floyd Sweet of T. C. U. was appointed to make recommendations at the 1917 meeting concerning the admittance of other schools to the Association, notably, Southern Methodist University and Rice Institute.

Meet at Trinity Next.

Since the contest, according to the rotation followed, will be held next year at Trinity, the president and corresponding secretary were chosen from that school. Sealy, Beckham and Callaway, being present at the time of their election, took the oath of office at the afternoon meeting.

The retiring officers were Horace Jones, president; Claude V. King, vice-president; Raymond Foy, treasurer; James McBride, corresponding secretary, and S. Finley Ewing, recording secretary.

Give Vote of Thanks.

A unanimous vote of thanks was given the student body, the faculty and other officers of the University for the treatment and courtesy shown the members of the T. S. O. A. during their stay in the University.

200 Hear Contest.

A crowd of 200 people heard the contest Friday night. Keith of T. C. U. and Crossman of Texas were generally considered the chief contenders for first place honors, with Andrews of Trinity following close after them. Keith's average on delivery was the same as Crossman's; his average on thought and composition with two judges was the same; what killed his chance for first place was the low grade given him by one manuscript judge.

Grades on Manuscripts.

The judges on thought and composition were Prof. J. Q. Adams, head of the Department of Public Speaking at the Louisiana State University; Prof. Virgil L. Jones of the University of Arkansas, and Prof. F. C. Oaks of the Central State Normal, Edmond, Okla.

The following grades were given the manuscripts by these judges, the grades being listed in the order the judges are named above.

"Preparedness" by Leslie C. Merrem of Southwestern—81, 80, 91.

"The College Man, the World Man" by Kent Andrews of Trinity—83, 85, 89.

"Americanism" by J. O. Cade of Daniel Baker—75, 65, 86.

"The Crime Against the Criminal in Texas" by J. K. Crossman of University of Texas—85, 92, 92.

"Expansion by the Sword" by John Keith of T. C. U.—87, 75, 90.

"A Page of Unwritten History" by W. A. Bowen of Baylor—88, 72, 88.

"Immigration After the War" by W. M. Comfort of Austin College—73, 88, 87.

"Perils of Human Choice" by W. B. Phipps of Simmons College—80, 68, 85.

Grades on Delivery.

The judges on delivery were Prof. R. L. Paschal, principal of the Fort Worth High School; William Pindexter of Cleburne, and Charles Mays, Fort Worth lawyer.

Their grades, respectively, were as follows:

"Preparedness," Merrem, Southwestern, 87, 78, 95.

"The College Man, the World Man," Andrews, Trinity, 97, 80, 92.

"Americanism," Cade, Daniel Baker, 80, 75, 87.

"The Crime Against the Criminal in Texas," Crossman, Texas, 95, 90, 97.

"A Page of Unwritten History," Bowen, Baylor, 88, 79, 88.

"Expansion by the Sword," Keith, T. C. U., 90, 98, 94.

"Immigration After the War," Comfort, Austin College, 89, 92, 89.

"Perils of Human Choice," Phipps, Simmons, 78, 97, 91.

Music was furnished by the T. C. U. orchestra.

MISS LERA BROWN GIVES FIRST GRADUATE RECITAL READING "THE MANSION"

The first graduate recital of the year was given last Wednesday evening, April 26, by Miss Lera Brown, graduate of the oratory department, in the main auditorium.

Miss Brown was a member of the graduating class of 1915, and has been coming down from her home in Garland each week this year to take work under Miss Leilo Long Powell.

Miss Brown's selection was "The Mansion" by Henry Van Dyke. The work was of the highest character possible, full of intense feeling and interest. As a reader, Miss Brown may be ranked among the best in the University. Her work certainly showed much careful thought and study and was highly appreciated by a large audience.

CURRAN'S LAUNDRY

putting every ounce of strength he possessed in a last effort to make the freshmen "bite the dust." At the end of this race, the freshmen were leading in points.

Tug o' War the Big Event.

The next, and biggest, event of the contest—the tug o' war—afforded the big appreciative crowd mere fun and excitement than a tfoyheHtratt5 competition between the classes.

This great "rope-pulling" contest excitement than any of the former consisted of two events: in the first, all freshmen pulled against all sophomores; in the second, ten picked men from each class opposed each other. The object was, in both events, for the fish to pull one end of a rope and the sophs on the other end, until one of the classes succeeded in dragging the middle of the rope across their line thirty yards from the middle. The members of one team were allowed to hold their opponents in any way, provided no bodily injury was inflicted.

Lots of Excitement.

At the crack of the pistol of Referee Freeland the battle began. With "Big" Monk on one end of the rope, and Kornegay on the other, it first appeared that it would be a deadlock. However, it was only a matter of seconds before two or three sturdy wearers of the Green "piled" the big sophomore, Monk, while the other fish pulled for dear life. Sanders did excellent work for the lower classmen, until E. B. Sewell, little but loud, secured a "bear hug" around the big freshman's knees, thus ending his usefulness. Outnumbered considerably, the sophs fought desperately, but were slowly but surely dragged over the line.

The next and last feature, ten picked men from each class, resulted in a more desperate clash than the first one. Monk again went down, fighting like a mad bull, before the onrush of three of the biggest freshies. Smiser, Armour, Leveridge, Sowell and Snow for the sophs, ably assisted by six other good fighters, steadily carried the rope toward their own territory. However, it was not until both sides were almost completely physically exhausted did the first year boys, led by Pirkle, Sanders and Skaggs, allow the sophs, who outweighed them, to pull them over to defeat.

Participants Exhausted.

Both sides were "all in" after this contest, and some of them were almost "windbroke." Monk suffered the hardest, and especially instructed The Skiff reporter, should he die, to have this inscription put over his grave, "Here lies a soph, who died for his class."

Profs.-Preachers Furnish Fun.

Those who missed the Faculty-Preacher game missed one of the rarest treats of the year. The affair only went five innings, but in that time the faculty piled up 21 runs, made 17 hits, and miscued 8 times. The preachers made six tallies, 11 hits, and 9 errors.

In spite of the overwhelming score, the game was close and interesting, and afforded the big crowd unlimited amusement. Up to the last inning, the score was tied up, five runs apiece. In the last inning; however, the professors opened up their batteries on the poor embryo ministers—worse than they are accustomed to in the lecture rooms—and made 16 runs.

Arnsperger for the defeated team received poor support and was hit hard. He was replaced by Buhler, who was ineffective, and Arnsperger was again forced to take the mound. He was met by a fusillade of hits, and was relieved by Glenn Hutton.

Many Stars Play.

For the followers of Pedagogics, the stars were the fielding of Batson at second, the hitting and base-running of Alexander, the all-round and the pep of Gumm at short-stop. Dr. Gumm, by his pep on the coaching line and in the field, was the favorite of the grandstand. Munday pitch-work of Cahoon on the initial sack, ed three innings for the victors, and then gave way to Daniel. The first five preachers who faced the law professor hit him safely, but he settled down and was airtight the rest of the game. "Big Alex's" slide in home was a feature.

The faculty are elated over their victory, and feel confident that they will repeat next year.

appeals from the president's decisions and having formerly been president of the state association.

Student of Economics.

Although he practically completed his doctor's work in economics and sociology at Vanderbilt, Dr. Gumm really took his Ph. D. in English at the University of Pennsylvania.

While a tVanderbilt he took one year of law, also reviewing all the undergraduate work in history, economics and sociology in addition to his other work.

Winner of Prize.

During his last year at Vanderbilt he was awarded the Ashida prize for the best graduate research work of the year. Chancellor Kirkland in a flattering letter gave him his recommendation as the best research student in economics and sociology he had ever known.

Dr. Gumm taught at the University of Pennsylvania, the University of Missouri and at Polytechnic College before he came to T. C. U.
