No. 7

Harry Bone, state secretary of the student "Y" will conduct the open forum on "Student Initiative in the College" at the University Religious Fellowship program to be sponsored by the campus "Y" association Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the University auditorium.

Dean Hall will preach in the University Christian Church during November. This month has been set aside as Evangelism Month. "What Shall I Do With Jesus in This 20th Century?" will be Dean Hall's subject for Nov. 1.

W. F. Mohlin, chemist of the city water department, will give a lecture on "Chemical and Microscopic Control of Drinking Water" at the meeting of the Science Seminar Monday night at 7 o'clock. Members of the seminar invite all interested students and faculty members to attend the meeting, which will be held in the biology laboratories.

Miss Major will address the English section of the public schools at Central High School Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Her subject, "Peoples and Poetry of the Southwest," will be illustrated by Mrs. Annable Hall Bailey singing, accompanied by Miss Adeline Boyd at the piano.

Mrs. Bailey was piano soloist for the annual Mickwitz Dinner held at the Dallas Athletic Club last Saturday evening.

Prof. W. C. Smith will address a C. I. A. group in Denton tonight on the subject, "The Headhunters of Assam."

Prof. Elliott filled the pulpit of the Morningside Christian Church last Sunday in the absence of its pastor.

Bean Leftwich and Prof. Elliott will attend the Forum meeting in Dallas Sunday afternoon.

Prof. Sammis reports that the band will take part in the dedication program at the new T. & P. Station Tuesday night.

Mr. Curry is in Austin attending a librarian's convention and is expected to return Monday or Tuesday.
