Dear Mr. Paradis:

In accordance with your instructions of October 18, we have transferred 16,800 shares of Common stock of your company from the name of Mr. Amon G. Carter. Certificates for 8,400 shares were issued in the name of Amon G. Carter, Jr., and certificates for 8,400 shares were issued in the name of Ruth Carter Johnson.

We are enclosing copies of the letter which were sent to Mr. Carter's children withtheir stock certificates.

Your letter informs us that this transfer did not constitute a sale; however, Federal stock transfer tax was payable at the rate of 5¢ per $100 par value or fraction thereof represented by the certificates being issued to each transferee or a total of $8.40. Your check for $4.80 was enclosed with the stock certificates, and we advanced $3.60 to cover the additional tax required. A statement for this amount is enclosed, and we ask that youplease return it to us with your remittance.

Very truly yours
