ENDOWMENT CLIMBING

HALF MILLION FINANCE GOAL OF CAMPAIGN REACHED

Information was given out by President E. M. Waits of T. C. U. that the financial campaign for settlement of debts and a half million dollars endowment may easily be reached before the final announcement of the results is made from the platform Tuesday. It is also believed that an additional endowment will be received from the National Board of Education.

Probably never before in the history of religious educational institutions has so universal a response been made by any constituency than that made to Texas Christian University by Christian churches over the states of Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma. Boyd Keith and Sam J. McFarland of Dallas have been going on extended tours as well as L. N. D. Wells of Dallas, Clifford Weaver of McKinney, and others.

However, the clear-of-indebtedness and half million dollar endowment success may be attributed, if to any one man, to President Edward McShane Waits, who resigned the pastorate of Magnolia Christian church of Fort Worth six years ago to learn the business of being a college president. He began with a vision that he only could see at that time, and now he stands head and shoulder above the man that he might have been and still have been considered successful.

A year ago in San Antonio those in the educational session of the Texas Christian Missionary convention, planned to have T. C. U. out of debt and an endowment raised by June, 1923. Such a program

EDWARD McSHANE WAITS

President of Texas Christian University

President Edward McShane Waits of Texas Christian University has done an outstanding work for the institution, not only during the past year, but through the past eight years. He began soon after his coming as president in 1915 to cultivate the field for the raising of the endowment fund that has been rounded up this year. This year the University has reaped the fruits of that sowing and cultivation.

Dr. Waits was minister of the Magnolia Avenue Christian Church when he was called to the head of the school. He admits that he took over the new task with a great deal of fear for the future, for he had held only pastoral work to that date. But he attacked the problems of college life with the same success that had attended his work in church activities, with the result of great steps forward for all departments of the institution.

CHURCH CONVENTION IN PROGRESS: JUBILEE WILL OPEN WITH HUGE PARADE

A parade of thousands of Texas Christian University students, ex-students and friends from all sections of the State, led by Fort Worthians who believe in the old school, marching through the streets of the city Monday afternoon will long be remembered as a high point of the Jubilee Celebration. Opening the celebration so far as the University is directly concerned, the parade should symbolize the great spirit with which the Brotherhood of the Christian Church of Texas has locked arms with the University and led out in the march to a bigger and broader development.

The Texas Christian Church Convention opened Friday with a stirring address by the president, Rev. John W. Kerns of Waco. Mrs. Colby D. Hall, president of the Woman's Missionary Society of Texas, presided at the afternoon sessions, when Mrs. Berta McMaster, State secretary, made her annual report, which showed a great development for the year. Mrs. Mangum, Mrs. R. W. Jenkins, Mrs. S. Fuller and others made short talks. J. N. Erwin of the Jarvis Christian Institute made a report.

Friday night sessions were addressed by Rev. Hugh McLellan of San Antonio; Rev. Paul Preston of El Paso, and Rev. Clifford Weaver of McKinney. The Central Christian Church choir of Dallas gave a special program. L. B. Conrad directed the services.

The little children from the Juliette Fowler Home of Dallas put their hands on the heart of the people Saturday morning when they presented a playlet, read some bits of poetry and sang some songs. M. Boyd Keith was in charge of the service. Sam J. McFarland made a short address.

Rev. Jesse Bader, Miss Laura Lynne Major, Miss Daisy June Trout, all of the United Christian Missionary Society, spoke before the afternoon meetings, Saturday. A general outlook of the progress, the needs and the aims of the worldwide mission work was presented in a vigorous way.

President Cephan Shelbourne of Carr-Burdette College, Sherman, and President R. E. Holloway of Cisco Christian College, Cisco, outlined the work and the needs and claims of their schools in addresses made to the Saturday night session. The program for the night was closed with an inspirational address by Milo Atkinson of Amarillo, who spoke on "The Cornerstone of Civilization." Music for that night was directed

JUBILEE

Oh! Child of My Heart come go with me
 To the homes of the Great Brotherhood
 And warm with your Grace and your Beauty
 The coldness with which they've withstood
 All pleadings for love and for succor,
 For interest in cause so sublime.
 For which cause the Loyal did suffer,
 Were engulfed in despair time and time.
 Can't you plead in the words of the Eunuch—
 "How can I except some shall guide?"
 Make them see us to them in their unity
 These teachers shall all be supplied
 Teachers with knowledge—souls shriven,
 With courage as Daniel of old
 With prayers: Whom Thou to me hast given
 I shall strive to keep in Thy fold.
 Can't you tell them thy years have been fifty
 Instead of the seven that were lean.
 Make their touch as the touch of King Midas
 Then the fat years will be here—I wean—
 Then the Jubilee indeed will be Golden,
 And true ones who've gone sweetly sleep
 For poppies waft no reproach as of olden
 For our faith with them ever we'll keep

GOAL REACHED

seemed next to impossible in one year. This is June, 1923, and every one will no doubt go home happily.

At a meeting in the Alamo City in October, 1922, Ross S. Sterling, president of the Humble Oil & Refining Co., of Houston, pledged $125,000, Dave Reed of Austin $87,000, Van Zandt Jarvis $50,000 for Fort Worth, H. H. Rogers of San Antonio, $25,000, and Malcolm H. Reed of Austin $25,000, to start the campaign off with a total of $292,000 toward the indebtedness and endowment fund. Mike H. Thomas, of Dallas, a few days later added $25,000. Thus the determination of Christian statesmen took on a progressive air, and until this date there has been nothing but enthusiasm, sacrifice, and good will in the campaigns that have been conducted.

A book should be written of the men and women of Texas who have answered the call, but space will not permit our naming even those who made contributions of thousands of dollars. Boyd Keith might be taken as an example of extreme devotion, for he closed up his desk in Dallas and got out into the field with Sam McFarland, president of the board of trustees, and others, and helped put the campaign across, defraying his own expenses.

GOLDEN JUBILEE EDITION, WEEK OF JUNE 3, 1923

THE T. C. U. OF THE FUTURE

"The past is a story told
 The future may be written in gold."

The president is asked to assume the role of a prophet. This has always been a precarious business but there is always need of the prophetic voice and prophetic leadership. The future is a child of the present and past and bears all the marks of heredity as the architect of some noble cathedral whose eyes are closed ere his work has scarce begun lives on in the growing plies unfolding; so the noble cause of Christian Education must continue. It is ours to complete the task of our fathers.

We must realize that every mountain of privileges is girded by a valley of duty. There is no transfiguration scene even though the Son of God himself be at its center that allows any easeful tarrying on the mountain top.

T. C. U. must become a university in fact as well as in name. We may take pride in our present achievements, but we cannot afford to fail to set still higher standards. No progress can be achieved in merely holding our ground. The victories can remain victories only by pressing on. This is the divine law of development. The program of God is cumulative. No work of yesterday is sufficient to measure up to the needs of today. Each new day brings new problems and new opportunities. Nothing can be properly measured by the standards of vanished years.

The development of great educational enterprises, like the Kingdom of God, does not come with a flash. It unfolds as gradually as the unfolding of the flower. Oxford is five hundred years older than the British Empire. The University of Paris is one thousand years older than the Republic of France. Nine great institutions in this country are older than the Constitution of the United States.

Our colleges are the custodians of the ideal elements of our civilization and the Christian College with its ideals, character and service has the supreme call and the supreme opportunity of this hour.

The splendid traditions of our past must be preserved. The lessons of the past must be used to strengthen the present. Out of the past and upon the present a larger structure must be built for the future. By the cooperation of the alumni and exstudents, the support of the city, the interest of the church and the untiring work of the Board of the University that structure will be assured. As a servant of all these forces we should dedicate ourselves anew after the pomp and pageantry of this hour.

T. C. U. needs at the present time a Science Building, a Library accommodation for a thousand resident students and a million and a half dollars endowment; and all of these prophecies will become history before another decade.

THE GOLDEN JUBILEE

Why celebrate the fiftieth anniversary with a Golden Jubilee?

Not merely because T. C. U. has progressed over a period of years which has seen the wreck of thousands of similar institutions, but because she has gathered the cultural and material impetus to carry her forward. Great men of the past and present have brought about the development of our alma mater.

In her early history she had nothing so conspicuous as a great purpose. It is because the people of Texas believed in this purpose that we now have Texas Christian University of which we are proud.

The history of our university falls into three distinct periods, that at Thorpe Springs, Waco, and Fort Worth. Each period and place made its contribution to a greater T. C. U. Today she enjoys the triple support of those who were students, professors and patrons during each period of her history. All of us are united in our devotion to T. C. U.

So when we think of our magnificent plant valued at $1,250,000, let us appreciate what T. C. U. has already accomplished, enjoy the pres-

DEBATES

That the United States should enter into the League of Nations as at present constituted, has been the annual question for University argumentation. In the triangular debate Al Nelson and Jack Hammond defeated Southwestern University at T. C. U. with the negative side of the question. On the same night Oliver Grant and J. C. Phillips lost to Trinity University.

Norman Spencer and Al Nelson went to Enid, Oklahoma, where they defeated Phillips University in upholding the negative. T. C. U. won over Phillips last year.

OLD OFFICERS RETURNING

A great college factor is the Student Body Association of T. C. U. In 1910 and 1911 there was a limited form of student self-government and since that time it has grown steadily in importance and influence.

"The Student Body organization has for its purpose the welfare and best interests of all matters which concern the students as a whole," according to the class of 1923. "There is a move on foot now which, if brought to pass will make the work of this body or representations of this body much more clear cut and important. The move is in the nature of a 'Students' Council' elected by the students with sanction of the Faculty. It is hoped that the future will bring greater things for the student body along this line."

The officers of the Student Association from 1912 to 1923 were: 1912—Clarence M. Hall, president; W. C. Ferguson, vice president; Beas McNeill, secretary.

1913—Charles H. Bussey, president; John P. Cox, vice-president; Grace Mason, secretary-treasurer.

1914—F. Carl Tomlinson, president; E. R. Bentley, vice-president; Fannie Jack Baldwin, secretary.

1915—C. B. Reeder, president; T. C. Tomlinson, vice-president; Margaret Gibson, secretary.

1916—Mr. Keith, president; C. Gussion, vice president; Pansy Bozemon, secretary.

1917—W. M. McGregor, president; Charles Christenberry, vice president; Margaret Kennedy, secretary-treasurer.

1918—William Jones, president; Charles Bults, vice-president; Ruby Douglas, secretary-treasurer.

1919—Shelby Faulkner, president; Herschel Upton, vice-president; Lena Gilbert, secretary-treasurer.

1920—Cecil R. Bradford, president; Harry H. Martin, vice-president; Beulah Bell, secretary-treasurer.

1921—J. W. Boutinghouse, president; Tony Pecora, vice-president; Ethel Ellis, secretary-treasurer.

1922—"Dutch" Meyer, president; Judge Green, vice-president; Leona Crain, secretary-treasurer.

1923—Thomas Dudney, president; Melvin Bishop, vice-president; Edwina Day, secretary-treasurer.

The student government aims to inspire, to create enthusiasm, and to furnish the student body a mouth piece thru which to express itself. It is the only form of student government in T. C. U. but thru it many needed reforms have been accomplished which only indicates what might be done if more power were given into its hands. The Student Body Association was the medium thru which the Honor System was presented to students. The association also looks after the sick among the students.

ART DEPARTMENT HAS HISTORY

Mrs. E. R. Cockrell, head of the Art Department of T. C. U., is in possession of an interesting letter from an old time student in which is given the history of the department during the last forty of the school's fifty years. While the writer of the letter did not know of the art activities previous to '83 or thereabouts, she said that T. M. Clark became head of the department about that time. "Mr. Tommy," as he was called, besides possessing a great deal of artistic talent, had "the grace of public address, charms of personality, and scholastic excellence in a wide number of lines" which made him the idol of his pupils.

Miss Ola Thompson was the next head of the department and her popularity is proved by the actions of her pupils, who, when she became too weak through sickness to walk to her classes, carried her so that she might teach them of the beautiful life of art in which she lived.

Miss Lila Pangburn, sister to the Pangburn of ice cream and candy fame in Fort Worth, was the next

The class history will be given by Dora Louise Cockrell, and the class prophecy by Anne Ligon. The gift will be presented by Edwin A. Elliott.

HORNED FROG NINE WINS T. I. A. A. CHAMPIONSHIP

The Horned Frogs set the pace for the T. I. A. A. baseball race and were never headed. They won 11 out of 12 games played in the association. In the Southwestern Conference T. C. U. succeeded in defeating A. & M. once and Baylor once. The latter won the conference championship and the defeat at the hands of the Horned Frogs was a severe blow, which caused them to hold the championship in doubt until their final game. For the season the Frogs won 13 out of the 24 games played, or an average of over 50 per cent for this season. This was a splendid showing for the comparatively green nine who were our representatives and next year's team should be a sure winner. T. C. U. players were: Lawrence Tankersley, catcher; Fred Scott, pitcher; Hezzie Carson, pitcher; Momer Adams, first; Ellis, second; Ashley, second; Garland Lovorn, short; Wood Carson, third; Blair Cherry, center field; Dick Fender, right field; Trickey Ward, pitcher and left field; Clarence Woods, pitcher; Cecil Honey, center field; Cort Reeder, manager. Turner was the ineligible who conducted the signals.

"OLD TIME SWAT KINGS PLAY VARSITY NINE TUESDAY"

By Sam Pace

The old question whether age must give way to youth will be argued anew with bat and ball when T. C. U. old-timers will meet the T. C. U. of today on Clark field Tuesday afternoon, June 5th.

The more elderly of the two groups is an unknown quantity as to individual players and will remain so until the day of the game when Ellis Hardy, of Texas League Pennant fame, will call the old gang together and begin carrying out their intentions of "showing up" the present generation of ball players. Hardy will manage the "Old-Timers" and a real "manager's duel," if there is such a thing, will come to pass for he will be opposed by the managerial acumen of "Kid" Nance who has the record of having piloted the Fort Worth Panthers in seasons now long gone and who has turned out such players as Pete Donohue, ace of the Cincinnati Reds, "Boob" Fowler, "Chili" McDaniel, and many other professionals.

OLD MEN'S CONTEST

In the old men's declamatory contest Henry E. Fussell, Add-Ran, won first place and Thos. E. Dudney and Jerome Moore, Shirleys, tied for second and third. Add-Ran representatives were Fussell, John Allen Stevenson and Hubert Robinson. Shirleys presented only two contestants.

LOCAL COLLEGE PEOPLE WRITE PAGEANT

Many months ago the four members of the English faculty began to plan the pageant; they enlisted the work of two students, Miss Helen Locke, a junior, and Mr. Claude Wingo, a senior. All were moved by a profound desire to do something worthy of the department, and the student body, for the people who donated generously to make the Jubilee possible. The members of the faculty contributing are Miss Rebecca Smith, Miss Mabel Major, Miss Eula B. Phares, and Mr. Ray Camp.

Claude Wingo, a senior in the University, wrote the interlude to the pageant. Mr. Wingo has written several poems for T. C. U., having entered in 1913, but heretofore has not made any of them public. When asked why he wrote the interlude Mr. Wingo said: "I have been in T. C. U. so long, and the school has done so much for me, that I just wanted to do something for T. C. U."

"The Founding of Add-Ran" was written by Ray Camp, instructor of English. The information concerning the historical facts of this scene was gained from authorities.

Mr. Camp is widely known in the newspaper world, having been a member of the staff of several large newspapers, and now occupying a very important place on the Star-Telegram staff of this city. Mr. Camp received his A. B. degree from

T. C. U., and did graduate work in Transylvania University. "Miss Phares and I together wrote the third episode," answered Miss Mabel Major, on being questioned as to the part that she played in the writing of the pageant. "The third episode has three scenes. I wrote the first two and a part of the third scene; Miss Phares finished the episode," said Miss Major.

Miss Helen Lock, junior at T. C. U., wrote the fifth and last episode of the pageant. This episode is the Golden Jubilee.

"I won in the poetry contest year before last at T. C. U.," said Miss Lock. This poetry contest was given by W. E. Bryson, head of the Eng-

SUMMER SCHOOL BEGINS MONDAY

The 1923 Summer Term of twelve weeks begins June 11 and will close August 31. The term is divided into two six week periods; the first semester begins July 23 and ends August 31.

There are many attractions for the entertainment of the summer students as well as comforts. The swimming pool is a pleasure to all. It is cool and sanitary. The beautiful campus is also a pleasure in the summer as well as being the coolest place in this part of the country.

For information concerning the fees and regulations you can see the Bulletin of the Texas Christian University Summer School.

Miss Beth Coombes, secretary of the Ex-Students Association, and pioneer full time worker for the association, has rounded up the records of the students of every year of fifty of Texas Christian University. Her work is one of the significant things done for the institution this year, and it will be of perpetual service, both in setting an example and in helping the school to keep up with her former students.

PO R T R A I T O F SIR ISAAC NEWTON

James II is Dead—NEWTON Lives

It has always been known that free bodies fall. The earth has a strange attraction. How far does it extend? No one knew before Newton, sitting in his garden, one day in 1665, began to speculate.

"Why should not the attraction of gravitation reach as far as the moon?" he asked himself. "And if so, perhaps she is retained in her orbit thereby." He began the calculation, but overwhelmed by the stupendous result that he foresaw, he had to beg a friend to complete it.

In Newton's Principia were laid down his famous laws of motion—the basis of all modern engineering. The universe was proved to be a huge mechanism, the parts of which are held together in accordance with the great law of gravitation.

James II was reigning when the Principia appeared in 1687. He is remembered for the Bloody Assizes of Jeffreys, for his complete disregard of constitutional liberties, for his secret compacts with Louis XIV and the huge bribes that he took from that monarch, and for the revolution that cost him his crown; Newton is remembered because he created a new world of thought, because he enabled scientists and engineers who came after him to grapple more effectively with the forces of nature.

When, for instance, the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company determine the stresses set up in a steam turbine by the enormous centrifugal forces generated as the rotor spins, they practically apply Newton's laws in reaching conclusions that are of the utmost value to the designing engineer.

VICTORY WILSON

EXTENDS A HEARTY

Welcome

To Visitors to the

1873 J.T.C.U. GOLDEN JUBILEE 1923

THE City of Fort Worth and Victory Wilson, especially, are glad indeed to welcome the T. C. U. Alumni to the Golden Jubilee, June 1 to June 5. It is indeed a pleasure to meet the former students of T. C. U., those who attended the school when Fort Worth was just beginning upon its present growth.

The return of these persons to Fort Worth to attend this Jubilee, proves their appreciation of the treatment accorded them while attending T. C. U. in former days. This same appreciation is most evident in the younger generation who are attending the school now, showing the deep respect Fort Worth and her citizens have for this wonderful institution.

Again we welcome you, Alumni, to the Golden Jubilee of T. C. U.

During the life of the Victory Wilson store in Fort Worth, it has had the pleasure of serving many of the T. C. U. students. That they were served well is evident from the fact that they invariably return each year. The Victory Wilson store wishes to express at this time its appreciation for this patronage and cordially invites all visiting alumni and present students of T. C. U. to visit the Victory Wilson store during the week of the Jubilee and at any other time when they are in Fort Worth.

HERE'S a store that begins right by presenting the right clothes at the right prices. There's no possibility of going wrong in judgment, for there's variety enough to satisfy every exacting demand.

WE'RE upstairs. Our rents are less. We sell for cash, eliminating bookkeeping, bill collecting and credit losses. Together with our four-store buying power, making Victory Wilson values possible. Ask the man who wears Victory-Wilson Clothes.

A House Built on The OPEN BIBLE

Mammoth plant of the STANDARD PUBLISHING COMPANY at Cincinnati devoted to the restoration of primitive Christianity without denominational bias.

Send for our great 1923 general catalog listing all our productions --- FREE FOR THE ASKING.

THE STANDARD PUBLISHING COMPANY is not an achievement of business genius—It is a monument to the loyalty of Bible loving people whose patronage and moral support have made possible its phenomenal growth and development.

THE STANDARD PUBLISHING COMPANY is not primarily a commercial institution. It exists solely for the high purpose of rendering the fullest service to the advancement of the cause that pleads for the complete restoration of the life, ordinances and fruits of the apostolic church. First, last and all the time, the entire resources of this great institution are given to every movement and cause that plead for the Bible as the only and all-sufficient guide in faith and practice among Christians and the only measure that can bring salvation and hope to a dying and sinful world.

Consequently, THE STANDARD PUBLISHING COMPANY has been the great leader in all forward movements. It has promoted and unreservedly supported such great causes as Group Evangelism, The Loyal Movement, Bible School Institute of Methods, Doctrinal and Constructive Congresses, Personal Evangelism, Christian Stewardship. It has always been in the vanguard in leading out to larger and loftier aims and ideals. Service, rather than profit, has been its watchword.

THE STANDARD PUBLISHING COMPANY for a single moment, has never lost sight of its sole reason for existence in its long service of over half a century to the brotherhood. It is because of this fact that the great body of Bible-loving people has given to it so unstintedly of its patronage and moral support. Its loyalty to the Scriptures as the Word of God and to the Christ of the Scriptures has won the full confidence of all who champion our holy faith. Every page of every book, periodical and pamphlet that comes from its presses carries forth to the world this message.

There is no publishing house in the world that is as well equipped to meet the demands and needs of churches, Sunday Schools, Christian Endeavor Societies, or individual Christians, as is THE STANDARD PUBLISHING COMPANY. Quality, rather than quantity, has been our constant goal. "The best is none too good for our patrons" has ever been our slogan.

We solicit the patronage of the churches, Bible schools and brethren of the great state of Texas, but solely on the grounds of the merit and service. We are in a position to satisfy your demands with the very best products obtainable in the most prompt and efficient way. When in need of any service write to THE STANDARD PUBLISHING COMPANY and its entire highly trained office and skilled mechanical force will be placed immediately at your command.

Sunday School Lesson Helps We publish both the uniform and graded series. Both are kept to the "top notch" of excellence. All the lessons in both series are prepared expressly for our own schools by able writers who are of our own people and staunch advocates of New Testament faith. In no other service is color, the delight of children, so extensively and artistically employed. Our list of various helps is far too long to be adequately described in a single advertisement. We carry the most complete line in the country. Our great 1923 catalogue sent free to any address lists them all. We wish, however, to call especial attention to

The Bible School Worker Edited by Edwin R. Errett and designed for Bible school teachers, superintendents and officers. A one hundred page quarterly with worker's program. Regular contributors are Marion Lawrence, Dr. Joseph Clark (Timothy Standby), P. H. Welshimer and others equally well known Bible school writers and experts. Another help to which we wish to call special attention is

The Harvest Is White By Carey E. Morgan and E. W. Thornton. A unique and remarkable special elective course of lessons, for use by the upper grades of the Bible school in preparation for revival work. It is designed so that it can be readily substituted for the regular Bible study or prayer meeting for the quarter previous to the evangelistic meeting so that when the evangelist arrives he finds an enthusiastic and trained body of workers at his service. Any church that precedes a revival with a three months study of this course can not help but have a successful meeting. Price 25 cents per copy.

"The Bible" A special course of thirteen lessons on the Bible for classes that desire to drop the regular lessons for a quarter in order to become more thoroughly acquainted with the Book of Books. They furnish necessary and interesting information about the Bible that no teacher training course has included.

Restoration Handbooks By Frederick D. Kershner. A course of lessons in quarterly form, presenting in popular yet systematic fashion a brief outline of the history and principles of the movement to restore New Testament Christianity without denominational bias. This series taken in connection with the series on the Bible constitutes a group of lessons of the greatest value to the young people of our Brotherhood. In no other way can they get so thorough a grounding in the principles of the Restoration. Price 25 cents per copy. Other special quarterlies are in course of preparation.

The Primary Child A four-page weekly for each lesson of the primary graded series, with full page Bible picture in multi-color illustrating the Bible story for the day. Remaining pages contain the story in large type for children just learning to read. This beautiful little magazine in connection with our Primary Picture Rolls and Primary Lesson Cards are our finest productions in the way of beautifully illustrated lesson helps in color. They are now recognized as the Standard of Excellence. We furnish them in enormous quantities to more than seventy religious publishing and distributing houses scattered over the world.

Our Group of Weekly Journals We issue four great weekly magazines, each pre-eminent in its own particular field. THE CHRISTIAN STANDARD has for more than a half century led the cause of New Testament Christianity and is still the strongest single force in the work of the restoration. THE LOOKOUT serves the Bible school and Christian Endeavor and "BOY LIFE" and "GIRLHOOD DAYS" are leaders in the junior field.

Our Daily Vacation Bible School Courses The first adequate text books to be prepared and offered for use in this new field of religious education. Three courses, Kindergarten, Primary and Junior. The teacher's manual for each course is complete in every detail, with the program, illustrations, instructions, stories, games—everything essential to the day's work included in the lesson. Church Supplies We have every kind. Treasurer's aids, communion cups, etc. Bibles, commentaries, religious books, Hymn Books, Gospel song books, etc. Write us of your needs in this line. We can fill them to your utmost satisfaction.

Studies in Christian Stewardship Traverce Harrison. World superintendent of the Loyal Movement. No better book on this subject has ever been written. Many thousands of copies have been sold during the past year. Every church with a financial problem before it should get this book into the hands of its membership. Personal Evangelism We have many splendid books on this subject. A complete list in our new general catalogue.

Christian Endeavor Supplies Everything your society may need for its successful promotion and development.

Pastor's Aids Books of sermons and illustrations. Books on sermon building. Story sermons and talks to children. Bible commentaries and studies. Essays and books on religious history. All listed in our general catalogue.

Modernism in Religion We stand squarely upon the Bible as God's word of final authority to man, and neither publish nor sell the work of any writer that does not hold this belief. We have a number of telling books in answer to the views of the "Modernists" of which we commend especially

Theistic Evolution—$1.25; Organic Evolution Considered—$1.50, and Atheism in Our Universities—$1.25 Three books by Dr. Alfred Fairhurst that are widely commended as this modern form of atheism. Also we commend completely answering

Science and Faith—$1.50 By W. K. Azbill, as one of the best works on the harmony of the Scriptures and science yet published.

Works of Joseph Bryant Rotherham We are exclusive publishers in America for the Biblical works of this great scholar and translator. His writings include a literal translation of the Holy Scriptures published under the title of

The Emphasized Bible The climax of Bible translation. In this work a cleverly devised system of symbols and paragraph indentation guides the reader and student to an accurate understanding of such emphasis as is in the original but cannot be reproduced in English. Ministers and Bible students unable to read fluently ancient Hebrew and Greek should have this great work. In one volume $6.50. In four volumes $2.25 each. New Testament alone $2.25.

No matter what you may need for the promotion of your church or Bible school, The Standard can supply you with the best that money and skill can produce. Send today for our great 1922 Catalogue listing them all. Sent free to any address.
