See the Birdie! Life Invited to Snoop, Snap Ranch Week Celebration

Life Magazine has been invited to come to the Horned Frog campus to photograph Ranch Week activities Feb. 6-7.

The Chamber of Commerce has sent a letter to this national magazine and is awaiting word to know whether a photographer will be sent down Texas way.

"Arrangements have been completed for holding the barbecue at Ernest Allen's farm Saturday afternoon if sufficient transportation can be secured," says Brents Wooten, Chamber of Commerce president.

"We are trying to furnish transportation in hay trucks for those without rides in cars," he added.

The barbecue will start at 2 p. m. and the price will be 25 cents a person. If transportation can not be furnished, the event will be held on the campus.

First event of the Ranch Week celebration will be the Judge Roy

Bean trial in the Auditorium at 11 a. m., with Harry Ward presiding.

At 1 o'clock in the afternoon, the eliminations in the horseshoe pitching, cigarette rolling and dancing contests will be held, as last year, in the Gymnasium.

"A western flicker will be shown at either the Parkway Theater or, if possible, in the Auditorium Friday night," reports Bill Boren, chairman in charge of the celebration.

Saturday afternoon activities will be the barbecue with entertainment of all sorts being planned by the committee. The free barn dance will be held that night in the Basketball Gymnasium where the "Queen" of Ranch Week, Miss Betty Bowman, will be presented. Contest finals will be held and prizes will be given to the winners.

French Class to Hear Recording of 'Faust'

Monday night at 7 o'clock, members of the French 132 class will meet at the home of Quentin Needham, 1434 Pruitt Street, to listen to a complete recording of the opera, "Faust," and to follow the words in French.

Dean Reports Wartime Action

Co-operation during the approaching blackout and the advisable course of action for students to follow during the emergency were discussed in chapel Wednesday.

Dean Colby D. Hall was the principal speaker at the Student Council sponsored program. He stressed the importance of students receiving as much training as possible before they are called either to the service or into defense industries.

He also discussed the new courses that have been put in T. C. U.'s curriculum in relation to defense, and outlined the plan enabling students to graduate in two or three years.

He spoke on the place of women in the emergency, telling of a B. S. degree available in nursing, which is offered in connection with Harris Memorial Methodist Hospital.

Dr. Gayle Scott, chairman of the campus civilian defense committee, gave instructions on conduct during an air raid and the blackout.

A formal worship program will be held in chapel Wednesday.

Students to Aid City As Blackout Wardens

The entire campus will be darkened from 9 until 9:30 Monday evening, when T. C. U. students undergo a new experience in joining the Tarrant-Dallas County areas in a test blackout.

Each part of the campus will be guarded during the minute period, in accordance with a plan outlined by a committee, headed by Dr. Gayle Scott.

The students heard a list of actions expected of them when Dr. Scott spoke in chapel Wednesday morning.

The rising and falling pitch of the siren will announce the beginning of the blackout at 9 p. m. Monday. Thirty minutes later a long blast will designate the "All Clear signal."

In dormitories, homes and automobiles, students will be listening to special blackout broadcasts over the radio. Where the student is will designate his particular duty, but everyone will be extinguishing lights, refraining from use of the telephone and, for one night, at least, making an effort to keep from making unnecessary noises.

In dormitories and homes alike, T. C. U. students will be found in pairs, but whereas each dorm will have its own wardens, those in homes will choose one member of the family to serve as "warden." People in automobiles will be instructed when they pull to the curb and extinguish all lights for the duration of the blackout.

Some students may be seen walking along the sidewalks, but no one will cross a street and all will avoid alleys.

Wardens, deputies and guards have been appointed, not only for the one evening, but permanently, to officiate again in the successive blackouts and in the event that air raid warnings are given during the day or night.

The wardens and deputy wardens are to see that all lights are extinguished, and the guards are to watch the doors to see that no intruder enters the premises.

All wardens, deputies and guards will be wearing arm bands of purple and white.

The Administration Building warden will be Van Hall, with Frank Medanich serving as deputy along with Guards James Woodfin, Sam Malloy, Billy Houtchens, Emery Nix and the night-watchman.

John Zafanotis is warden for the Library, with Weems Dykes as his deputy. Moran Hill and Larry Nesin will guard the doors.

Hal Siros is University Christian Church warden with Deputy Dunny Sims. Guards will be Ben White, Edwin Cornelius, Aaron Barker and Bill Bret.

The Gymnasium warden is to be Derrell Palmer, with Bill Ramsey as deputy and Russell "Easy" Wilkins as guard.

John Bond has been assigned as warden for the Basketball Gymnasium. Douglas Kenney will be deputy and James Ditto, guard.

Calvin Hill is warden for Brite College, and Ben White is his deputy. Jimmy Pickering will guard. Don Wray as warden and Eugene Douglas as guard will protect the Biology Laboratory.

Warden A. D. Hogue and Guard Bill Christi will watch the Stadium during the blackout.

The general campus will be protected by Fred Strandberg, warden, Roy Caldwell, guard, and Virgil Frazier, guard.

The "Business District," including all stores across from the campus, will be protected for student interest by Robert Moss, warden, and Guards John "Punk" Smith and Barney Carroll.

David Merrill and Pat Nicholson will be warden and guard, respectively, for the Band House.

The Warehouse will be watched by Warden Jimmy Moudy, Deputy Leroy Steinman and Guard Houston Foster.

Each of the dormitories and junior and senior houses will have special appointees. George Towles is warden for Clark Hall with Hugh Baker as his deputy. Guards include Owen Cobb, Paul Kennedy, Marshall Mason and Claude Snowden.

Goode Hall warden will be Al-

McKee to Be Toastmaster

Tommy Fisher to Play,
Boggeman to Sing for Junior-Senior Banquet

David McKee, junior class president, will act as toastmaster at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet at 7:15 o'clock tonight at the Colonial Country Club.

Reservations for the affair may be made by seeing McKee or calling the Colonial Club by 4 p. m. Price of tickets is $1.65 a person. Special admission for dancing, which begins at 9 o'clock, will be $1.10 a couple or stag. Music will be furnished by Tommy Fisher's orchestra.

President M. E. Sadler will offer the invocation at the banquet. McKee will extend a word of welcome and then introduce the guests. These are President and Mrs. Sadler, Dean Elizabeth Shelburne, President Emeritus E. M. Waits, Dr. and Mrs. Alvord L. Boeck, Dr. and Mrs. Haldeen Braddy and Dr. and Mrs. Gayle Scott.

Frank Boggeman will sing "A Glimpse of You" as the concluding feature of the program.

Table decorations will carry out the school colors. The centerpiece of the speakers' table will form the letters, "T. C. U." Bouquets will center each of the other tables. Programs, in booklet form, will serve as place cards. The committee in charge of decorations is made up of Misses Mary Charlotte Farris, Clara Marie Denham, Betty Jane Jones and Lois Jeane Cayce.

"Approximately 125 persons, including 40 seniors who will be admitted free of charge, are expected at the banquet," says McKee.

Social Deadline To Be Monday

Group social activities will come to an official end as Dead Week comes into being Monday.

"Dead Week will not interfere with individual dates, but will only pertain to group activities on the campus," says Dean Elizabeth Shelburne.

Social activities will commence as soon as final exams are over which will be Jan. 31, or clubs may get a new start with the new semester which starts Feb. 2.

Students Spend $6 Daily For Defense Stamps

"Approximately $6 worth of defense stamps are sold daily in the Post Office," says Mrs. Rebecca Tracy, postmistress. She adds that 10 or 12 bonds are also sold each month.

She reports that it has been necessary to increase stock in the past month and urges that all students make a weekly habit of buying stamps.

Paul Preston to Speak At University Church

Dr. Paul Preston, general representative of the pension fund for the Disciples of Christ will be the guest speaker at the University Christian Church Sunday. His subject is "The Emergency Million."

The organ prelude is "The Pastorale," by Guilmant. "O How Amiable Are Thy Dwellings," by West, is the anthem. The offertory hymn will be "Litany," by Schubert.

Mrs. Q'Zella Oliver Jeffus will present an organ recital at Evensong. Her selections will include "By the Sea," "In Praise of Tears," and "Moment Musicale," all by Schubert.

Mrs. A. M. Campbell will sing "Come Unto Him," from "The Messiah," by Handel. The Rev. Perry Gresham will speak on "Creative Adjustments in a New Social Order."

Mrs. Marguerite Duvall will lead the devotional at the meeting of the All-College Sunday School Class Sunday. Arthur Arney will sing.

Blackout At 9 Monday Night

Jan. 19, 1942 will be the date of the first blackout to be experienced by most of the T. C. U. students. But they must realize that in the blackout to be held Monday, they are just as much a part of the populace as if they were in each of their own homes and taking part in the family efforts to comply with committee regulations.

At 9 o'clock Monday night the blackout will start. All the city must be as black as the inside of a furnace. No fingers of light can reach out into the night unless the person responsible wants strict reprimanding.

To prevent light from leaking out of your room, you should put heavy blankets over the windows. But, since this blackout will be only for a half an hour and not a regular occurrence, you could just turn out your lights for the duration of the blackout without much inconvenience.

But if you prefer to try your hand at covering windows to prevent light escaping, be sure the cover laps over the edges enough to keep all of the light inside. If you are in town to watch the bright lights go out, be sure that you stand in a doorway, else you may get hurt. There must be no cigarettes, no flashlights, because if this were the real thing, absolutely no lights could be allowed.

Only with the complete cooperation of all Dallas and Tarrant County citizens can this blackout be a success—and for your own personal safety and the safety of the nation as a whole, every one must blackout at 9 p. m.

Sane Study Is Best for Finals

As inevitably as death and taxes, final examinations roll around. Ideal students would have been studying consistently for exams. But, unfortunately, most college students are normal human beings who don't worry until the last week of classes. Mercifully, the University has provided a "Dead Week" in which to study.

To utilize that time, students should first review a course for a complete survey, and then go over it thoroughly. After deciding what material is important and what is minor enough to require less attention, the main points of the course should be organized logically. Facts emphasized by the professor should be included, and weak portions fixed in mind. A familiarity with the type questions a teacher asks will help.

Studying in groups is beneficial only if the students have equal abilities. Otherwise, those who know most about the topics will learn them better, while those knowing less will not learn any more. Discussion clarifies hazy points, if it does not wander to less valuable items.

Cramming is confusing, often resulting in the garbling of information. However, a rapid digest of a course an hour or two before an exam is sometimes beneficial.

The night before an examination, a hearty, sensible meal, followed by plenty of sleep, helps more than studying unusually late. Fighting drowsiness the night before with cokes, coffee and chocolate bars is often physically upsetting.

On examination day, a light breakfast or lunch is best. A hungry person cannot think, but neither can one who has eaten rich foods requiring blood from the brain for assimilation.

Invigorating physical exercise, or a brisk walk, before a test, clears and rests the mind and calms strained nerves. Light reading is also relaxing.

Systematic review, no last-minute cramming, good food, enough sleep and relaxed nerves are all it takes to make final examinations just another college event, no more trying than a week of teas and parties.

Defense Starts New Language

The defense program has changed many things for college students. Nowhere is there a more complete change than in the campus slang.

A year and one-half ago, who would have known what a jeep, a wash-out, a cross-T, a brace, a registration card, or class 4F meant? In case you haven't kept up, these are an army tank, an aviation cadet who doesn't make the grade, a maneuver in flying, a rigid position, a card certifying you have registered for your army service and a classification for those who are physically or mentally unfit for service.

At the same time, you wouldn't have heard half of the feminine portion of the campus chattering about U. S. O. dances and 41A8s and 41D's and "dodos" and upperclassmen and flying lines and open posts and medical regiments and infantry and cavalry. Or k.p. duty and the 36th division and Louisiana maneuvers and furloughs and regimental area and stockade and ensigns and silver wings and cadets and lieutenants and Kelly and Randolph and pursuit and bomber and foreign service. And navigation and bombardier schools and the R.C.A.F. and basic training and reception centers.

But then you would have missed half the excitement.

Student Council Communique

Hereafter, the Student Council will meet at 1 p. m. each Monday instead of 6 o'clock Monday evening. This change was made in accordance with the tire shortage, in order that town students would not have to drive back to the school after they once had gone home.

The Council welcomed back Prof. Charles R. Sherer, sponsor, who has not been able to attend for several months because of a recent operation.

Place one, held previously by Councilman-at-large Joe T. Timmons, will be filled at an election Wednesday, Feb. 4, on the day the freshman class officers and councilman will be chosen.

Dance Manager George Towles reported on the financial condition of the dance fund and discussed with the Council plans for dances during the spring term.

Hardin Killian told the Council of the preparations made for the chapel service Wednesday, which the Council sponsored.

Show-Time

Johnny Weissmuller as Tarzan is back again with another treasure besides his love, Maureen O'Sullivan in "Tarzan's Secret Treasure," beginning today at the HOLLYWOOD Theater.

Five of the best movies for 1941 are being shown next week at the TIVOLI Theater. Of predominant interest is "Philadelphia Story," starring Kathryn Hepburn, James Stewart and Cary Grant as the inevitable triangle whose romantic problem must be solved.

Windy Heller and Robert Moreley will be playing in "Major Barbara" at the PARKWAY Theater Sunday and Monday.

T. C. U. In The Service

The war with Japan is only six weeks old, and already many of the present and former students are enrolled in the service of Uncle Sam. They are in all branches of the service and are being found all over the nation.

Last week Jack Rollow, a senior, enrolled in the air corps and has been sent to Kelly Field in San Antonio.

Today Bobby Sherrod, all-conference guard of 1940 and now assistant coach at North Side, is leaving for Camp Wolters out at Mineral Wells.

"Rusty" Cowart and Paul Smith, former stars on the Horned Frog football team, are reported doing athletic work under Gene Tunney in the navy.

Dan Salkeld, an old Frog of yesterday, has gone to Tulsa to be a civilian physical education instructor at the air training station there.

Earle Clark, the fiddle-playing footballer of not too long ago, is serving the country by joining the FBI.

Jim Hillis, freshman, is now in the naval reserve along with last year's student body president, Malvin Stevenson.

Ed "Boston" Borges has quit school and is now a member of the Marine Corps.

Last week, W. F. Rankin graduated from the air school out in California and is now a second lieutenant in the air corps and has been assigned to the job of ferrying planes over the United States and Canada.

Joe Timmons, another senior, left two weeks ago to go to the C. O. camp in Magnolia, Ark.

Wallace Fitzgerald, '41 graduate in journalism, is now working for Uncle Sam in the army. Ralph McCamey, Douglas Dale, Cy Rickel and Burns are all now enlisted in the corps.

Preston Thompson, last year's main stay of the Horned Frog pitching staff, has been inducted into the army and sent to Camp Wolters.

SPORTS

HIGHLIGHTS

By RALEY DUNN

Upsets in the Southwest Conference don't seem to be limited to football games, according to a source at some of the basketball games rung up in conference play during the week. On Tuesday night, the Texas Aggies, a team generally touted to be a weak link in the race this year, outplayed and outscored the Rice Owls, picked along with Arkansas as the most potent aggregation in the loop, far and away. Jitterbug Henderson bagged 15 points to lead the Farmers to its 36-to-34 victory.

On the same night, the surprising Baylor Bears took one by four points from S. M. U., a team which gave Arkansas a great deal more trouble than it bargained for.

The man who will be so bold as to make any kind of prediction on the outcome of any kind of Southwest Conference competition is either a brave man or a fool.

A tough blow to Coach Hub McQuillan's aspirations fell when doctors pronounced tall Bob Balaban, big sophomore from Kansas, unable to play during the entire season because of a knee injury sustained last year as a freshman footballer.

Balaban's height and agility made him a valuable man, and the experience of a year's varsity tussling would have stood him in good stead in future years.

In addition to having a wonderful trip, honors galore and all the things that go with playing in a game, Horned Frog gridders are soon to receive watches (wrist-watches or pocket-watches, according to choice) for their "trouble" in the fray at Miami—a good gift for a team that is plenty deserving.

The column is as allergic to a superfluous amount of preaching and wheedling as the next guy, but the fact remains that there is still a pretty bad lack of enthusiasm for basketball in T. C. U. Turnouts for Frog games haven't in the last couple of years been what could be called good, and as a consequence, neither has the Frog record.

Well, this year the school's got a winner, or at least the makin's of one. Why not doctor along a good thing and turn out big for these games?

Prof. Tom Prouse is tearing his hair for a fourth member to make up a full squad for the golf team, which will see action this spring. To date, Prouse has only Kyle Gillespie, Brents Wooten and L. H. McDaniel left over from last year, Letterman Ed Rivercomb having been called into the army. Not only does he need another golfer, but an alternate as well. Good huntin', Prof!

Modern Language Group To Hear Miss Burkett

Miss Jeanne Burkett will read a term paper, "Spain After the War," at a meeting of Phi Sigma Iota at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Men's Lounge of the Administration Building. Miss Margaret Gilbert will also give a short talk on "French Art."

Texas Here Tomorrow

Wogs to Open Against Colts

Scrimmage with the varsity has been in store for the Wog basketball team this week in preparation for its first home game against the S. M. U. Colts as a preliminary tilt Wednesday night.

Coach Walter Roach has been serving on a jury all week and has not had much time to spend with the Wogs since their defeat Saturday at the hands of the Baylor Cubs 69 to 39.

Only bright spot salvaged from that Waco encounter was the play of Bobby Donaldson, the Poly sharp-shooter, who scored 15 points to lead the Wog attack.

Latest additions to the squad of 12 was that of tall footballers, Howard Scott and James Ditto, who joined the Roachmen only a few days before the Cub game.

Other boys to watch Wednesday will be tall Doug Kenney, Clint Doolen, Barney Carroll and Hatcher Haskins. Rounding out the squad are Billy Hearne, Vernon Williams, Al Roller, Tommy Milburn and George Miller.

BLACKOUT

bert Wagler, with Deputy Jack Bodard and Guard Frank Grost assisting.

Three wardens have been chosen for Jarvis Hall. They are Misses Billie Jean Boney, Shirley Hall and Jean Morrison. Deputy wardens will be Misses Joan Moore, Virginia Jackson, and Clementine Baker, with Misses Rosalyn Jones and Quincy Haggard as guards.

Miss Harriett Runge is warden for Gibson House, with Miss Diana Cloughley as deputy warden and Miss Jean Badgett as guard.

Reed House warden will be Miss Kathryn Clarke. Miss Mary Ruth Scott will be deputy and Miss Elsie Porter, guard.

Miss Elizabeth Baldwin has been chosen as warden for Sterling House, with Miss Margaret Helen Pyron as deputy and Miss Marie Seaberry as guard.

Miss Marguerite Gray is warden for Van Zandt. Miss Frances Shook will assist as deputy, with Miss Edleen Armstrong as guard.

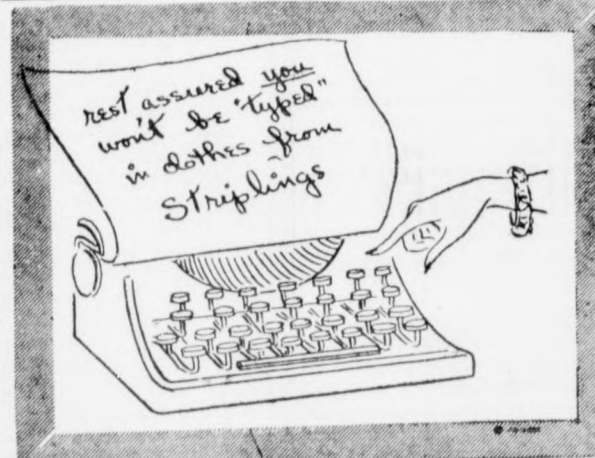

The nightwatchman and guard will protect the new dormitory for girls.

X-Ray Technician Course Offered to Upperclassmen

Students with two years of college work can enroll in a course for X-ray technicians, to be held every 45 days in Dallas. The course is offered by the Dallas City-County Hospital. Dr. J. R. Maxfield, Jr., is in charge.

No tuition is required, and students receive lunch and laundry of uniforms.

"Information can be obtained by addressing Dr. Maxfield," says Dean Colby D. Hall.

Coach "Hub" Gives Frogs New Offense

By RALEY DUNN

Dissatisfied with the offense used against Baylor Saturday night, Coach Hub McQuillan will send his charges against the Texas Longhorns in the Basketball Gymnasium here tomorrow night with a full week's work of "new stuff" up their sleeves.

"Our offensive game at Waco was not quite what we want it to be, and we've spent the entire week ironing out the rough spots that showed up against Bill Henderson's outfit," McQuillan says.

The Longhorns are not considered to be exceptionally powerful in comparison to the strong Texas team of last season. Rice overwhelmed the Steers in their initial conference battle, 62 to 38.

Big Les Sander, center, is the mainspring, along with Forwards John Hargis and Leslie Croucher.

That McQuillan plans to utilize the height available on the Frog squad is evidenced by the fact that Max Humphries, 6-foot, 4-inch forward, will probably start by the side of Floppy Blackmon under the basket.

L. A. Monroe and Bob McHenry will probably open at the guard slots, and Buddy Barron or Jim Pattee will start at the other forward post.

Bill Conard, Swede Pelto, Lonnie Dowell and Nickie Broom are likely to see much action.

"In the World Outlook" To Be Next B. C. B. Topic

"In the World Outlook" will be the subject at the B. C. B. chapel program at 11 o'clock next Friday morning. A Christian Church missionary will be selected as the speaker.

"In Ministerial Education" is Dr. Clinton Lockhart's subject at this morning's program. This is the second in the current series which has as its theme, "With Open Windows."

"Dr. Edwin A. Schofield, president of the Hiff School of Theology in Denver, is in town this morning and is expected to be present at the chapel program," says Dr. W. V. Roosa.

Ensign Poer Speaks At C. of C. Meeting

Ensign L. S. Poer from the Recruiting Office in Dallas was guest speaker for the Chamber of Commerce meeting at noon last Monday. He spoke on "Enlisting in the Naval Reserve."

All business was dispensed with at the meetings, says Ros Covey.

A picture of the Ranch Week "Queen" was made for the city papers.

Sophs, Juniors Win Intramurals

Intramural basketball started off with a bang Wednesday with two close games played, a protest ruled, and two games ending near white washes.

The Sophomores edged out the Preachers in the night league by a 24-to-19 score, but the winners played an ineligible man. At the protest of the Preachers, the intramural officials decided that the Sophs can either forfeit the game or play it over.

In the other night game, the Juniors, last year's champs, ran over the Frosh by a score of 62 to 22. Beecher Montgomery made 27 points for the Juniors to be high point man for the day's play.

In the day league, the Seniors barely tipped the Frosh by the close score of 35 to 31. The score was tied until the last few seconds when the Seniors hooked two field goals to take the game. Scott Mooring led the fourth-year men with 10 points.

The other day league game between the Juniors and the Sophs was a complete rout. The tall Sophs were too much for their opponents and never gave them a chance. The final score was 61 to 7 with Carson Kincaid and Fred Taylor tied for top honors with 19 points each.

In intramural handball, Richard Allen defeated Houston Foster to capture the championship.

Bruins Sink Frogs 44-32

Blackmon Leads T. C. U. Attack—Roach's Wogs Routed by Cubs 68-39

A second-period spurt by the Horned Frog basketball team fell short against the Baylor Bears in Waco Saturday night, as the Bruins' Dwight Parks poured through 19 points, to lead his team to a 44-to-32 edge.

Trailing 10 to 22 going into the second period, the Frogs gathered six rapid buckets, but Parks and Center Joe Frivaldsky waxed warm to offset the rally with some deadly accuracy. Frivaldsky garnered 12 tallies, to become runner-up for high-point honors.

Floppy Blackmon led the way in the Frog attack, sinking a total of 10 points, with L. A. Monroe and Buddy Barron following with six each. Blackmon was impressive at his position close under the basket on rebounds and follow shots.

Barron, Monroe and Bob McHenry went well in their floor games.

The Baylor first-year men made victory unanimous by downing Walter Roach's Wogs, 68 to 39, in a walkaway.

Timothy Club to Hear Rev. Gresham Wednesday

The Rev. Perry Gresham will be guest speaker at the Timothy Club supper meeting at 6 p. m. Wednesday in the alcove of the Cafeteria.

His subject is "The Homiletic Frame of Mind."

There will be no Homiletic Guild meeting next week. Dick Clayborne will serve as program chairman for next semester.

Creds, Eds Make Dates For Banquet and Blackout

BY LARA JEANNE CAYCE and VIRGINIA TENNIE
Tonight marks one of the "big" occasions of the year. It is something you don't want to miss—the big JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET.

Don't ever look old and faded, get your favorite get smart, get on those dancing shoes and come out out to the Colonial Country Club for a supper evening.

Starting time is 7:15 o'clock, and B.S. will cover the show. Various plays and other organized activities, presented in the one of the best, will hold down the banquet from 8 until 11 o'clock.

Plans for the Junior-Senior Banquet will be made up in the minutes. There will be a social hour in addition for the women. Refreshments will be served. Tickets for the event will be on hand at every place in order to facilitate a complete record of those who will be capable of a record performance in case of actual performance.

Members of the organization will meet tomorrow at the Colonial Country Club. It is the beginning of the work. This is the only other social activity you get with and it is a very important one. The one which is held in a few meetings at home or in the home. And you'll be much better off when you come out to the club if you had your social hours for the organization. Members of what have you.

Remember the JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET tonight. BLACK-OUT Monday night — BRAD WHITE Monday through Tuesday. Be justice to all.

Remember too that EVELYN WEINBERG has quite a good time in St. Louis at a recent visit. It seems that "the" one is there.

ONE of the TUCKER crew, is sporting EMMETT ELL'S silver-spraying ball.

A new triangle which has developed at that of DICK HADEN, TOMASHE STANLEY and BOB MCCOLLICK.

Now hand-holding title at the Hill belongs to BETTY EADLER and HAROLD MCCOBB.

Still going as strong as it was at this time last year is the DOROTHY NIXON-ROE MARIE affair.

By the way, DOROTHY'S brother JIM and JUNE REDDY are zipping together these days.

The heart of GEORGIANA ANDREWS belongs to a certain fellow down Camp Bowie way.

Speaking of the army, several T. C. U. ties are leaving or have left for different branches of the service. Among these are L. G. LACY, JACK ROLLOW, PRESTON THOMPSON, W. R. RECKER and exes RALPH McCAMEY and BILL MORRIS.

DOTTIE HARTUNG'S chief topic of conversation is about a
