

W. T. DINKINS
RICHFIELD BUILDING
LOS ANGELES

April 19, 1943

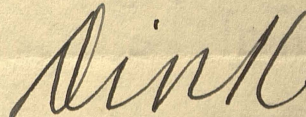

Dear Amon:

I have noted in press reports that Amon Jr. has now been officially declared a prisoner of war in Germany.

I need not tell you how pleased I am that this burden of uncertainty has been lifted from you. Things might have been a whole lot worse, and at least Amon Jr. has done all--and I mean all--that he could.

With kindest regards,

Faithfully yours,

Mr. Amon G. Carter
c/o Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

