Dear Mr. Carter,

The enclosed cablegram was delivered by the Cable Company shortly after 2 o'clock to-day, and I lost no time in calling you by telephone to tell you it was in my hands, but I could not get you on the 'phone, and knowing you have lots of engagements I am therefore delivering it by hand.

Would it be convenient for you to lunch with us at the office, say on Tuesday or Wednesday, but if not, would Friday suit you better? I have invited another gentleman who has just come over from America, by name, Curtice Hitchcock, and who is here on a special mission, and is joining us at luncheon on Friday. Perhaps you would like to make it on that day, and if the young man is in town please also bring him along.

Kindest regards, and always make free to call upon me for any assistance,

Sincerely,

D. Jos Palmer
