A MEDAL OF DISTINCTION

This award presented to "Sir Red" Orval of the House of Mosier for bravery extraordinary, far beyond normal expectancy. Sir Red without hesitation, fear or thought of personal safety volunteered to escort four Texas ladies, Minnie Carter, Katrine Deakins, Merle Harding and Elsie Stripling (who have been spoiled by receiving too much attention from their respective husbands) on a tour of Europe. Therefore in recognition of this particular type of bravery which heads the list and more deadly than the atomic bomb, to you "Sir Red" we express our thanks and appreciation for the beautiful job you performed in supervising their European tour and fetching them home safely with nothing but the highest praises for you and your conduct throughout the tour.
