

Remember Will Rogers' Favor

Will Rogers, unable to fill a speaking engagement in Denison for the benefit of Boy Scouts, contributed $450 last Summer to send four troop members on a trip to Washington for the national Jamboree. The boys visited the national capital and other Eastern cities when the
