CALL TO WORSHIP . . . . . The Reverend John L. Butler
Minister to the University

Leader: And one of them asked him a question: "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?" And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets."
People: He has shown you, O Man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of you but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?

HYMN . . . . . Led by Ira J. Schantz
Associate Professor of Voice

Praise To The Lord, The Almighty
Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear, Now to His Temple draw near;
Join me in glad adoration!
Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth,
Shieldeth thee under His wings, yea, so gently sustaineth!
Hast thou not seen How thy desires e'er have been Granted in what He ordaineth?
Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee;
Surely His goodness and mercy here daily attend thee.
Ponder anew What the Almighty can do,
If with His love He befriend thee. Amen.

PERRY R. BASS

Doctor of Humanitarian Service Degree

Perry R. Bass, industrialist and philanthropist, is widely known for the broad spectrum of his interests and activities, ranging from civic leadership to corporate responsibilities. A member of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission since 1977, he became its chairman in 1979. He is a founding director of the Sid W. Richardson Foundation, the Anne Burnett Tandy and Charles D. Tandy Foundation, the Lyndon Baines Johnson Foundation and Boys Inc. of America. A founder of the Bass Foundation, he has been a director of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, the Fort Worth Chamber Development Corporation, the Fort Worth Foundation Inc. and Fort Worth Industrial Development Inc.

Bass has been a member of the development board of Yale University, where he received the bachelor's degree with honors, as well as the Yale University Council, the Graduate Research Center of the Southwest and of St. Joseph Hospital Building-Fund Steering Committee. Currently he serves on the advisory committee to the Board of Visitors of the University Cancer Foundation of M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute and on the honorary board of governors of the Ochsner Foundation Hospital. He has been tireless in his association with the Boy Scouts of America; he now is on the advisory council of its national organization and the national committee on sea exploring.

Active on the advisory council of the University of Texas Marine Science Institute, Bass is a Chancellor's Associate at Texas Christian University, a founding member of the Foundation for Texas Excellence of the University of Texas, and serves on the committee on the George Kozmetsky Centennial Chair of the Graduate School of Business at the University of Texas at Austin. He is a former trustee and advisory council member of the Stanford University Graduate School of Business as well as former chairman of the board, president and trustee of the Fort Worth Country Day School. He is a member of the board of the National Smithsonian Associates, the James Smithsonian Society and the Collectors' Committee of the National Gallery of Art at Washington, D.C. He is a long-time member of the Exchange Club of Fort Worth.

Bass has been the recipient of numerous awards and honors, including the Southwestern Snipe Yacht Racing Championship in 1934 and the International Snipe Championship in 1935. He earned the Belknap Prize for Excellence in Geology from Yale University in 1937, the Yale Engineering Association Award for meritorious service to Yale University in 1963. He has been given the Silver Beaver, the Silver Antelope and the Silver Buffalo

Awards of the Boy Scouts of America and the Golden Deeds Awards from the Fort Worth Exchange Club. He was named the Outstanding Non-Resident Conservation Rancher by the Atascosa County Soil and Water Conservation District in 1976, the "Outstanding Outdoorsman of the Year" by the Fort Worth Sportsmen's Club in 1979 and the "Sportsman of the Year" by Ducks Unlimited Inc. in 1982. In 1982 he also was given the Gold Medal Award for Conservation by the African Safari Club of Philadelphia.

He served as commodore of the Snipe Class International Yacht Racing Association in 1941, as navigator of the yacht "American Eagle" when it was the winner of the first World Ocean Racing Championship in 1972 and as commodore of the Fort Worth Boat Club in 1974. He was made an honorary citizen of Palestine, Texas, in 1982.

Bass' memberships include the American Association of Petroleum Geologists, the American Petroleum Institute, the Independent Petroleum Association of America, the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, the National Petroleum Institute and the Society of Petroleum Engineers. He is a charter member of the All-American Wildcatters. He was a member of the executive committee of the National Petroleum Council, a member of the National Oil Policy Committee and the Committee on Possible Future Petroleum Problems of the United States. ## CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATE!

Your fellow TCU alumni join me in praise for a job well done. The attainment of this important life goal opens many exciting doors, and the Alumni Association wishes you well in your endeavors.

You are urged to maintain your relationship with the University by informing the Alumni Office of any change of address. Only then can the Association keep you informed about homecoming, class reunions, travel programs, continuing education and chapter activities in your area.

The continued quality of education of Texas Christian University depends to a great extent on the active support of its alumni. You can express your support through the Alumni Annual Giving Program. And, if your interest lies in helping us continue to attract fine students, raise funds or plan programs, we welcome you as a volunteer.

Whatever your interest, your participation will afford you lasting friendships and strengthen the TCU Alumni Association.

Cordially,

ANN D. GEE

Executive Director
TCU Alumni Association
