COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS

April 29, 1937

KENNEDY F. REA, CLERK
JOHN W. R. SMITH, ASST. CLERK

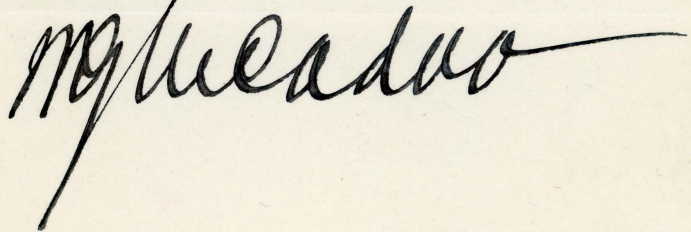

Dear Amon:

I want to congratulate you on the delightful way in which you presided at the dinner to Whitney and Trippe in New York. You were not only a graceful but a gracious toastmaster. I thought the affair went off beautifully. Mrs. McAdoo and I were delighted with it and with the opportunity of seeing our pals of the Pacific air trip again.

I assume that the dinner was a subscription dinner and that you will, of course, let me know what amount I should send you on that account--and, of course, you will tell me what is my part of the cost of the beautiful silver globes presented to Whitney and Trippe. I think they were the most appropriate souvenirs that could possibly have been devised.

When you come to Washington, please let me know. I want to get a few of our good friends together at a small dinner for you.

Cordially yours,

Mr. Amon G. Carter
