Mr. Owen D. Young, Vice-President,
The Will Rogers Memorial Commission,
811 Vermont Avenue, N. W.,
Washington, D.C.

Regret exceedingly I will be unable to be present for the final meeting of the Will Rogers Memorial Commission Board of Directors on Wednesday, March 29th. Your notice did not give me sufficient time to make my plans accordingly. I wonder if there would be any possible way that this meeting could be postponed until sometime after the Seventeenth of April at which time I will be in New York prior to the ANPA meeting as well as the American Airlines directors' meeting? Inasmuch as this is the last meeting I am particularly anxious to be present. However if you are unable to comply with this request I send herewith a waiver as a director QUOTE The undersigned, a member of the Board of Directors of the Will Rogers Memorial Commission, does hereby waive notice a meeting of said Board to be held on Wednesday, March 29, 1944, in the office of the Commission's Treasurer, 811 Vermont Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C., at 10:00 in the morning UNQUOTE Regards.
