Editor's Note

The issuance of the 1952 Horned Frog brings Texas Christian near the end of one of the most successful nine months in its history.

The Horned Frogs copped the conference football crown and Buster Brannon's Brats followed suit in basketball, giving TCU the distinction of being the first school in the Southwest Conference to hold both undisputed titles in one year.

Dr. M. E. Sadler was named to head the Association of American Colleges. The Science Building reached completion and plans for Religion and Business Buildings marked other milestones in the building program. ROTC came to the campus.

In this volume we have tried to mirror these events and others with the theme of the TCU Alma Mater. The school year we are closing has truly given us reason to say, "Hail all hail, TCU . . ."

Eugenia Luker

The staff of the 1952 Horned Frog could think of no dedicatee who better fitted our theme of the TCU Alma Mater than . . .

. . . A boy who spent countless hours watching early-day unheralded Texas Christian teams practicing on the field at Waco

. . . A student who came here not only to learn the essentials of good football but the principles of clean play and good sportsmanship also

. . . A man who returned to devote his adult life to building athletic teams—and molding Christian character—which have brought nationwide publicity and acclaim to TCU.

And because we, like many others, pay tribute not only to the champions who have been made here but to the champion who produced them as well, we respectfully and affectionately dedicate the 48th volume of this book to . . .

... Coach L. R. (Dutch) Meyer

Faculty & Campus

Those who have the responsibility of presenting an accurate and comprehensive picture of a great institution's life have no small task. All of us feel greatly indebted to the persons who, session after session, devote the long and wearisome hours necessary to produce an annual which will fairly present the life and work of Texas Christian University.

We most heartily congratulate those who have been responsible for the production of this book.

We would like especially to express our very best wishes to those who are completing their work with us this spring. It is our earnest hope that the life and work in which they have participated here will prove increasingly helpful to them, as they go along in their varied activities. Institutions like Texas Christian University must increasingly depend on the interest, loyalty and cooperation of its ex-students. We want those who are graduating to feel that they are a continuing and most essential part of our work.

With kindest regards and best wishes to everyone.

DR. M. E. SADLER
President

President M. E. Sadler

At the spring meeting the board took the first step toward TCU's long-awaited Student Union after hearing Student Association President Dick Ramsey and Skiff Editor Russ Hurst outline the need for such a building.

The board appointed as a committee to work with student body representatives Dewey Lawrence of Tyler, chairman, Mrs. R. H. Foster of Fort Worth, W. M. Sherley of Lazbuddie, Carlos Ashley of Llano and Sidney Latham of Dallas.

At this writing an architect is preparing a preliminary sketch of the proposed building.

th, Follow through

Activities

Everyone enjoys a good coke during a Howdy Week dance.

Welcome Freshmen

John Midkiff shows David Luo the fine art of cigarette rolling.

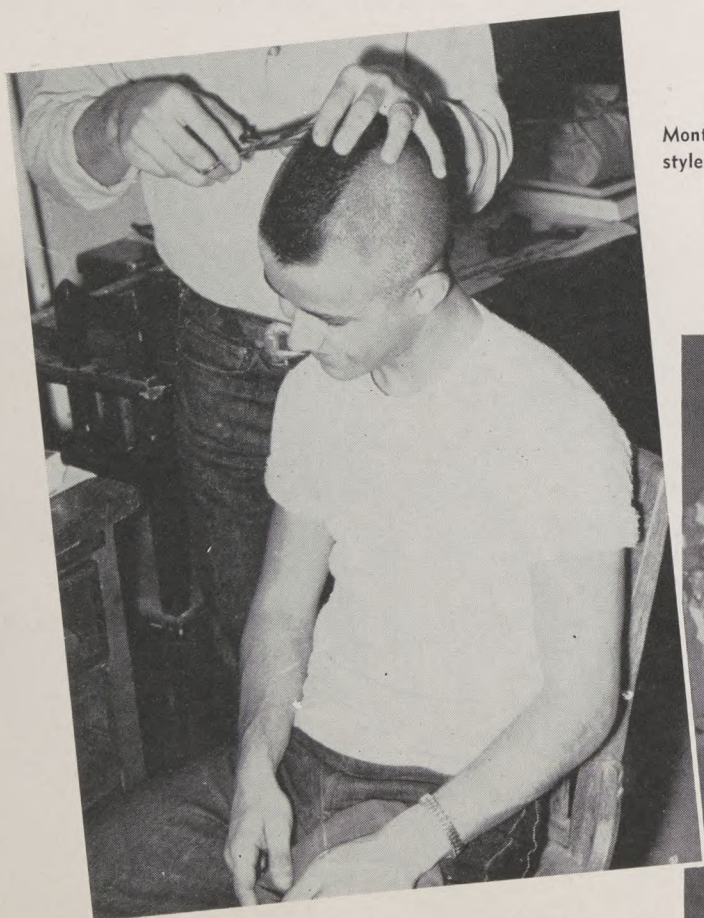

"But all I need is three hours to graduate."

Every Freshman has one of these pictures.

Monte Hancock getting new style hairdo; a mohawk.

Everybody yells at the first pep rally.

a c t i v i t i e s

... and we did!

Glenda Glenn, Howdy Week Queen.

... Some girls will do anything for a date.

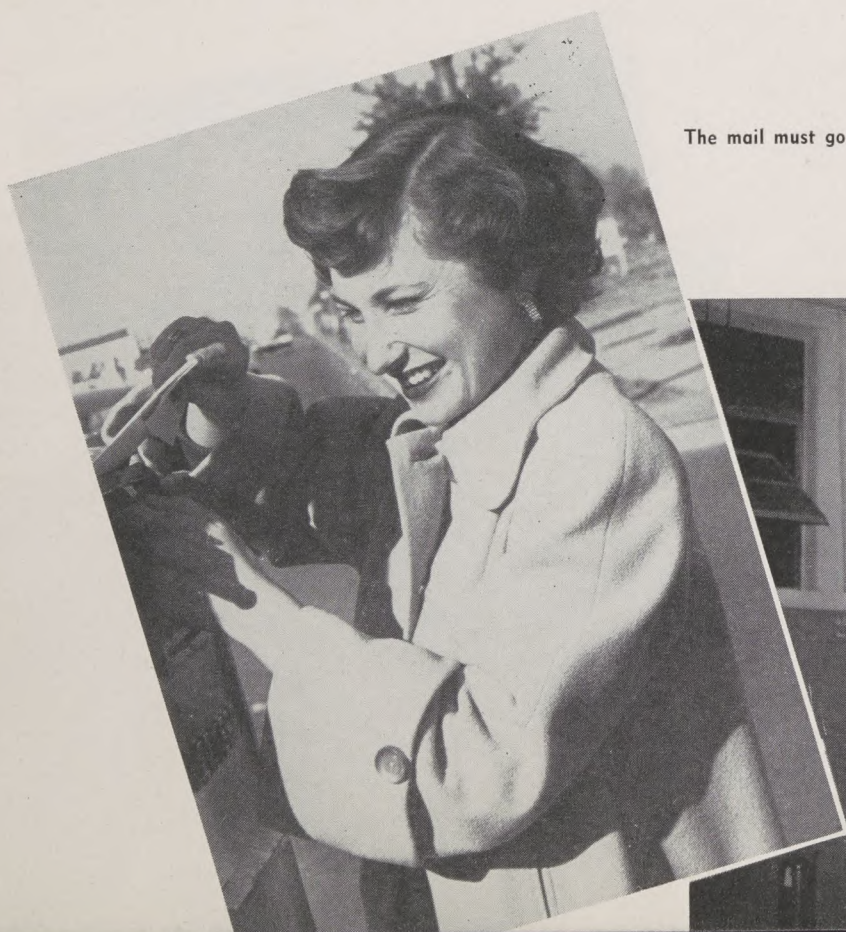

Three of our better cheerleaders.

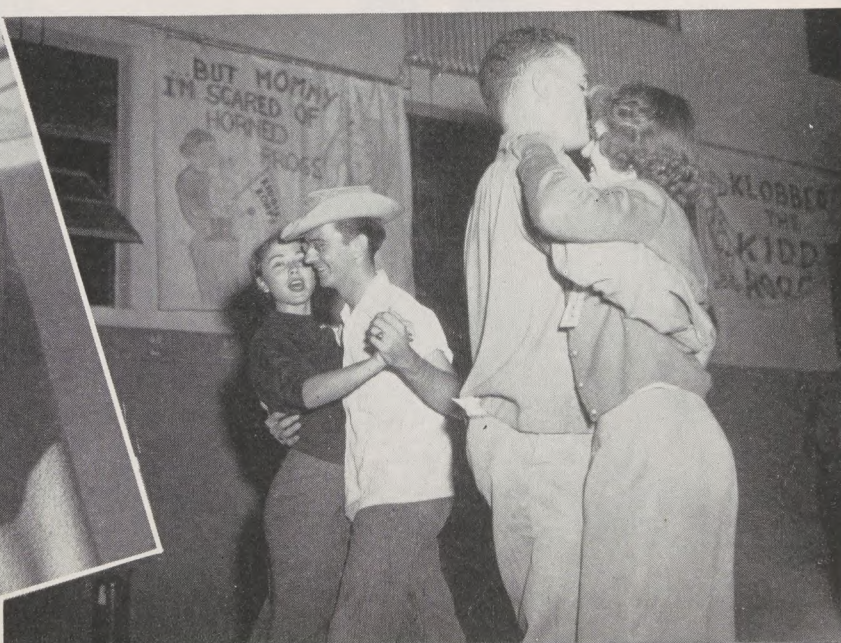

We really don't have hazing, really.

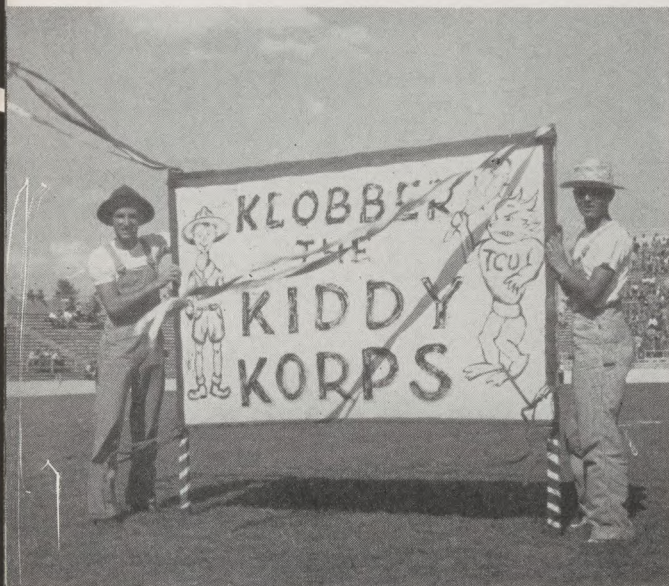

The mail must go through.

Let's get it on, kid.

a c t i v i t i e s

The Kiddy Korps sorta faded out the fourth quarter.

Goode Hall fire fighters above and beyond the call of Mr. Firkins.

Little Mac shows the loot for the day.

Pat Whelan gets into the swing with decorations for the Aggie game.

Go-Go-Go-Go-Go-Frogs.

Grissett and Liz reading about Pat Olsen being crowned Band Sweetheart.

Peanut rolling can be fun during Hell Day.

Sing to me, sweet lips.

Aw, come on, open that big beautiful mouth.

student body trip--austin

a c t i v i t i e s

Wes Steele looks bravely to the future as his buddies enjoy the trip.

Bill Bishop just has to have his finger in the concession, even on the train.

One must keep up one's strength, you know.

"Take care of my little girls."

The students parading down main in Austin in a group.

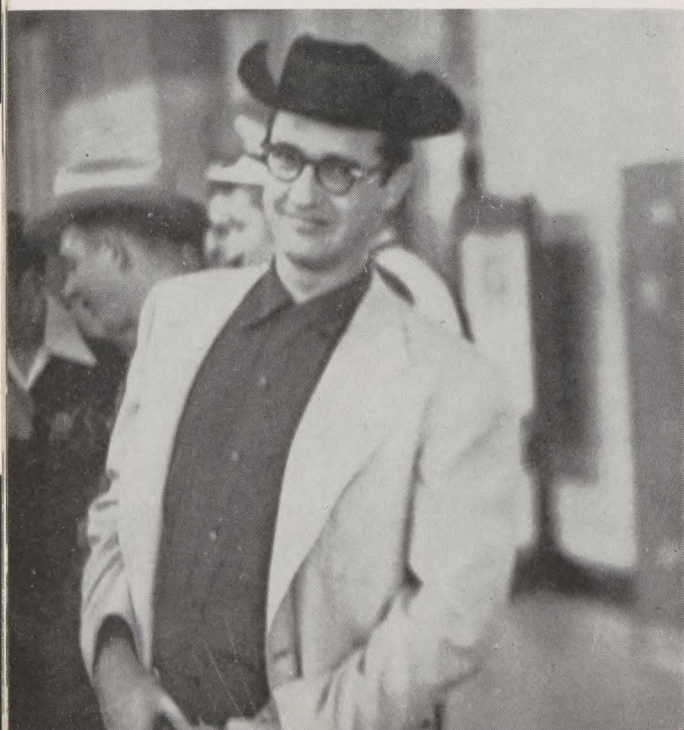

Cowboy and wife ready to stomp the steers.

The Horned Frog Band before the California trip.

Even Lew Gillis went Joe Texan.

Patterson, Miller and Repass at Grauman's Chinese Theatre.

homecoming--dedication of amon g. carter stadium.

a c t i v i t i e s

Lindy Berry and P. O. Ridings as guest speaker and master of ceremonies.

Keith Flowers presenting Judy Deaton, Homecoming Queen.

The Bonfire, thanks to the Vigilantes.

Well, Ken got into the picture after all.

Anybody got a match?

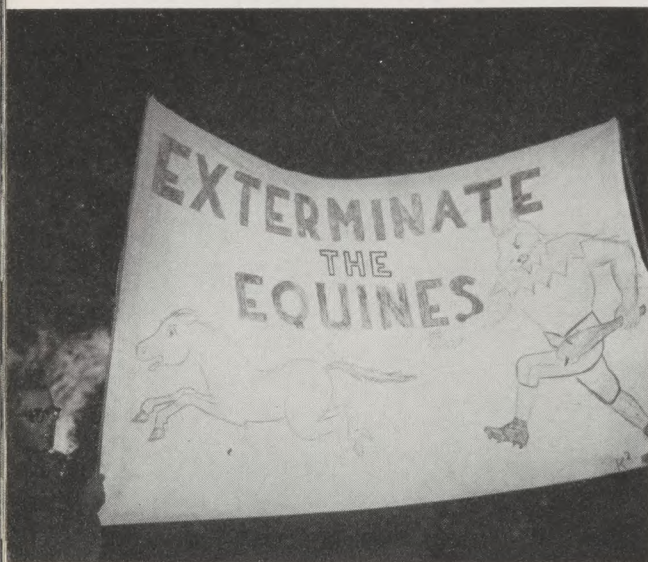

Barbara Acker waits while Keith gets Eagle Scout's autograph.

Yes, it's a camera; you don't have to point.

activities

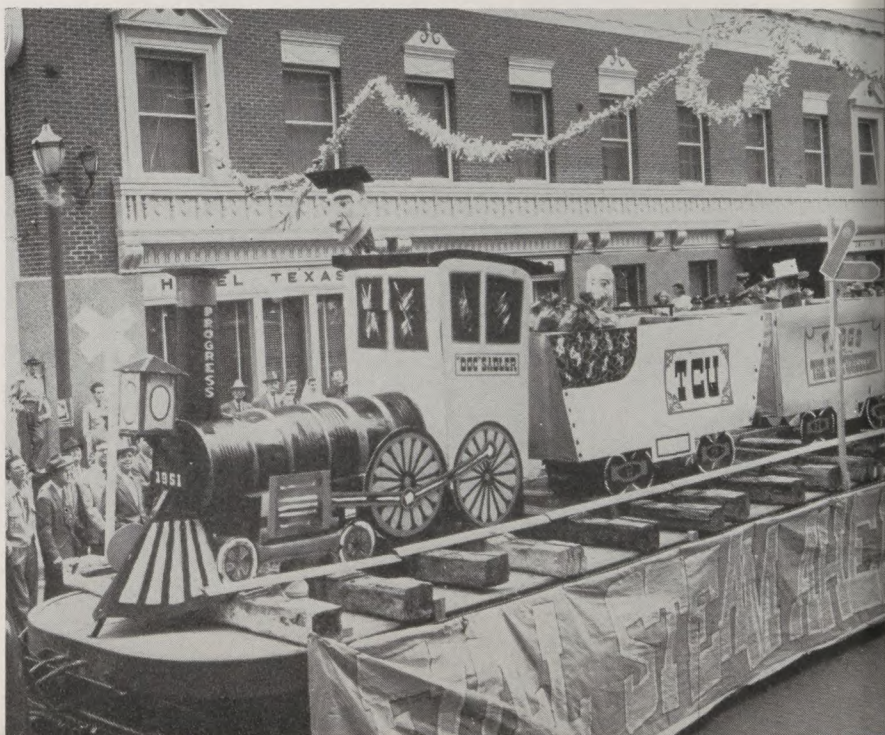

We did, naturally.

The winner of the Homecoming parade.

Let go of me, you beast.

The train of progress.

Fort Worth looks at TCU.

Which of the three is which?

We had to get our picture in somewhere.

Mutual admiration.

Jennie Newton accepts the Pulitzer Prize.

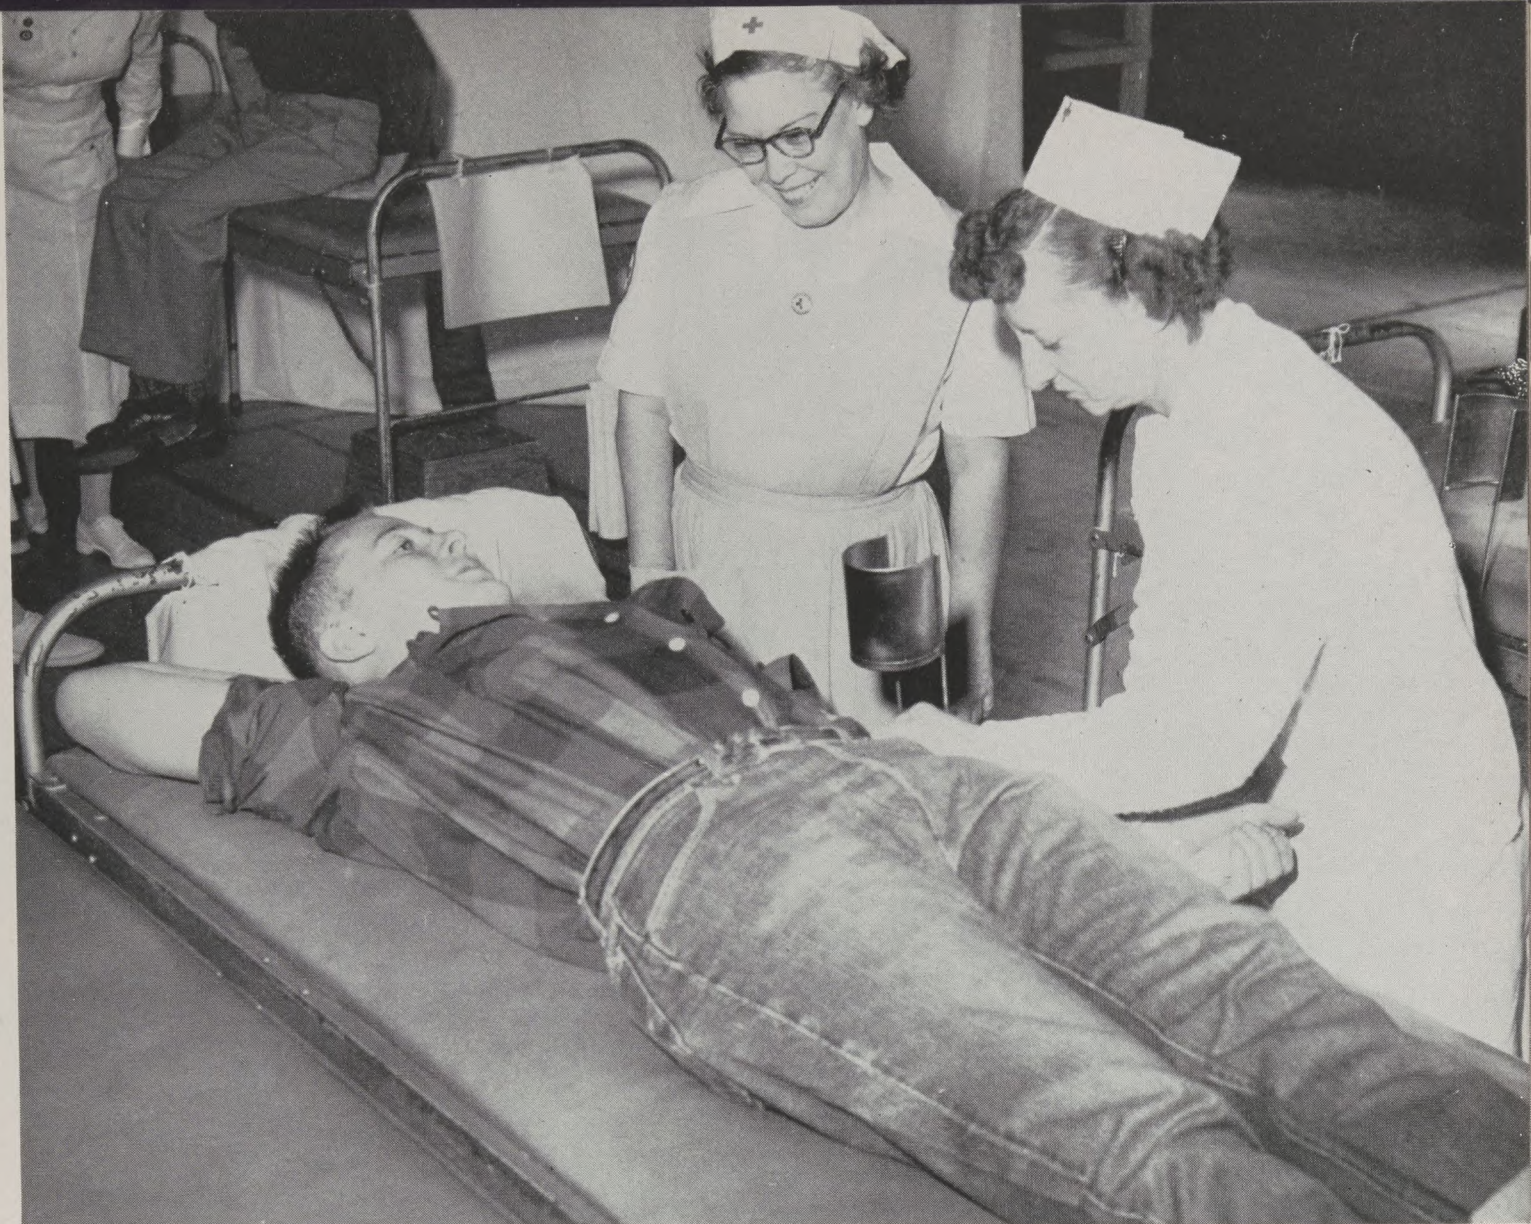

Miss Shelburne reviews the troops.

Do you have an extra fifth you can give?

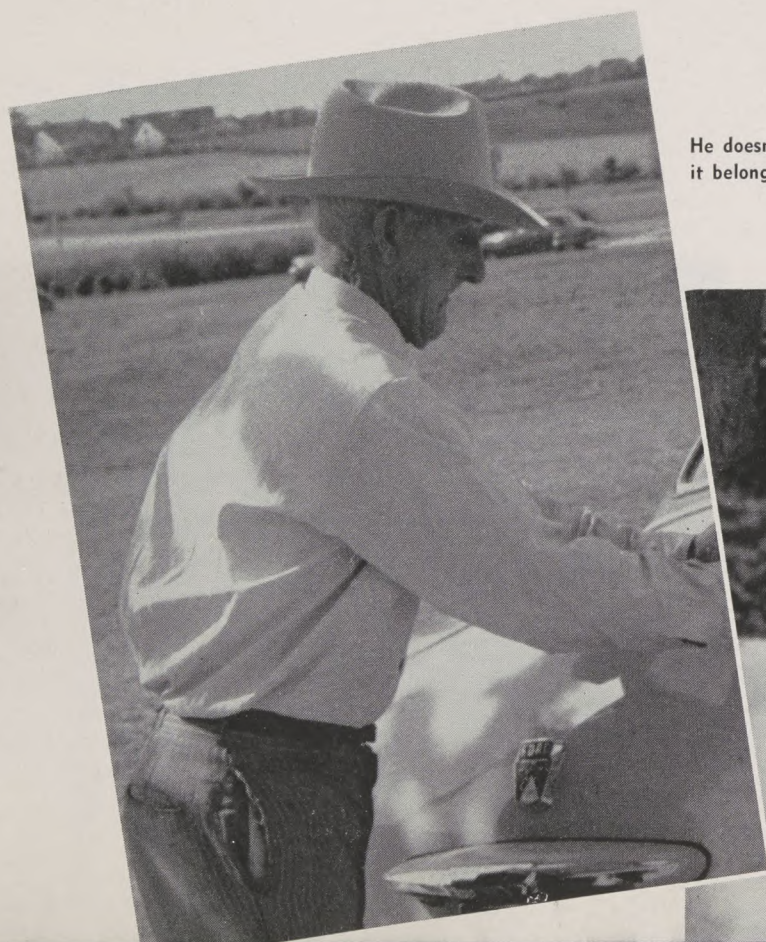

Curtain time, Little Theatre, 8 p. m.

But I thought I would get fourteen dollars!

He doesn't know it but it belongs to Sadler.

Every dog has its day.

a c t i v i t i e s

Symphony in not so sharp.

Two cups of sugar, one cup of flour, pinch of salt . . .

Wish the nude in the background had come out better.

Choose the wind to your back the first half.

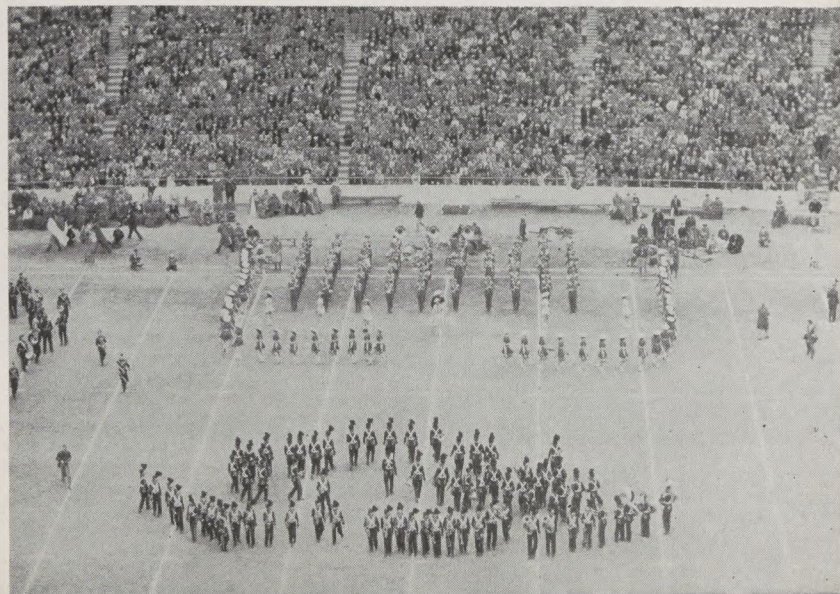

Dutch receives Cadillac at Cotton Bowl.

HOW TO MAKE A SATURDAY
MORNING 8:00 O'CLOCK!

7:25

Half-time activities at Cotton Bowl.

a c t i v i t i e s

Could be Dutch explaining the spread.

It would have made a pretty shirt but now it's flying over a foreign post.

For a free trip to New York who wouldn't be a Republican?

Pass the opium.

Waiting for the squad car.

7:35

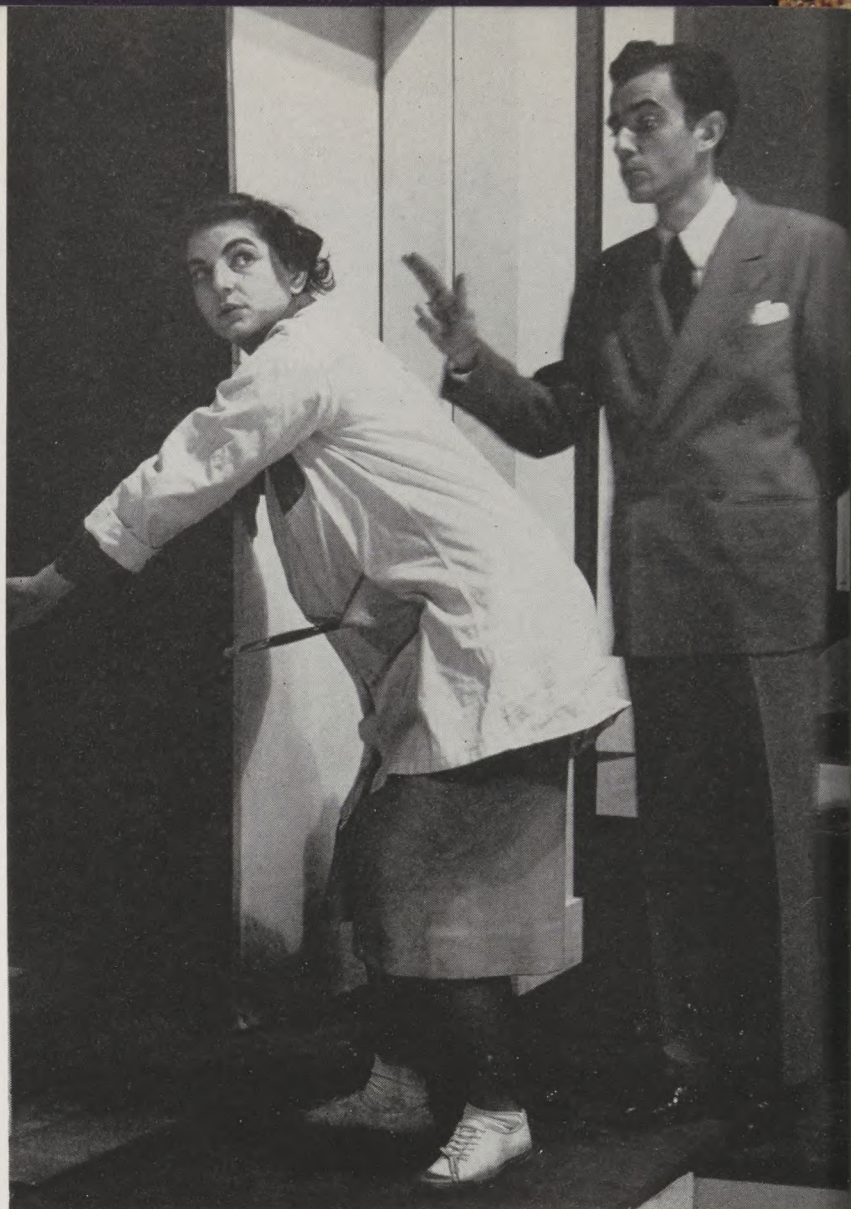

Which one is Lindbergh?

a c t i v i t i e s

Seven come eleven.

When you got to go you got to go.

Shall I pour?

Morris Repass and Collegians.

What did you expect—music?

7:45

Cowboy parties on his 70th birthday.

KENT
HENDERSON

a c t i v i t i e s

Beauties and the beast—the beast is the one with fur.

Cowboy celebrates his Big Night by showing Bernie and Cathryne the way out.

"How to cut a cake—how to cut a cake?"

Don't let us interrupt.

Joe, Bettye, Lou, Dee and Ken in action.

7:50

Three pretty girls.

a c t i v i t i e s

One by the nose-ring beats two on the hillside.

Admire makes like knotty pine.

The question is: Will it bounce?

Note to future journalists: Don't let this happen to you!

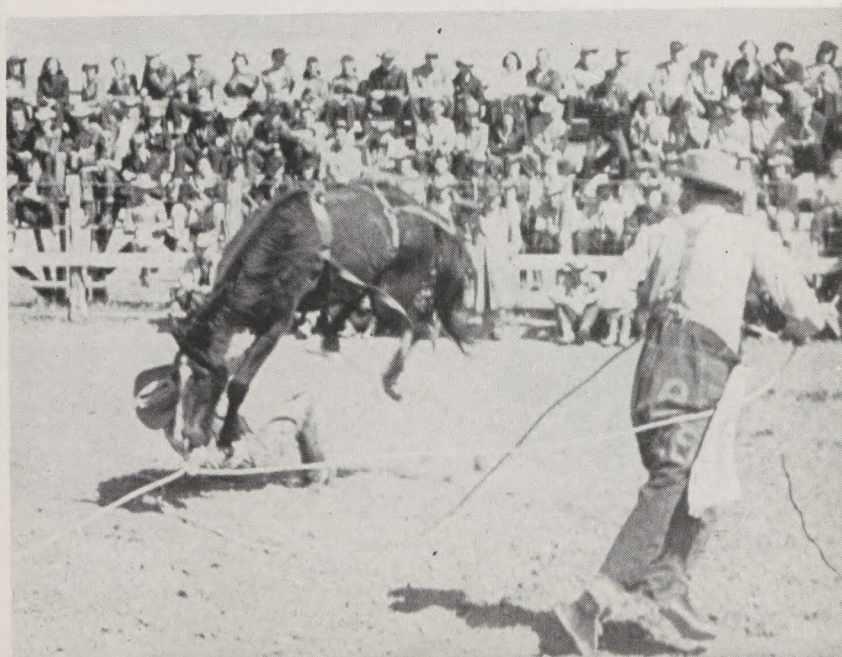

We don't know who's winning, but Murray has more on his face.

k

Wonder if he'll bounce?

a c t i v i t i e s

Some people went in for Ranch Week activities—these boys take their recreation quieter.

Happy Wrenn pauses for serious thought before tossing his egg.

But, Bob, what would Emily Post say?

Bedtime story—everybody sacked out.

Jay Bee Henderson and Joe Shirley show off their beards to best advantage.

7:55

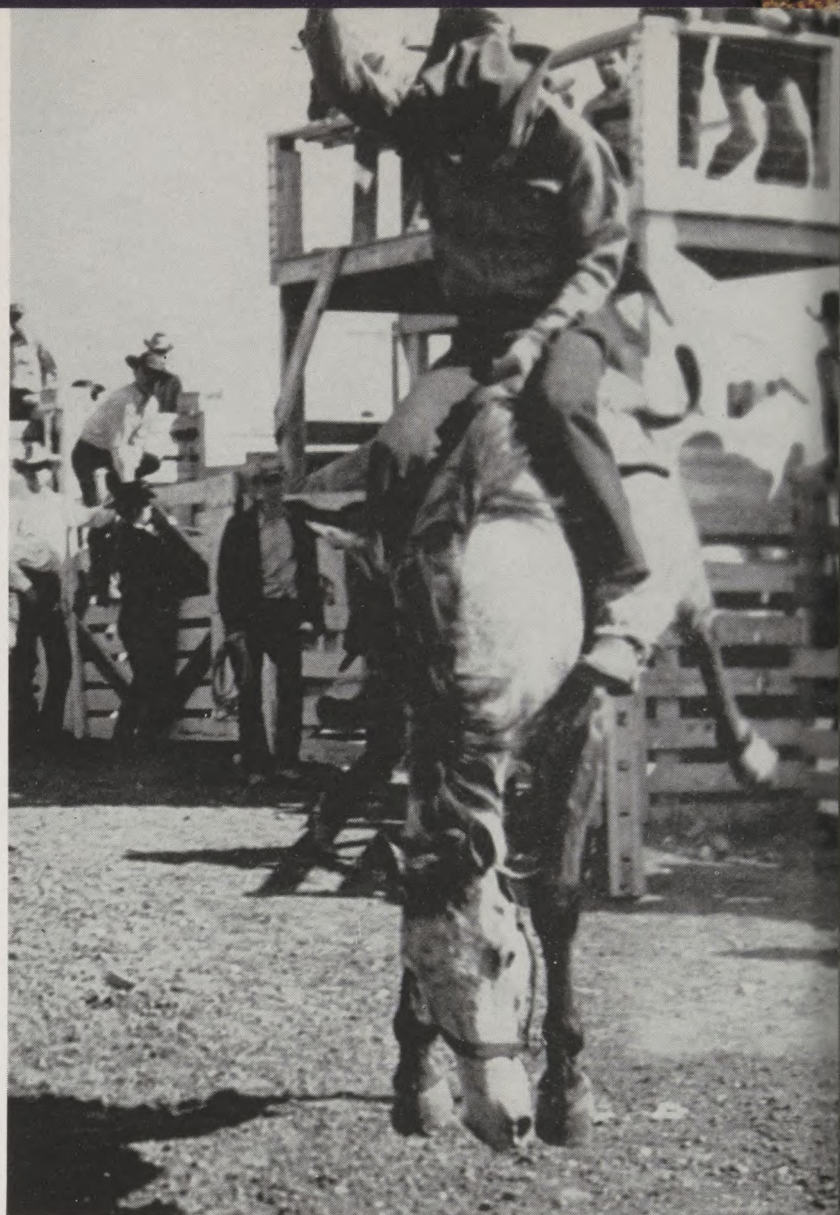

Ike Billings is the one on top—or was when the picture was snapped.

a c t i v i t i e s

If they were Ma Orbeck's, no wonder they wouldn't break.

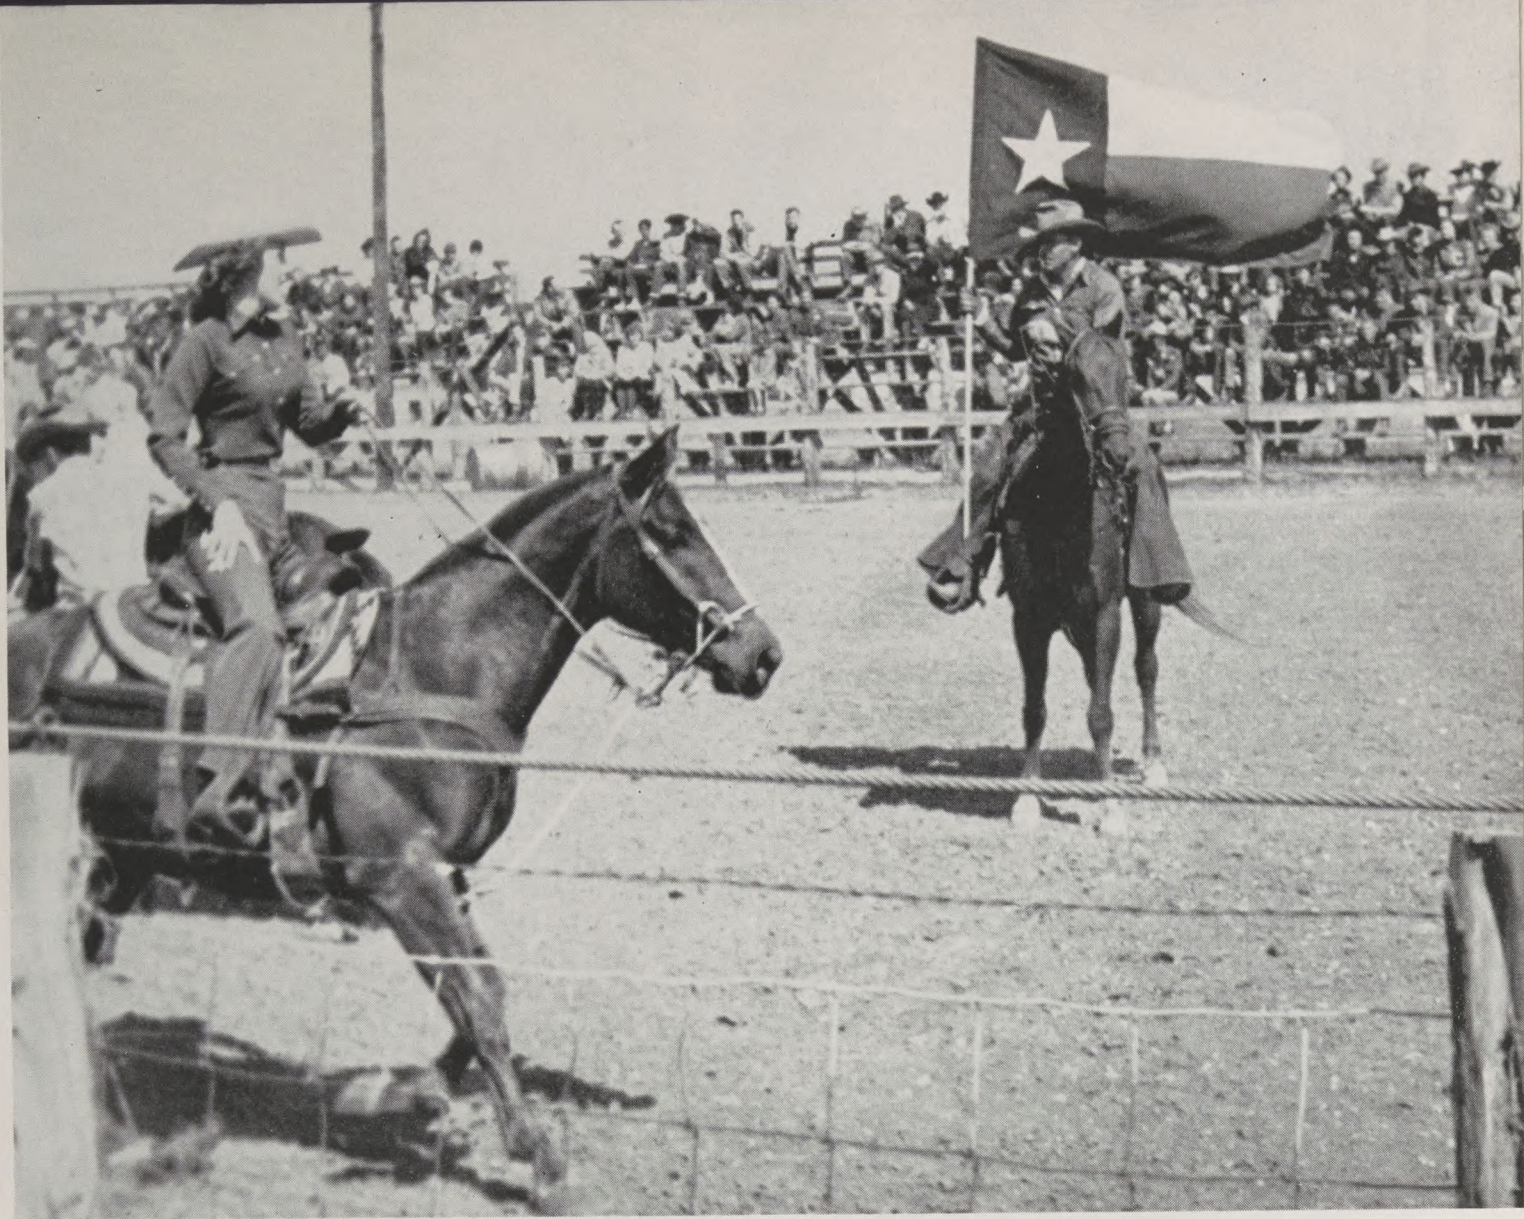

Don't blame him—we wouldn't like it either.

And out of Chute 2—did that come out of a chute?

He's got the bull by the horns—oops, no horns!

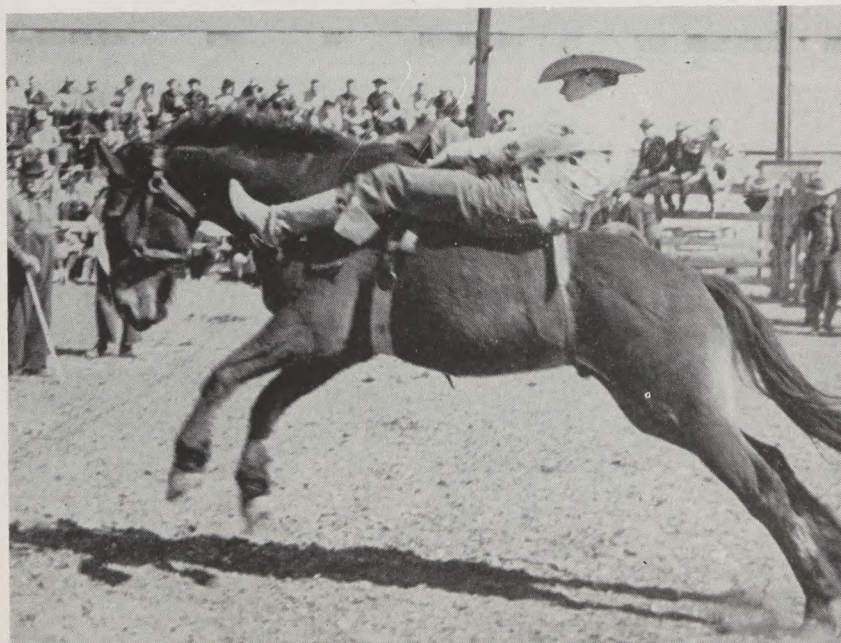

The grand entry.

8:00!

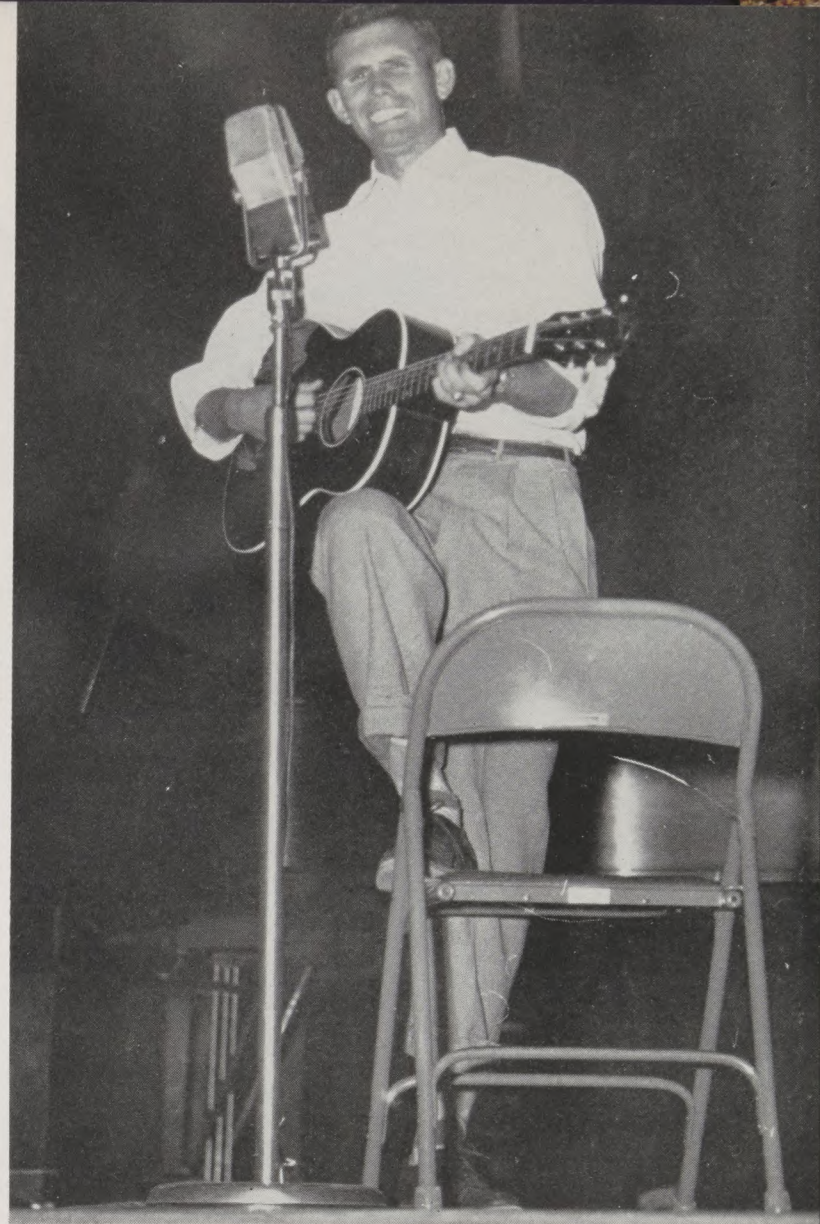

The grand exit.

a c t i v i t i e s

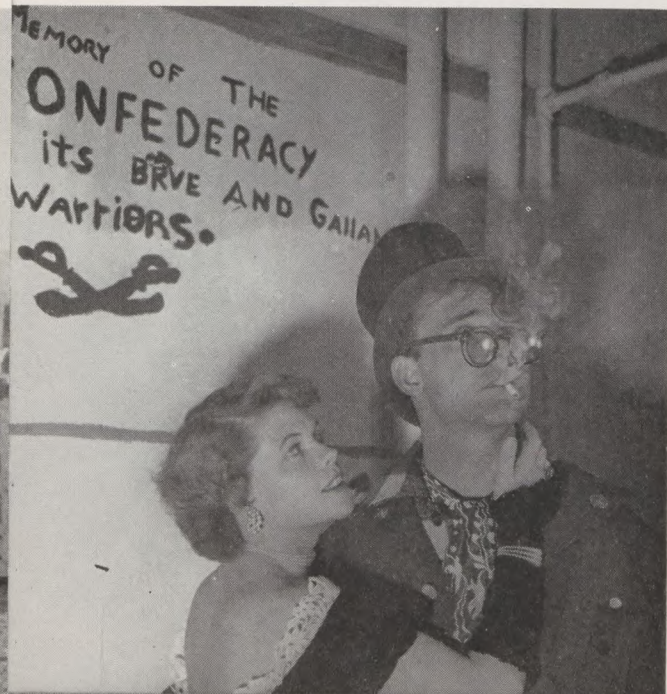

Kent Henderson entertains men of Goode Hall.

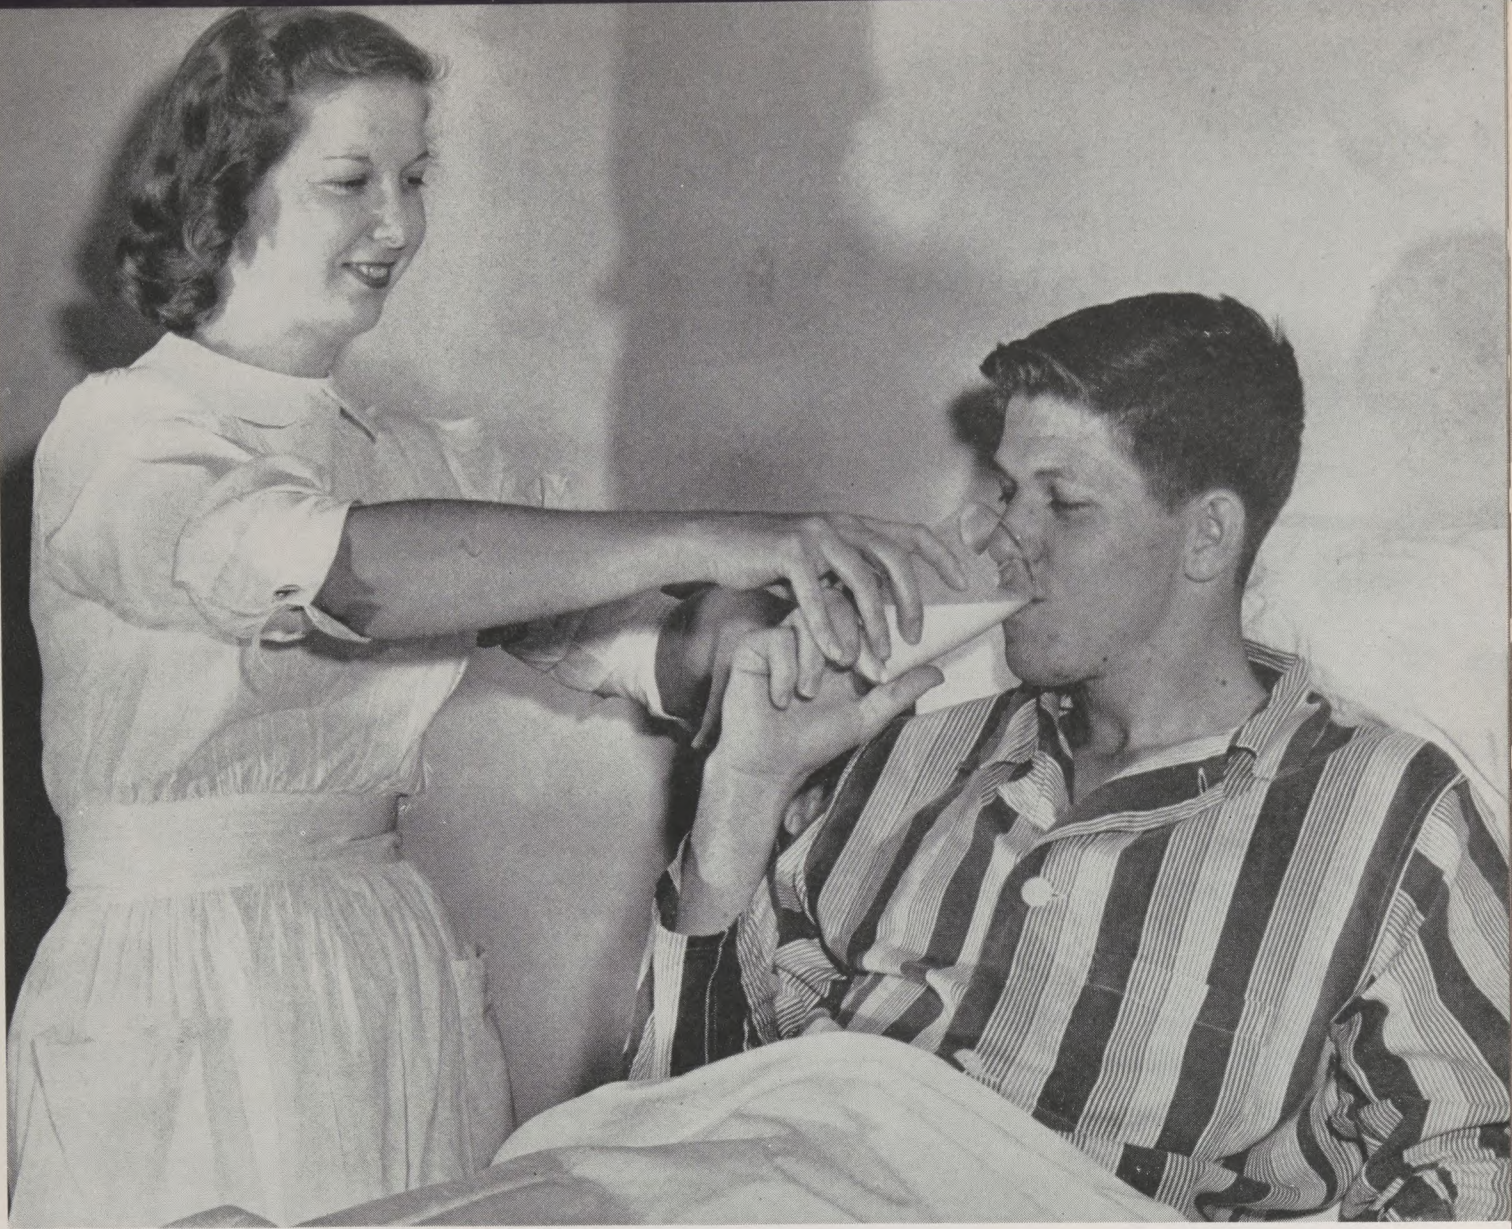

Bernie Robertson entertains student body.

Mary Lois Henson entertains Nolley Vereen.

Bob Cornell and Neil Lindley entertain . . . ?

Errand of mercy—yeah, mercy!

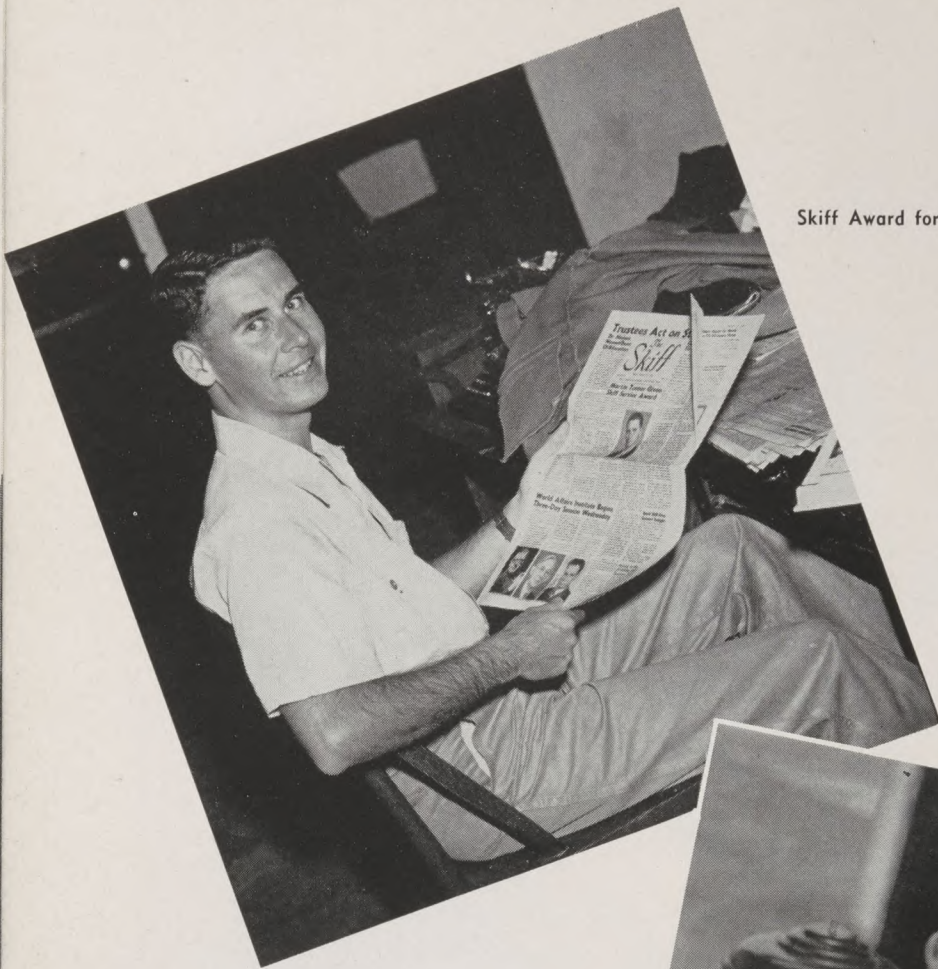

Rink-a-dink looks depressed.

"I tell ya' I saw that cigar butt first."

Vigilantes, men's service club, is sponsored by Dr. William G. Stryker.

During football season, Vigilantes made possible mid-night pep rallies and supplied the torches for these events. Also the Vigilantes guarded the campus to prevent destruction to TCU buildings by visiting opponents.

Building of the huge bonfire on the Quadrangle for Homecoming was one of the club's outstanding activities for the year.

To help the Student Association Congress and the Pep Cabinet promote school spirit is the primary purpose of Vigilantes.

Row 1: Norman Bantz, March Coffield, Clifton Dowell, Dick Duckworth, David Harlin.

Row 2: Joe Harvey, Ben Jones, Bill Lewis, Warren Macatsee, Boyd McKelvain, Bart Rominger.

Vigilettes

Vigilettes, a girls' service club, was organized in the fall of 1951 as a sister club to the Vigilantes. The club has backed Vigilantes in all its activities.

During the year joint dances have been sponsored by the two clubs.

The Vigilettes have as their sponsor Miss Martha Bright.

The purpose of this organization is to help promote school spirit on the TCU campus.

Row 1: Carolyn Acola, Ann Andrews, Beverly Burch, Jeanne Crudup, Lonnicie Dotson.

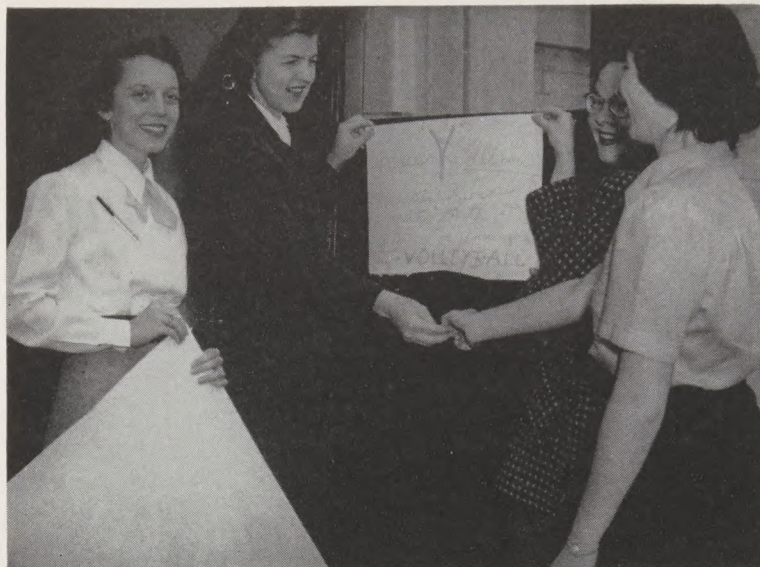

Row 2: Diana Durringer, Molly Eller, Jo Foley, Gay Gaither, Margaret Hayes, Libby Henderson.

Row 3: Sandy Hobbs, Norma Horany, Connie Kinkel, Milly Kirk, Martha Logan, Jean McHugh.

Student Christian Association

During the past year the Student Christian Association has sponsored many activities. "Y" went all out to sponsor the Campus Chest, its outstanding activity for the year.

"Y" purpose is to make the student aware of his responsibility on the campus and in the world and to provide him with a program of action through which he can express the feeling of responsibility in co-operation with others.

Sponsors of the Student Christian Association are Dr. and Mrs. Harry C. Munro.

Row 1: David Allred, Joan Balajka, Joe Berry, Billie V. Brown, Patty Coleman, Rogers (Bubba) Coleman, Georgia Collins, Helen Cook.

Row 2: Shirley Davis, Jerry Dulin, Mary Nell Ferbrache, Jo Ann Fitts, Patricia Gatton, Jimmie Lou Gifford, Mary Anne Guthrie, Jean Hall.

Row 3: Loretta Jean Henderson, Mary Jane Howell, Jeanine Kenyon, Phyllis Kepple, Martha Logan, Beverly Lucas, Mary Mansfield, Carol McPherson.

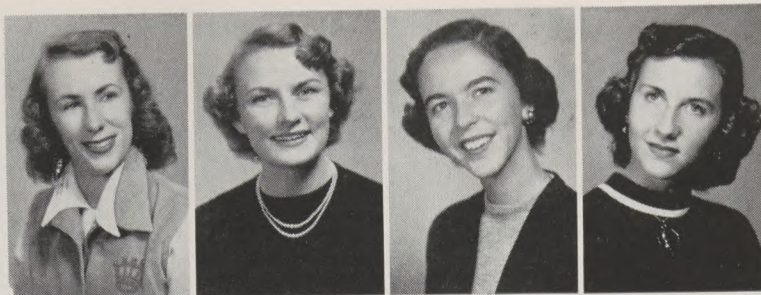

Row 4: Kitty Miers, Jan Minnick, Arlene Moorman, Coila Fae Murphy, Bob C. Neel, Francis Nowotny, John B. Payne.

Sociae

Sociae is a newly organized social club for all junior and senior dormitory women. Until the fall of 1951, there was no club that offered these opportunities.

During the year, Sociae members have been entertained with bridge parties. Homecoming found the members working on a float for the annual parade.

Row 1: Wanda Bizzell, Lucile Dustin, Betty Dyer, Fay Faulkner, Adrienne Foote, Susanna Landers.
Row 2: Lena Lyon, Coila Faye Murphy, Molly Owen, Irene Sailor, Betty Strange.

Row 2: Martha Stewart, Wha Sook Suh, Patsy Turner, June Watson, Nancy K. Williams, Cecil Young, Vita Zodin.

Women's Sports Association

Women's Sports Association had as officers this year, left to right, Billie Sue Anderson, treasurer; Bobbye Arnold, vice president; Billie Brown, president, and Vita Zodin, secretary.

The Women's Sports Association, sponsored by Mrs. Don Reisinger, encourages interest in sports and related activities among the women of Texas Christian University as a means of promoting skill in sports, fellowship and health.

During the year WSA has participated in basketball and baseball games against the faculty men and has held picnics for the members.

Row 1: Jane Anderson, Kay Bowers, Pat Burgess, Nelda Cook, Margaret Cox.

Row 2: Eddie Darnell, Margaret Daniel, Carolyn Eubank, Jo Ann Gaido, Pat Gatton, Jimmie Lou Gifford.

Row 3: Joan Gose, Jean Hall, Bettie Harbin, June Hartgrove, Jo Head, Libby Henderson.

Row 4: Mickey Henley, Sandy Hobbs, Norma Horany, Beverly James, Nancy Johnston, Johanna Kilpatrick.

Row 5: Marcia Lampe, Joan Leimer, Margaret Lindsey, Yvonne Mahanay, Madge Moreland, Sue Ann Moyers.

Row 6: Bettye O'Brien, Patsy Palmer, Sarita Pennington, Ann Reed, Frances Remschel, Doris Reynolds.

Los Hidalgos

Los Hidalgos is interested in bringing its members together in social and intellectual relations, in keeping close touch with college life and in encouraging speaking of good Spanish by the members.

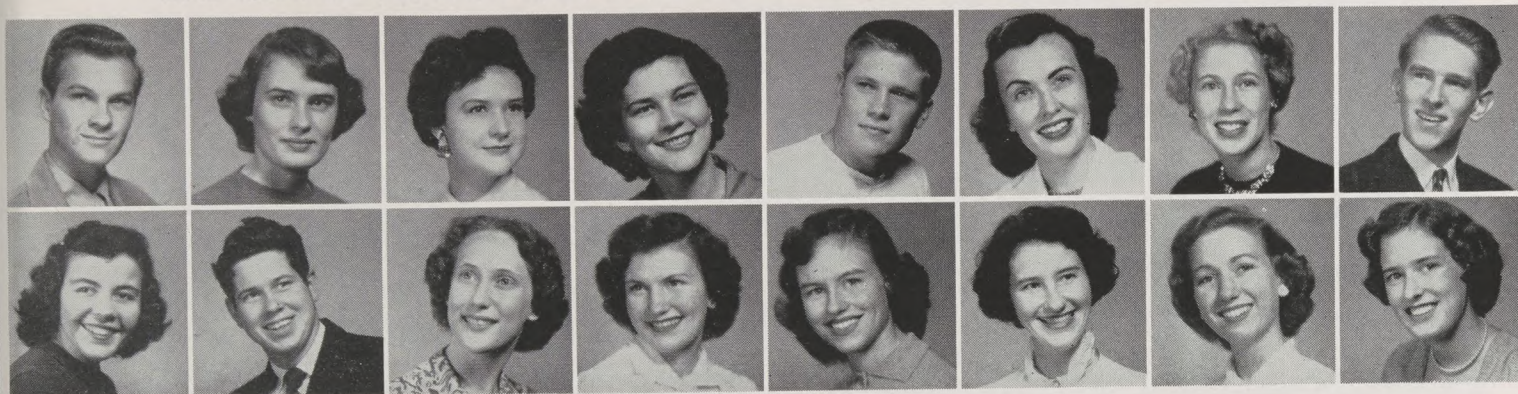

Membership is open to anyone interested in the group's purpose, but he must have had at least one year of college or two years of high school Spanish.

Mrs. Jasmine Smoot is the sponsor of this club, which has an annual dinner with the members of Phi Sigma Iota.

Row 1: James Armstrong, Patty Coleman, Maureen Cronin, Margaret Curry, Dan Dickinson, Betty Driver, Margaret Faulk, Ralph Frankenberg Jr.

Row 1: Anita Rock, Betty Sue Rollins, Betty Rowland, Mary Schuch, Helen Shirley, Willie Belle Stewart.
Row 2: Betsy Strange, Gena Tapp, Nancy Tillotson, Patsy Turner, June Watson, Jerry Lynn Wilson.

Chi Beta

Chi Beta was formed by home economics majors and minors.

Goals of the club are to further appreciation of home life, develop personality, poise and initiative and encourage interest in home economics.

Miss Fae Bass is sponsor.

Row 1: Joan Barnes, Wanda Bizzell, Jane Bradford, Sallie Butler, Christine Chernosky, Anita Jo Davis, Carolyn Eubank, Jo Ann Gaido, Loretta Henderson.
Row 2: Fran Knight, Marcia Lampe, Jean Landers, Pat O'Brien, Patsy Palmer, Nancy Saenz, Barbara Stodghill, June Watson.

Ministers' Wives

Ministers' Wives formed their first club in 1938 to bring about closer relations among the wives of student ministers and to sponsor programs of benefit for them, pointing out the duties and responsibilities as wives of ministers.

The wives, though not all are students here, are indeed a vital part of the life of Texas Christian.

We Won't Forget

Thanks for the memory.

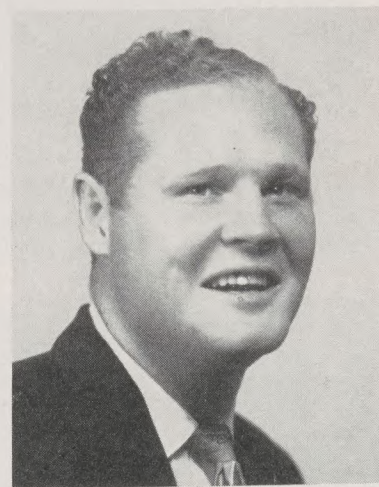

Of Gilbert Bartosh and his last period thrusts that finally dented an immovable object, the Arkansas line.

Of Danny Ray McKown who sparked probably the most thrilling seven minutes ever played by a Horned Frog eleven, with his great running and passing against the Texas Aggies.

Of Keith Flowers and a TCU pass defense which gave Larry Isbell the worst day of his career.

Clarence "Red" Marable

Conference Champions

Of Herbert Zimmerman and his savage line that defied the efforts of the best of the Rice Owls to halt him.

And of Bobby Jack Floyd who time and again wouldn't be brought down by anything like a mere Mustang.

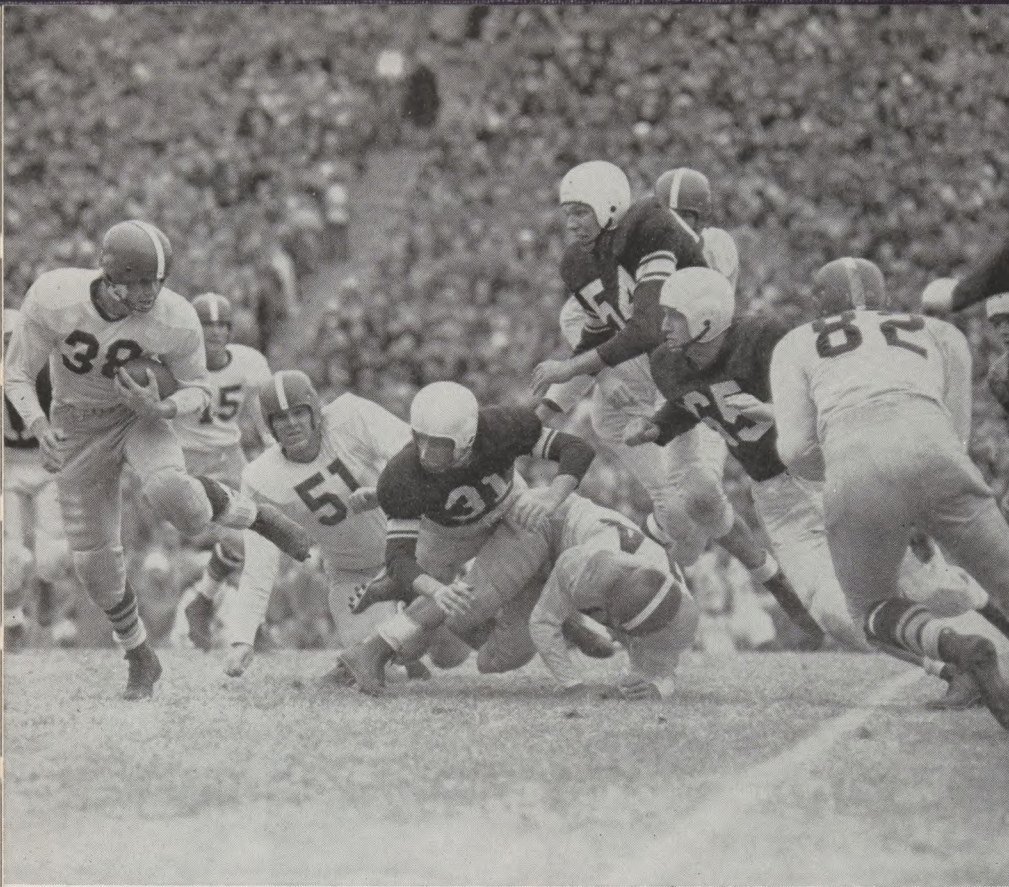

And thanks to what is perhaps the best Frog defensive forward wall in over a decade in Wayne Martin, Douglas Conaway, Zimmerman, Bill Mattern, Morgan Williams, Charley Rogers and Flowers, who called the signals.

But thanks most to L. R. "Dutch" Meyer, who refused to be intimidated by the T-addicts and went on to develop a still better formation, the spread.

And now that the final tally is in, the 1951 Horned Frogs can be remembered as the team that won when they had to in the toughest conference of them all.

Frank Struska

Jack Ray cuts over right tackle for 12 yards to the Wildcat 19 early in the first period. John Medanich has just thrown key block while Teddy Vaught prepares to hit Ray Correll.

Cotton Bowl

Amid the lavish panorama that is the Cotton Bowl, Bobby Jack Floyd took the ball from center, cut over guard, veered to the left and went 43 yards down the sideline to score.

That third-period run and Keith Flowers' subsequent conversion was "all she wrote" for the Horned Frogs as Kentucky and the "Kentucky Babe," Vito Parilli, outscored the Purple, 20-7, on a cold, dreary New Year's Day in Dallas.

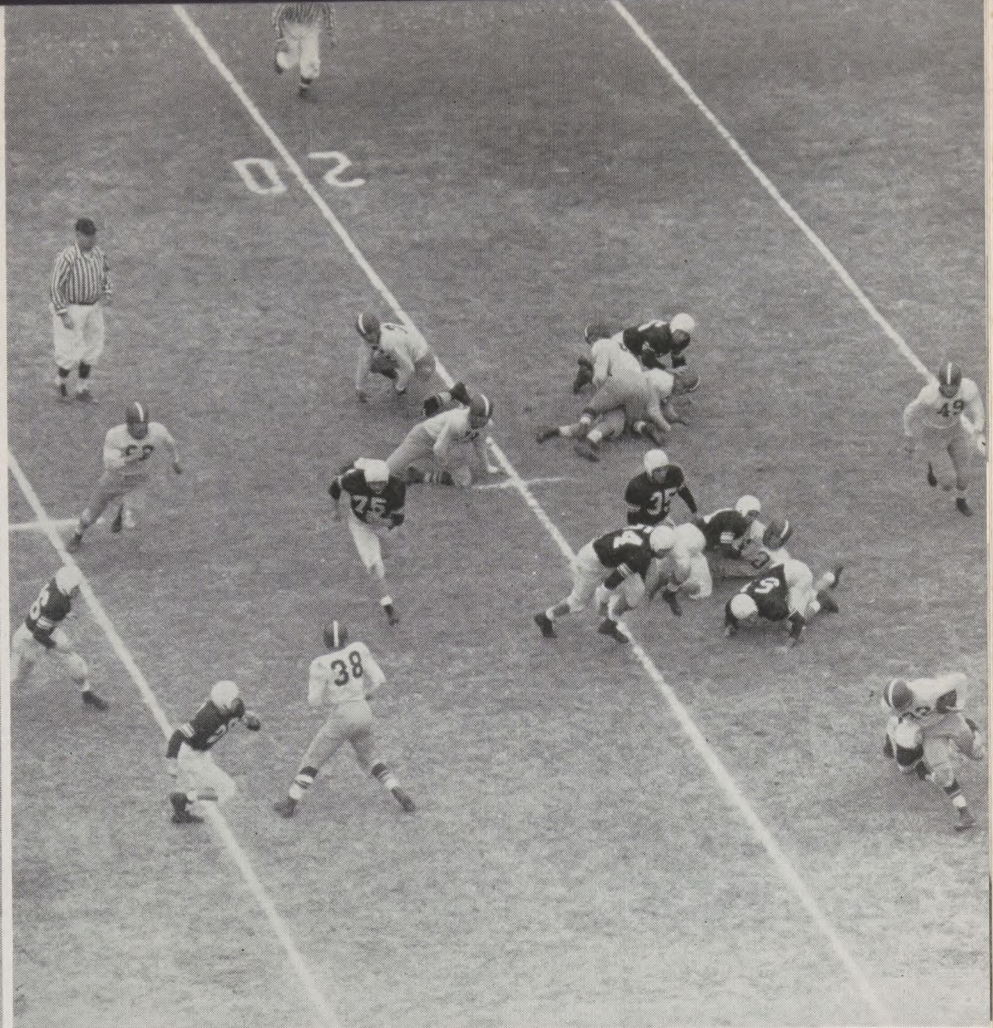

Seventy-five thousand people came to see All-American Parilli toss two touchdown passes to Emery Clark and watch Ed Hamilton score the clincher from the three-yard line as time was running out.

For the Frogs two names stood out brightly.

Gilbert Bartosh tries vainly to elude two tacklers while picking up 9 yards in the third quarter. Three plays later Bobby Jack Floyd went 43 yards for the lone Purple tally.

Bobby Jack Floyd breaks loose from an unidentified Kentucky tackler and picks up 8 yards in the first quarter.

Kentucky

Floyd played perhaps the greatest game of his career.

The Paris junior carried the ball 14 times for 115 yards and on 8.2 average to be the leading ball carrier of the day.

Flowers was again terrific from his linebacker post and was adjudged as the outstanding defensive star of the game.

For a moment it looked as if Gilbert Bartosh might bring the Purple from a 13-0 deficit to victory.

Bartosh took over the quarterbacking chores with the ball on his own 23 and four plays later Floyd scored. But the Frogs never again could seriously threaten the Wild-cat goal.

Keith Flowers and Roy Pitcock about to hit Emery Clark, who proved to be a thorn in the side of the Frogs all afternoon.

KEITH FLOWERS

Keith Flowers, all-American choice as defensive linebacker by the Associated Press and the Chicago Tribune, is easily one of the greatest linebackers in Frog history.

Flowers was chosen on nearly every all-conference team and for his fine play against Baylor, Keith was given the AP's "lineman of the week" award.

Besides kicking off and handling extra point chores for the Frogs, Flowers kicked an important field goal against Arkansas.

Keith also received the Dan D. Rogers Award signifying TCU's most valuable player.

DOUGLAS CONAWAY

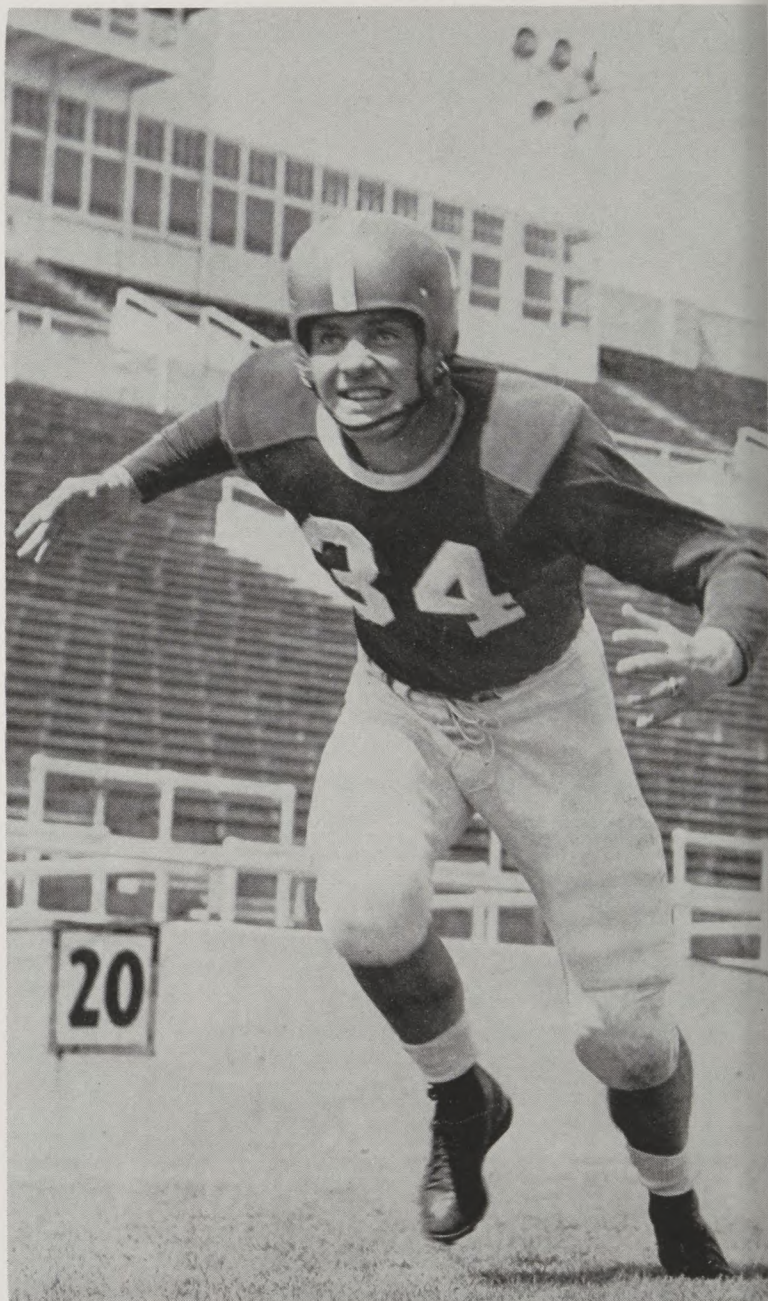

Douglas Conaway, the 245-pound defensive tackle from Hillsboro, was named to the News Enterprises Association (NEA) all-American defensive team.

Doug was also chosen on nearly every all-conference eleven.

Conaway gave many an opposing passer nightmares with his vicious rushing tactics.

It was Dan Drake, Rice quarterback, who remarked after playing TCU, "They rushed harder than anybody I've played against all year, especially that 77. He kept coming—even after the ball was gone."

Amazingly agile for his size, Conaway was instrumental in each of the Christian victories.

HERBERT ZIMMERMAN

Herbert Zimmerman, "lineman of the week" against Rice, all-conference defensive guard and kick blocker deluxe, was an integral part in the Purple's great defense.

An injury which forced Zim out of the Texas game was considered by many to be directly responsible for the Frog's loss.

Previous to the Rice game, his finest effort came in the SMU game of 1950. Zimmerman literally tore up the Mustang line while the Frogs were posting a 27-13 victory.

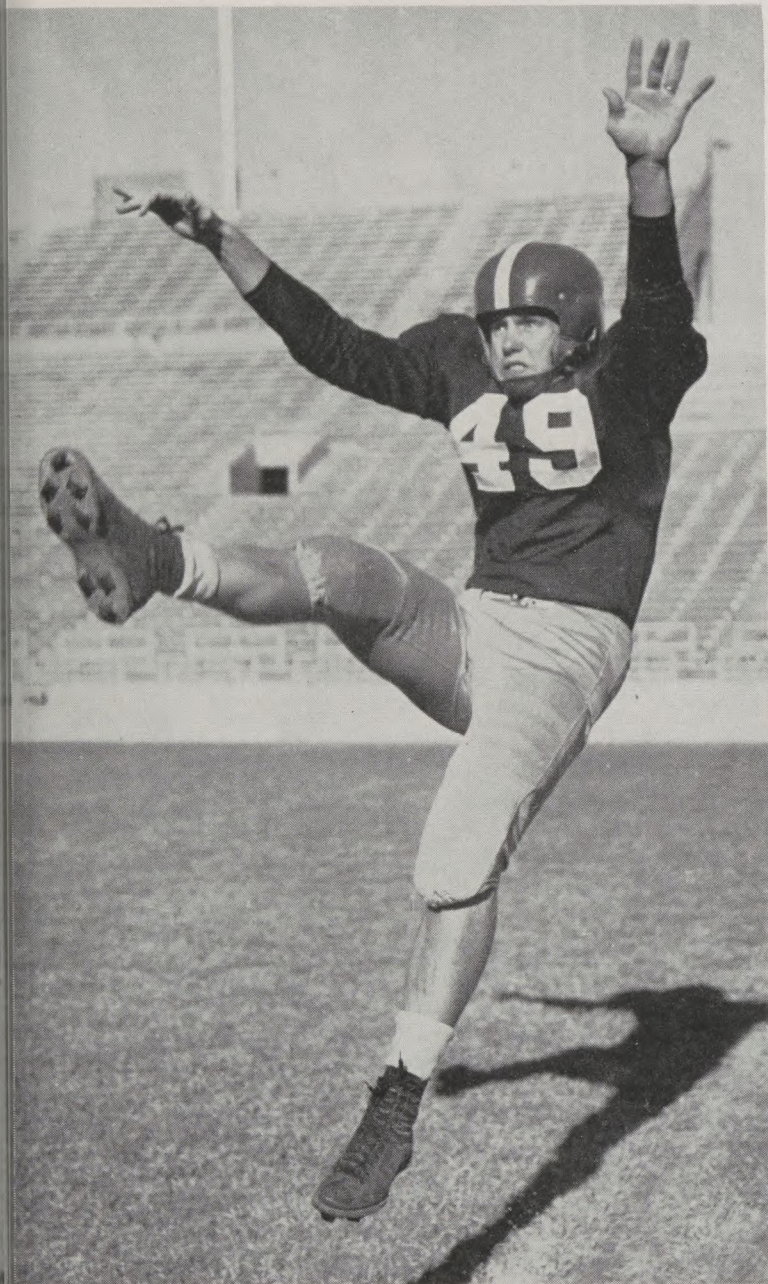

ALTON "CURLY" TAYLOR

It has been said by those who know that the offensive guards make the spread formation go.

And certainly Alton "Curly" Taylor was a key man in "Dutch" Meyer's formation.

Weighing only 178 pounds, Alton was considered one of the finest blockers in the conference.

Taylor, who was elected co-captain of the Frogs, made several all-conference teams and received the Grassy Hinton Award, emblematic of the most conscientious Frog player.

BOBBY JACK FLOYD

If you want to know about the Purple's Bobby "Jumpin' Jack" Floyd, you might ask any of the Kentucky Wildcats.

For in the Cotton Bowl game Floyd average 8.2 yards every time he wrapped his hands around the ball and ducked his bull-like neck toward the Wildcat goal.

There were few times that the Frogs needed one, two or three yards this year that the Paris fullback didn't obtain them.

Floyd made numerous all-conference selections and proved to be TCU's leading scorer for the second consecutive year.

RAY McKOWN

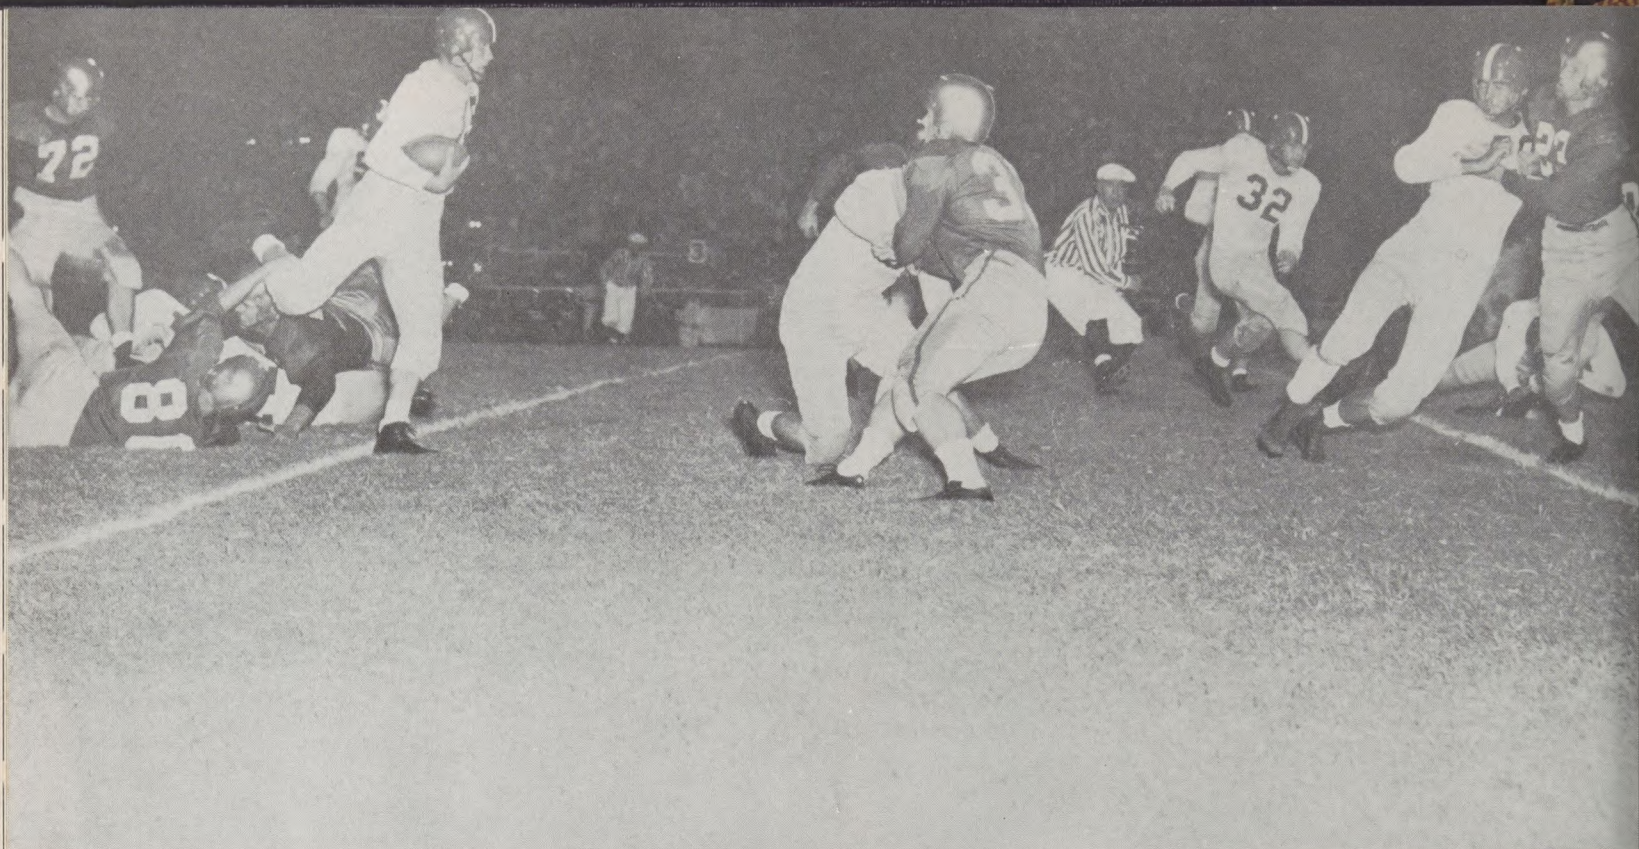

The story of Ray McKown's climb from a fourth string quarterback into a starting role with the Southwest Conference champions writes a fabulously fantastic tale in Texas Christian football annals.

McKown, who began the season as a defensive safety man, climaxed a great sophomore season by being named to Paramount News' all-American team and on numerous all-conference squads.

The Dumas Dandy stepped into Gilbert Bartosh's shoes in the Texas Tech game and never relinquished his hold on the position.

McKown, a real triple threat, ran, passed and kicked with equal proficiency for the Frogs.

Malvin Fowler, who sparked TCU to both its touchdowns against the Jayhawks, moves for good yardage in the early stages of the game.

Kansas

Gilbert Bartosh got a knot on the head; Malvin Fowler reached stardom—but a Kansan from Dallas, Jerry Robertson, shot holes in the TCU pass defense and the Jayhawks won, 27-13.

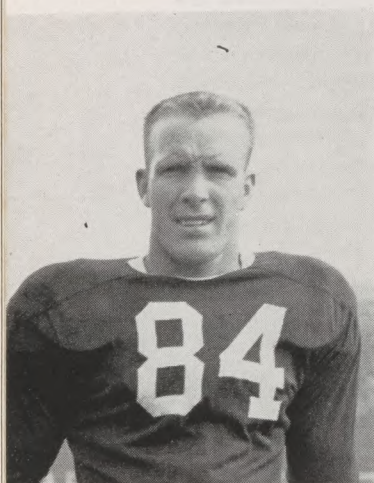

The Frog line halted the vaunted running attack of Charley Hoag & Company, but couldn't cope with the aerial thrusts of the Kansans which payed off in three scores and set up a fourth.

Fowler replaced the groggy Bartosh in the second period and engineered a 67-yard scoring drive with Bobby Jack Floyd ripping over from the one.

Keith Flowers converted.

With the Frogs trailing by two touchdowns in the fourth period Fowler climaxed a 78-yard march with his famous running jump pass to John Medanich in the end zone.

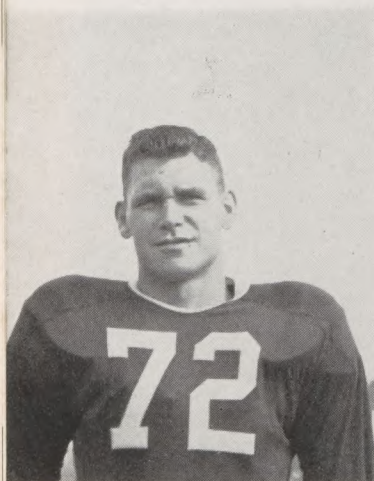

But that was all as Hoag took over where Robertson left off and tossed a 40-yard touchdown pass to Bob Brandeberry to give the Kansans their first victory over the Christians in nine games.

Malvin Fowler continued to show his right to the first string quarterback post by leading the Horned Frogs past Reynolds-less Nebraska, 28-7.

Fowler, who completed 12 of 17 passes, threw two scoring aerials and set up another marker with passing and Bobby Jack Floyd's running.

The Van speedster also carried the ball for 33 yards in 9 attempts.

But it wasn't all Fowler. The first Purple touchdown came when Wayne Martin recovered a Cornhusker fumble in the end zone. Keith Flowers converted his first of four extra points.

Two minutes later the Frogs scored again on a five-play

Late in the second period Herbert Zimmerman blocked a Nebraska punt and covered it on the Husker 29-yard line.

On the next play Fowler hit Bob Blair in the end zone for the third TCU touchdown.

Neither team scored again until the fourth period when Fowler unlimbered his pitching arm once more and tossed a third-down pass nine yards to Danny Hallmark in the end zone.

Great defensive play by Flowers, Zimmerman, and Douglas Conaway, plus Fowler's outstanding performance, gave the Frogs an unexpectedly easy victory.

Arkansas

Gilbert Bartosh hurled his 175 pounds of bone and muscle at the unyielding Arkansas line.

Again and again the ghost from Granger literally threw himself against those immovable objects.

There would be no more Fowler; he was hurt. And now with the score tied, 7-7, it was the Bartosh of old versus the whole Razorback team.

And finally it was TCU drawn along by the fanatical play of Bartosh which began to move the behemoths from Fayetteville.

Driving down, down to the Arkansas 13 from where Keith Flowers overpowered the ball between the uprights.

That was the ball game, but the Purple added an insurance tally a few minutes later when Bartosh passed to End Teddy Vaught for 11 yards and the final score of the night.

Flowers converted to give the Frogs a 17-7 victory.

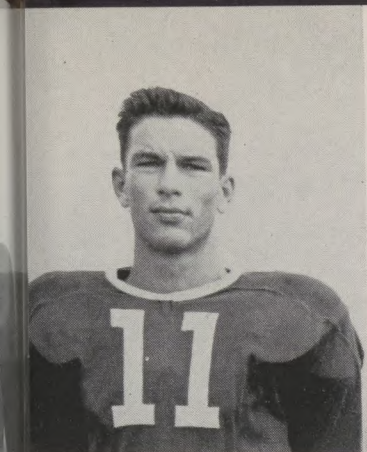

Ronald Fraley set up the first Purple score in the initial period when he intercepted a Razorback pass on the Arkansas 18 and returned it to the 12.

Two plays later Fowler went over from the five on an end sweep.

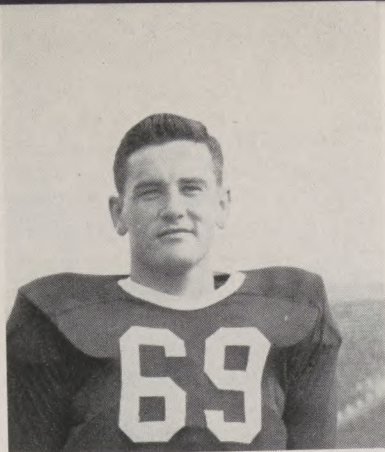

But it was Bartosh who, having lost his starting assignment the week before to Fowler, tore up the heavy Arkansas line.

The stocky Bohemian carried the ball 22 times and averaged four yards each of those times.

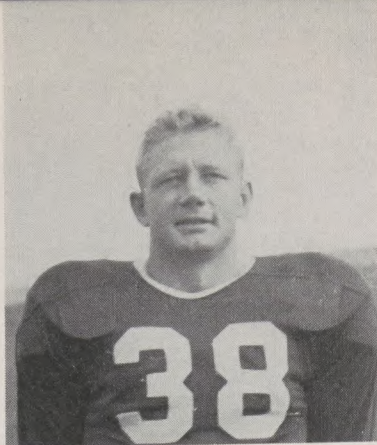

Arkansas capitalized on a TCU fumble to score its lone touchdown. Lamar McHan, sensational sophomore, got the last yard on a quarterback sneak.

Texas Tech

Who would have guessed that the same McKown, who had been a fourth-string quarterback when the season began, would lead Texas Christian University to the Cotton Bowl?

It was a premonition of things to come, for Bartosh was injured again and he was never to return to full efficiency the rest of the year.

But McKown was the only bright spot in one of the most disastrous of all Purple grid games as the Frogs lost 33-19 on a candlepowerless field in Lubbock.

Led by Bobby Cavazos and Junior Arterburn the Red Raiders made the Horned Frogs look like a bunch of tadpoles.

Late in the third quarter Tech held a 33-0 lead.

And it was then, and only then, facing the Red Raider second and third strings, that the Frogs were able to get any semblance of an offense going.

Jack Ray capped a 74-yard scoring drive with a 14-yard run to pay dirt.

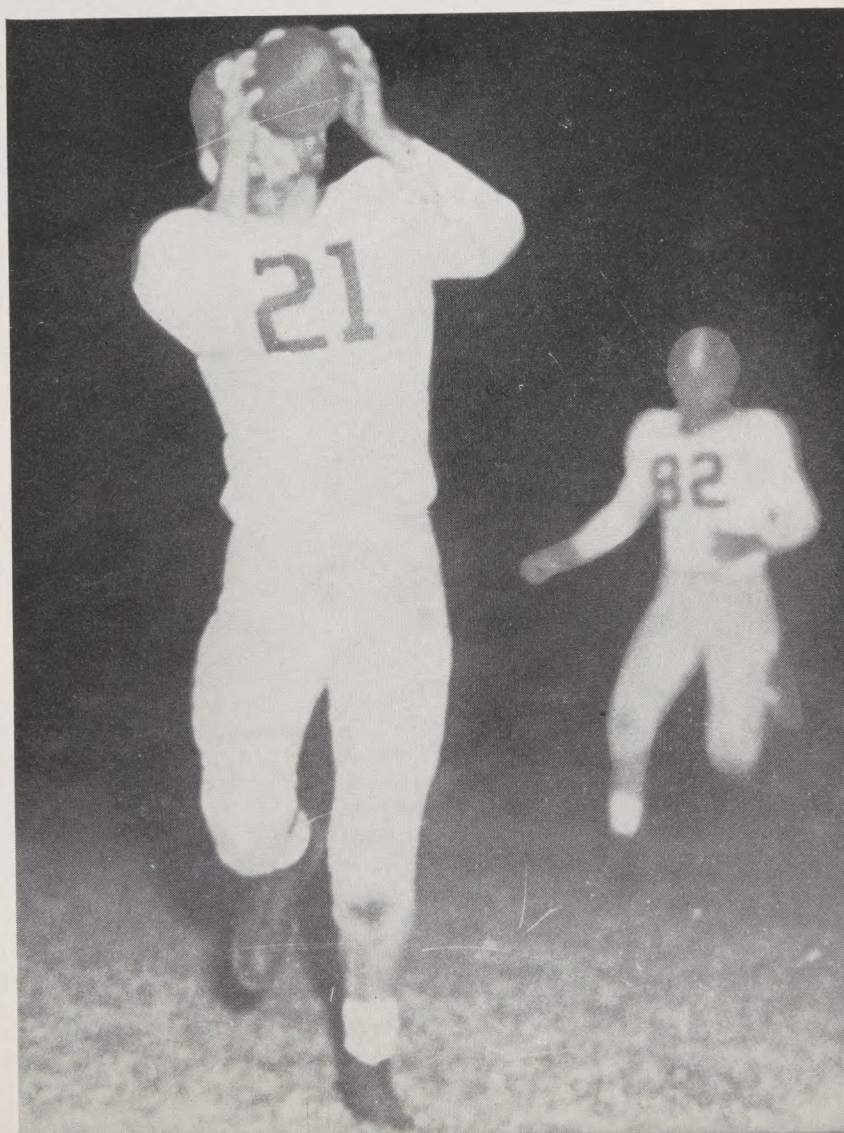

McKown whipped a seven-yard pass to Glenn "Bubba" Jones, after which Flowers made his only conversion of the evening.

Then came McKown's 24-yard scamper to end the scoring activity.

As it was he hit the Aggie line, got through and hit Billy Tidwell. The ball slithered out of Tidwell's hands and Roy Pitcock pounced on it for the Frogs on the Aggie 22.

And then the 185-pound lad from Dumas, McKown, proceeded to literally bull his way for 16 of the remaining 22 yards, finally fighting his way over from the one.

Flowers converted and the final score read, TCU 20-Texas A&M 14.

And so what may well have been the most exciting seven minutes in Texas Christian football history were over and Ray McKown, at least, would never forget them.

Unheralded Ray McKown headed wide to his left, cut back, squirmed his way through a bevy of Texas Aggie defenders and danced along the sidelines for 49 yards and a touchdown.

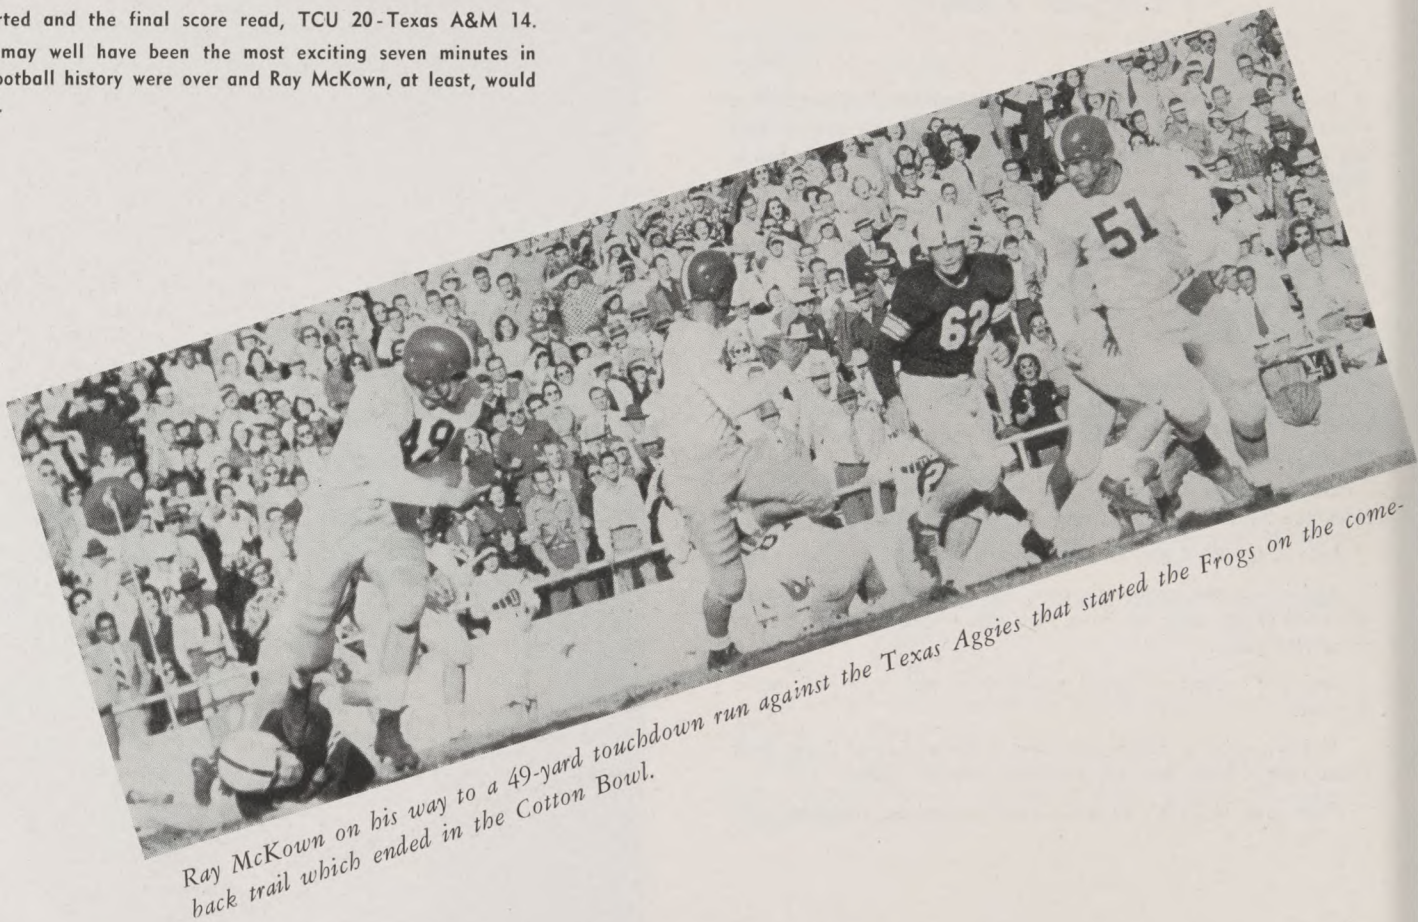

Keith Flowers kicked the extra point, but still the Frogs trailed A&M, 14-7, with but nine minutes to play.

Big Flowers approached the ball but just as he was about to kick off to the Aggies, McKown cut in front of him and sent a crazily spinning ball toward the sidelines.

Wayne Martin got to the free ball first and recovered it for TCU on the Aggie 30.

Six plays later John Harville took a handoff from McKown, ran wide to the left and went nine yards into the end zone. Flowers failed to convert.

On the second play after the kickoff to A&M, Flowers from his line-backer post was running before the ball was snapped.

Ray McKown

Carlton McCormack

University of Southern California

"A 19-year-old quarterback named Ray McKown, who might never have played but for injuries to a pair of veteran quarterbacks, sparked the Christians and gave one of the finest individual performances ever seen on any gridiron . . . he conducted a one-man vendetta the likes of which local fans haven't seen in years."

With these words Braven Dyer, sportswriter of the Los Angeles Times, described the valiant effort of TCU and Ray McKown, who bowed unashamedly to the Trojans of Southern California, 28-26.

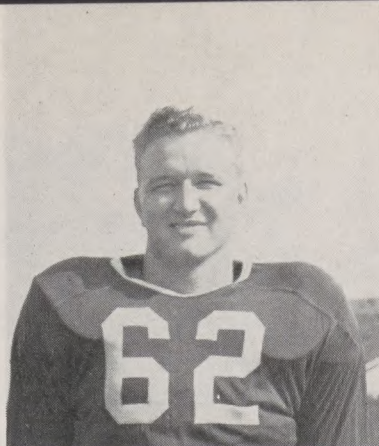

McKown set two Los Angeles Coliseum records as he passed for 252 yards and rolled up 340 yards total offense for the afternoon.

After the Frogs blew an early scoring opportunity on an end zone fumble, John Medanich capped an 82-yard drive by dashing the last 20 yards around left end untouched.

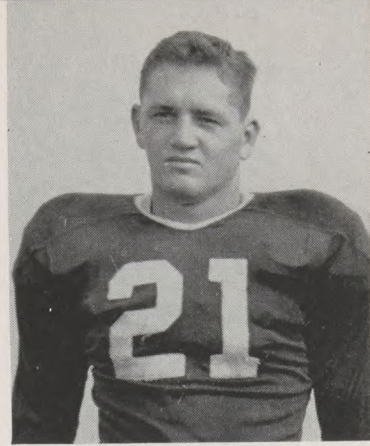

Keith Flowers kicked the first of two conversions to tie the score.

Doug Conaway set up the second TCU score by falling on a fumble on the Trojan 24.

Three plays later McKown had scored on a seven-yard dash.

Herbert Zimmerman

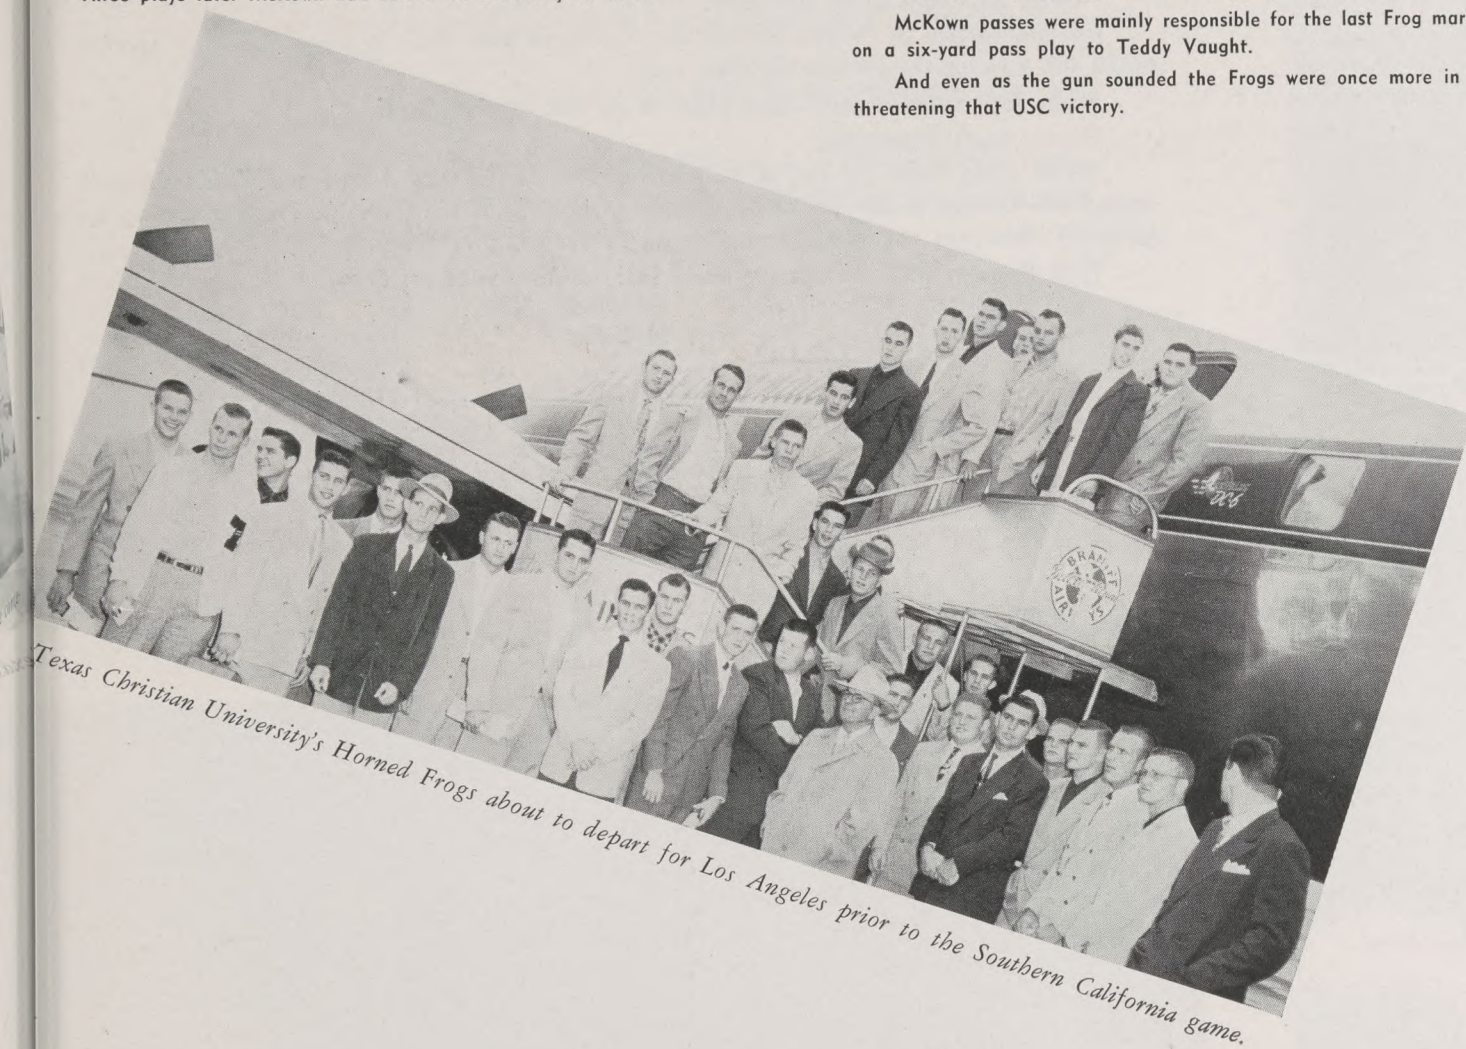

John Harville

USC came right back to go ahead, 14-13, as Pat Duff scored from the one. McKown from his own 27 lofted a pass to Bob Blair 50 yards away. Blair took the ball and completed a 73-yard scoring play.

USC scored twice more to make the score 28-20.

McKown passes were mainly responsible for the last Frog marker, which came on a six-yard pass play to Teddy Vaught.

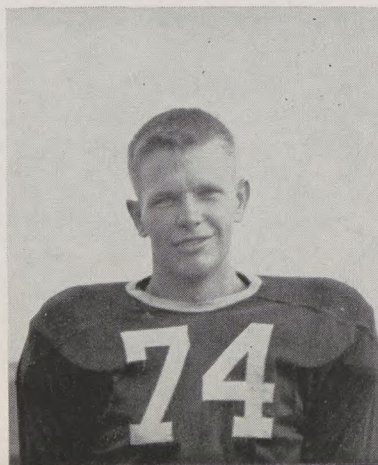

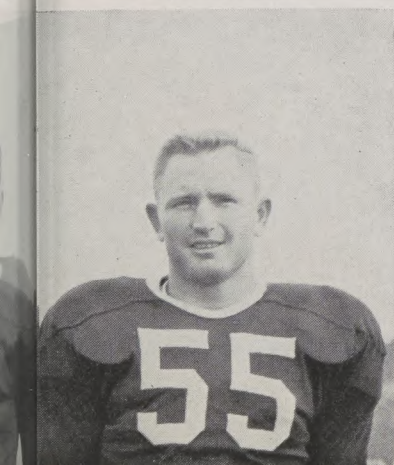

And even as the gun sounded the Frogs were once more in Trojan territory threatening that USC victory.

Texas Christian University's Horned Frogs about to depart for Los Angeles prior to the Southern California game.

Baylor

Their motto was "stop Baylor and Larry Isbell" and with Keith Flowers leading the way TCU gave Mr. All-American Isbell the most uncomfortable afternoon of his star-studded career.

Flowers gained a "lineman of the week" award for his inspired play which kept the Frogs undefeated in the conference with their 20-7 defeat of the Bears in Waco.

Although the defense, which intercepted five Isbell passes, overshadowed the offense, Ray McKown's Dumas star again shone brightly.

McKown ran, passed and punted better than Isbell, and pulled a fake to score the first Frog touchdown that would have done the Houston lad proud.

Baylor scored first on a nine-yard dash by Isbell, but the Frogs came right back and knotted the count.

With the Purple in possession on the Baylor 42, McKown went to the right, faked a hand-off, stuck the ball on his hip and picked up 22 yards.

After a penalty to the Bear 15, McKown pulled the same play to the left and went into the end zone standing up.

Flowers converted to tie the score.

An interception by Wayne Martin and a 19-yard pass play, McKown to Wilson George, paved the way for the second Christian score.

Bobby Jack Floyd needed three plays to go over from the five.

Flowers again converted.

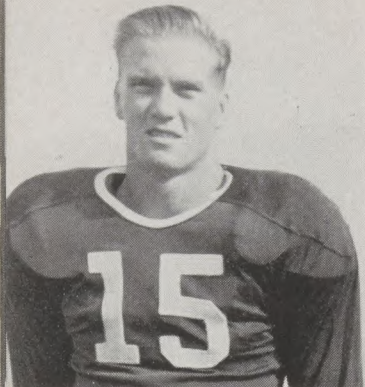

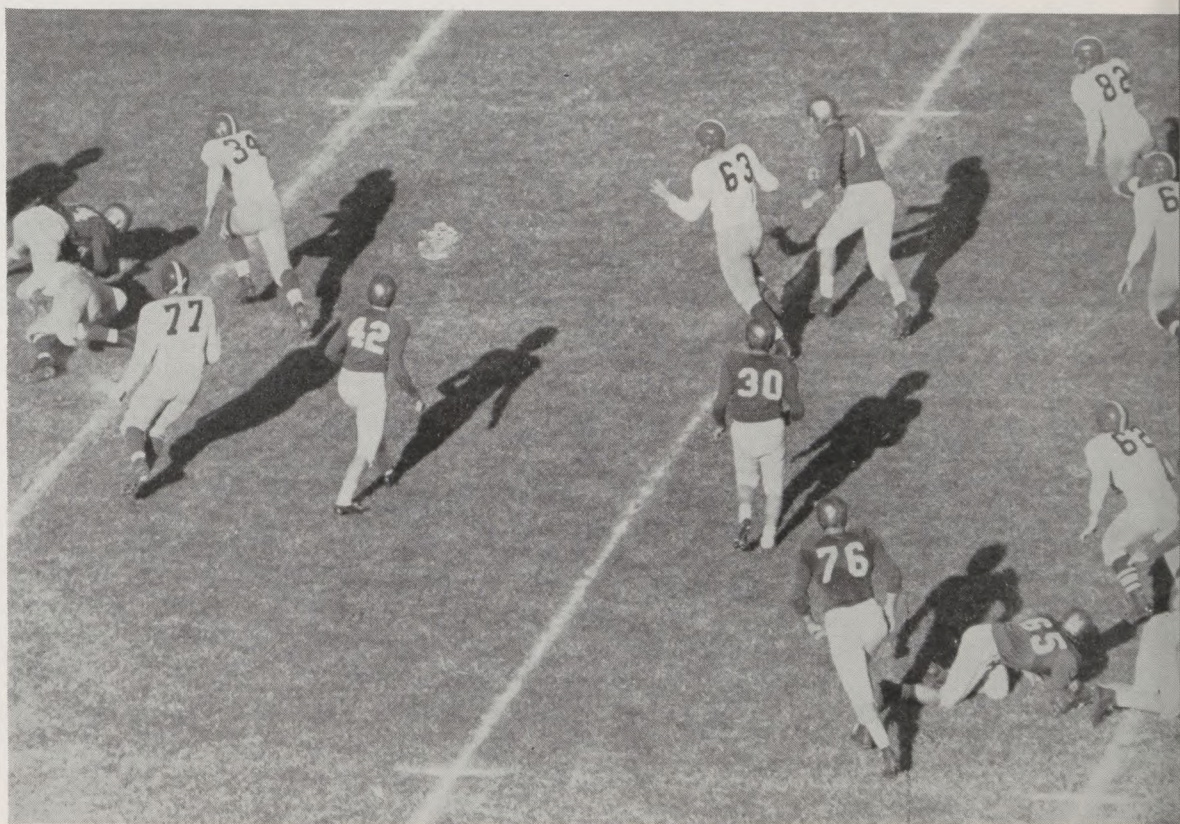

Baylor could never get out of its own territory in the second half and Teddy Vaught's second interception of the day and a penalty to the Baylor one gave the Frogs a scoring opportunity which was capitalized on by Malvin Fowler two plays later.

That Flowers failed to convert made little difference to the Frogs.

Dan Page, Texas quarterback, passed, and three Frog defenders batted the ball away from the intended receiver directly into the hands of Jimmy Pace who scored with ease.

Climaxing a 97-yard drive, Page fumbled and Harley Sewell raced across the goal line and recovered for a Longhorn touchdown.

Don Barton, after taking a pitchout from Page, fumbled the ball, picked it up, reversed his field and scored.

These three tricks of fate were helpful in explaining TCU's 32-21 loss to Texas in Austin.

The Purple's first score came when Mal Fowler climaxed an 80-yard drive with a four-yard jump pass to John Medanich.

Morgan Williams, who was singled out for his excellent defensive play, set up the second Frog touchdown when he recovered a Longhorn fumble on the Texas two.

From there Bobby Jack Flyd bulled his way over.

Late in the game with Texas leading 32-14, McKown's passes to Jack Ray, Teddy Vaught and Floyd sparked an 80-yard drive which saw Floyd carry over as the final gun sounded.

Keith Flowers, who played his usually fine game in the linebacker slot, converted after all three touchdowns.

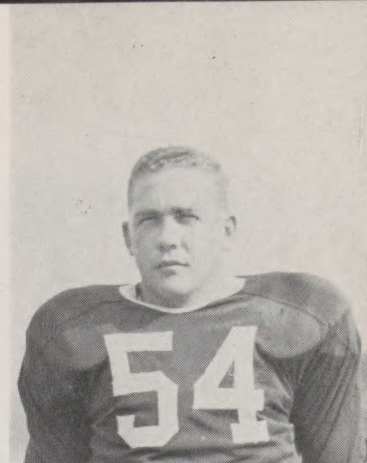

McKown, too, had another fine day completing 10 of 18 passes for 127 yards.

But it was the unheralded Longhorn pass attack which beat the Purple with seven completions in nine attempts.

Herbert Zimmerman gives evidence of why he was voted "lineman of the week," as he teams with Morgan Williams and Doug Conaway to smear Rice ball carrier.

Herbert Zimmerman blocked a kick and a pass, recovered fumbles, tackled viciously and was named Associated Press "lineman of the week" as TCU moved a step nearer the Southwest Conference title with an impressive 22-6 victory over the Rice Owls.

The penalty ridden game played in adverse weather brought together the two conference leaders.

Zimmerman got the Frogs off on the right foot by blocking an Owl kick on the TCU 42. Morgan Williams fell on the loose ball on the Rice 46.

Two plays later Ray McKown hit Bob Blair on the 15, and Texarkana Bob went over unmolested. The Frogs led 6-0.

A few plays later Rice fumbled and Zimmerman continued to make himself obnoxious by pouncing on the ball on the Owl 15.

McKown on the first play went over right tackle, cut back, and ran all the way. Keith Flowers converted.

After Rice's Dan Drake had passed for the only Owl score early in the third period, TCU's Hal Lambert blocked a punt which Drake covered in the end zone.

Zimmerman and Doug Conaway hit Drake to give the Purple a safety good for two more points.

Zimmerman deflected a Drake pass that was in turn intercepted by Flowers and returned to the Rice 20.

From there Floyd made four, John Harville bulled his way for 15 on the flicker play and Floyd smashed over from the one.

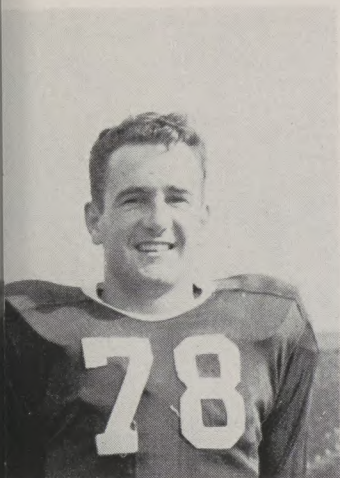

Flowers converted.

That ended the scoring, but the big story was the 23 penalties amounting to 247 yards assessed against both teams in one of the roughest games in Southwest Conference history.

With a homecoming crowd of 34,000 looking on, TCU won its first Southwest Conference Championship since 1944 and the right to meet Kentucky in the Cotton Bowl by beating SMU's hot and cold Mustangs, 13-2.

It was a great day for the defense which held in check the vaunted Mustang passing attack led by Fred Benners.

But most of all it was the "Bull from Paris," Bobby Jack Floyd and Ray McKown who jarred the Dallasites by turning in an afternoon of hard bruising running that has seldom been matched.

All in all the game was a comparatively dull one.

The biggest thrill came early in the second period when Marshall (Boogie) Robinson grabbed a punt on his own nine, cut sharply to his right and streaked up the west side line for 72 yards before he was finally stopped.

Flowers recovered an SMU fumble on the Mustang 27 to set up the first Frog score.

A 14-yard pass play, McKown to Floyd, was the big gainer in the series which saw Floyd go over from the one three plays later.

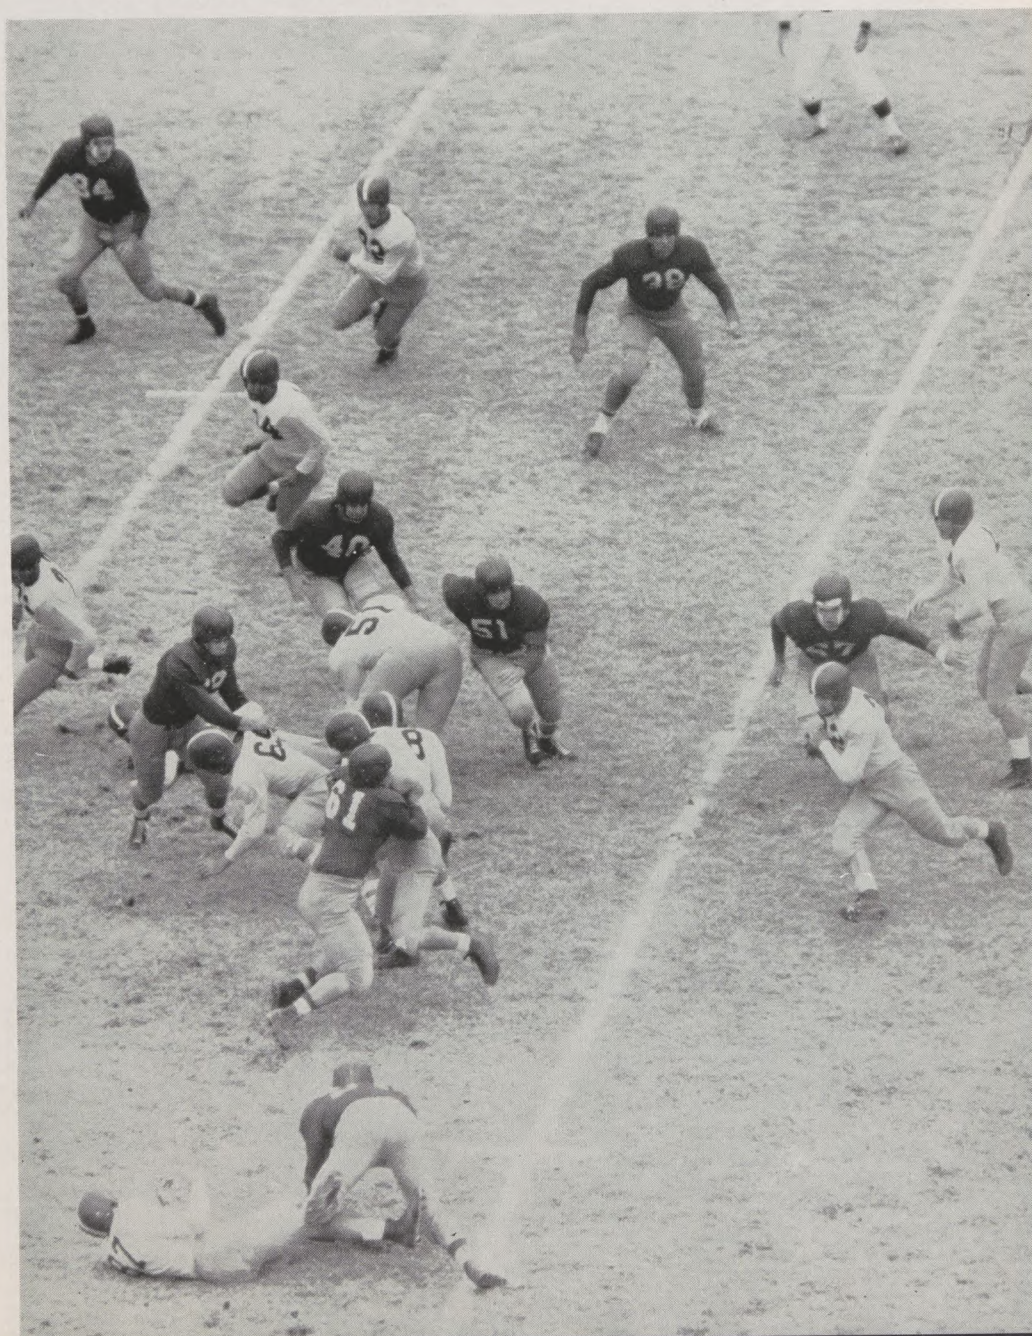

SMU scored its two points when McKown standing in his own end zone inadvertently stepped out of the end zone in attempting to punt and thereby awarded the Mustangs a safety.

Gilbert Bartosh started the Purple drive for its final touchdown.

Following another SMU fumble which Morgan Williams covered on the Mustang 40, Bartosh took the Frogs to the six where he re-injured his knee and was forced to leave the game.

Here McKown came back in and on the first play called SMU's famous flicker play which saw John Harville bull his way over for the final score. Flowers converted.

Bobby Jack Floyd fails to find a hole, but manages to bull his way to the SMU 7 early in the second quarter.

With the easy cat-like grace that characterized him George McLeod has tossed his last hook shot through the nets for TCU.

The shy boy from Houston, who had a hard time making his high school cage team, will be remembered as one of the greatest shots in Southwest Conference history.

McLeod in his final year accomplished the following:

Led the Southwest Conference scoring parade with 213 points in 12 games.

Led Southwest Conference scoring over regular season with 419 points in 24 games.

Became the first Frog player in history to score over 1,000 points in his entire collegiate career.

Named as unanimous all-conference choice.

Awarded all-American honorable mention.

And so it was with the Frog basketeers. As McLeod went, so went the Froggies.

John "Jug" Ethridge, who picked the sport seemingly most unsuited his 5 foot 8 inch frame and bettered his larger rivals, never knew the meaning of the word "loaf."

John never stopped hustling from the start of basketball season until the end. He was perpetual motion on a hardwood floor.

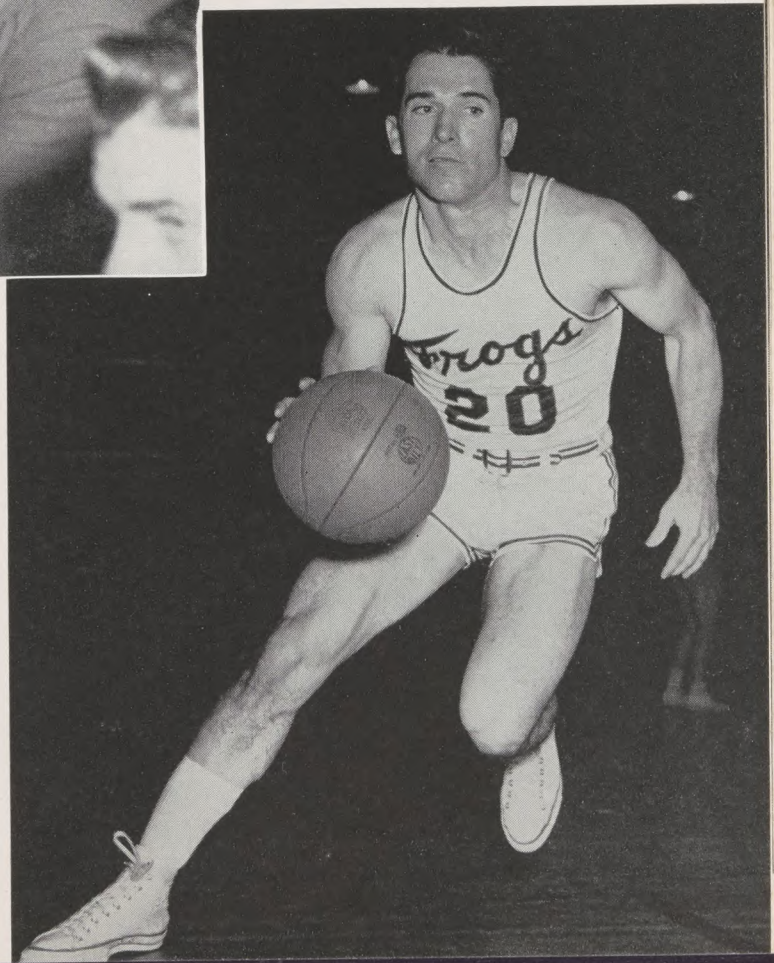

Never sensational until his senior year, John was chosen as the outstanding player of the Southwest Conference's first basketball tournament.

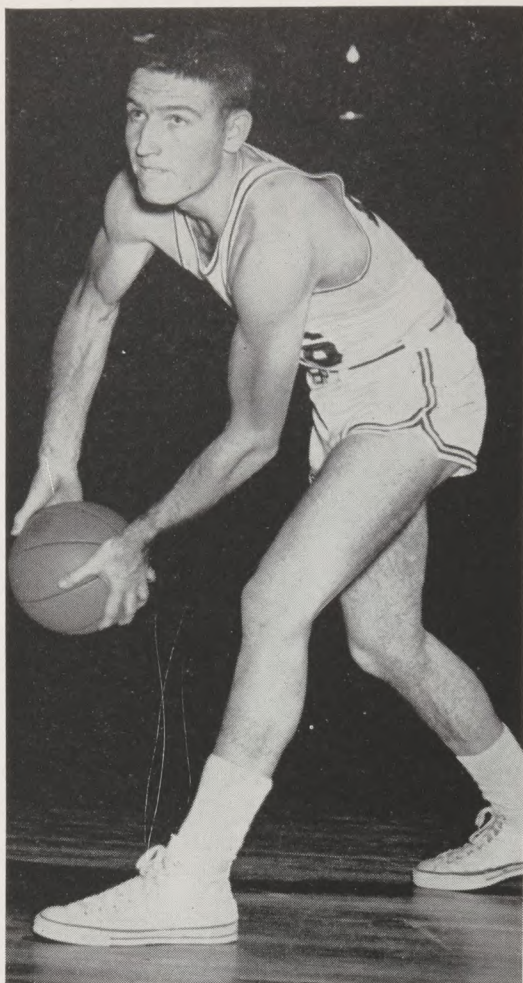

Ethridge finished in the eighth spot in conference scoring by posting 122 points.

In overall season play the Sundown kid finished in the top eleven.

John was also a unanimous all-conference choice and received all-American honorable mention.

The long and short of it for TCU in '52—McLeod and Ethridge.

CHAM

And so four years ago Byron "Buster" Brannon brought them to TCU.

George McLeod, a gangling youth from Houston.

Johnny Ethridge, a bundle of natural ability, apparently too small for the cage sport.

Ted Reynolds, whose arms could reach almost to his home in Aledo.

There were Harvey Fromme and James Knox.

Fromme who was to bring gasps of delight from fans with long unerring push shots, while Knox wasn't to find himself until late in his junior year, when he acquired the poise and confidence to aid considerably the Frog cause.

From Jean came Johnny Swaim, quick with hands and feet alike.

And there were Fort Worth's Tommy Taylor and Mount Vernon's John "Bud" Campbell, a couple of guards who probably could have started anywhere else in the Southwest Conference.

Add to this array of talent J. Bryan Kilpatrick, a high-jumping effortless guard out of Paschal High School by way of Kilgore Junior College and SMU.

Brannon, Dick Allen and J. Bryan Kilpatrick; standing, first row, Tommy Taylor, Ross Hoyt, Johnny Ethridge, Johnny Swaim, Johnny Campbell, Johnny Taylor and James Knox; rear, Assistant Coach Bruce Craig, Harvey Fromme and Henry Ohlen.

AMIONS

Then after two years of stardom at Paris Junior College Johnny Taylor was added to the now famous Brannon's Brats.

Lastly came an immigrant from Artesia, N. M., Dick Allen.

There were others too, newcomers like Henry Ohlen and Ross Hoyt, but the nucleus had already arrived.

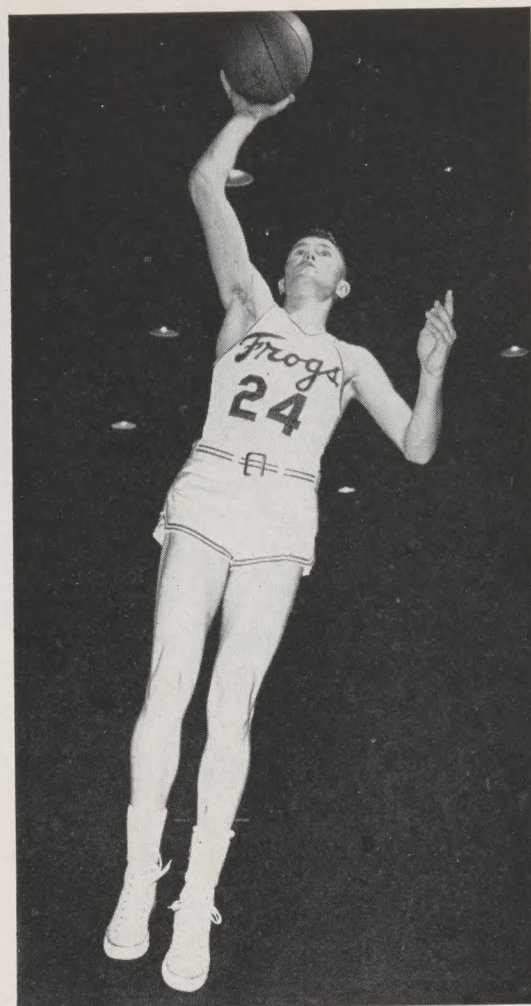

And so Brannon molded these players, developing individual talents and combining them into a deadly weapon to be utilized against opposing basketball teams.

For two years they finished atop the Southwest Conference heap and in the last of those seasons completely outdistanced all opposition.

Over the complete 1951-52 season the Horned Frogs captured 24 to 28 contests.

Their entire starting quintet was named to either a first or second team all-conference berth.

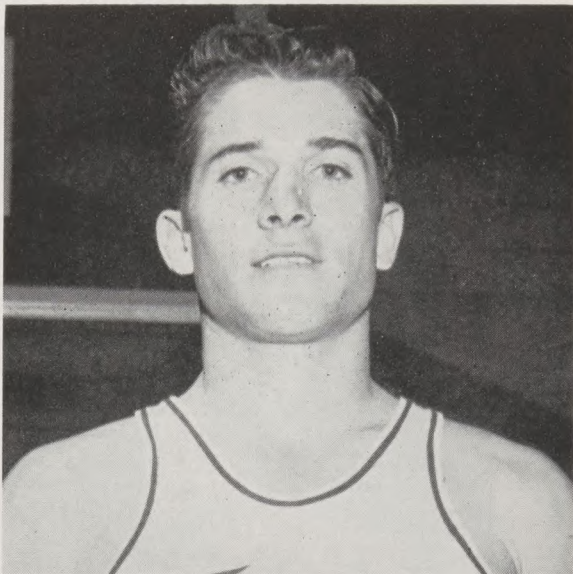

So it will be that the Horned Frog basketball team of the past season will be added to names like Ad Deitzel, "Doc" Sumner, "Buster" Brannon, "Hog Caller" Myers, and they'll be remembered as long as they bounce a basketball on Texas Christian hardwood.

As the Frogs had feared, All-American Clyde Lovellette snapped the nets 18 times for 31 points and the Purple was beaten 68-64 by the Kansas Jayhawks in the first round of the NCAA tourney in Kansas City.

Loss of George McLeod on fouls with seven seconds remaining in the first quarter may have cost the Christians a chance to defeat the eventual NCAA champions.

Still McLeod's successor Henry Ohlen got 20 points himself in the final three quarters and Big George would have had to go some to beat that.

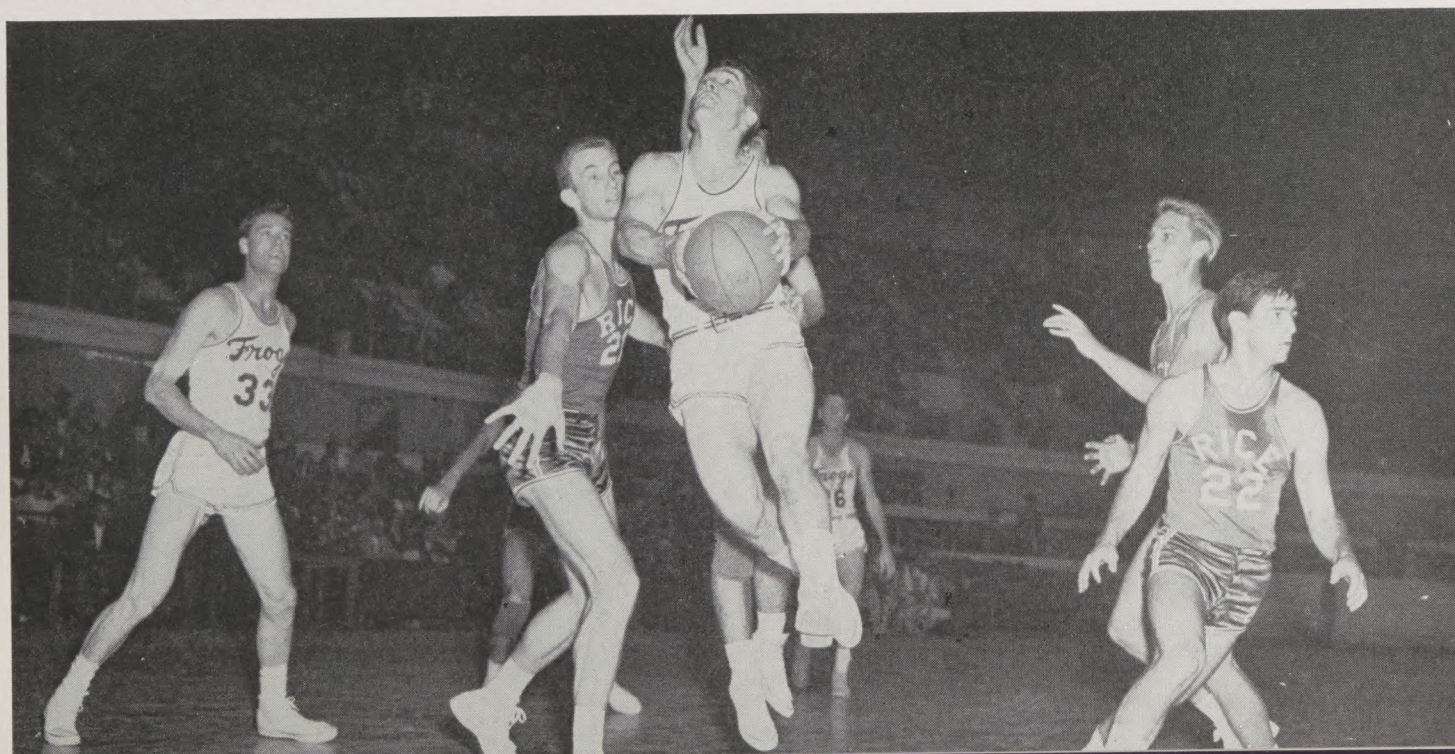

Ted Reynolds held the Frogs in the ball game after McLeod's loss. His sensational rebounding kept Lovellette from scoring many more.

TCU 68 Arkansas 56

Byron "Buster" Brannon realized a four-year dream when the Frogs led by George McLeod, who cannonaded the nets for 31 points, defeated Arkansas 68-56 to gain an undisputed Southwest Conference crown.

Along with cinching the conference title the Brannonmen qualified for a place in the NCAA regional tournament.

It also marked the first time in modern conference annals that a single school was able to capture both a football and basketball championship in the same year.

McLeod's 31 points established an all-time high for any TCU player in a single game. It also enabled Big George to clinch the conference scoring title.

The Purple started slowly, but gradually pulled away from the Razorbacks and held a 49-34 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Behind McLeod in the scoring were Ted Reynolds with 12 and Johnny Ethridge with 10.

TCU 65 Texas A&M 35

This was their finest hour.

The Horned Frogs of Texas Christian completely routed the Texas Aggies, 65-35, to win the first Southwest Conference pre-season Basketball Tournament in Dallas before 3,000 stunned spectators.

Rated as co-favorites with the Purple for the conference basketball crown, the Aggies were never in the ball game after Ted Reynolds hit two field goals in the opening minutes.

TCU built up a 16-6 first quarter lead and added to it in each of the final periods.

Great play by George McLeod and Johnny Ethridge featured the title tilt.

McLeod grabbed rebounds, initiated several successful fast breaks and managed to help himself to 27 points in the interim.

Ethridge was given the assignment of guarding Jewell McDowell, the Aggies all-conference, high-scoring guard. Sundown John allowed McDowell to connect on only two of 22 field goal attempts.

But it was in the free throw department that the Aggies really took a back seat to the Purple. The Frogs connected on 23 of 27 attempts.

McLeod, Brannan, Reynolds, Fromme, Ethridge and Kilpatrick hold a hand-clasping ceremony before beating the Arkansas Razorbacks to clinch the conference title.

TCU 58 Nebraska 57

James Knox came off the bench to hit three free throws and Dick Allen added an overtime field goal that allowed TCU to slip by Nebraska 58-57.

Knox netted a pair of tosses to send the game into an overtime period, and then put the clincher on it by sinking another charity toss in the extra quarter.

TCU 17 Oklahoma 3

With Don Carroll and Bill Doty each cracking a pair of homers, the Frogs snapped out of a five-game losing streak and swamped the defending NCAA baseball champions from the University of Oklahoma, 17-3.

Carroll, besides his two homers, swatted two doubles and a single, while batting in six runs.

Oklahoma used 20 players trying to stem the unending stream of Frog base runners.

The Christians scored in every inning but the fourth.

"Nobby" Graves, who twirled a sparkling four-hitter, was all but forgotten among the Christian bombardment.

TCU jumped into a 1-0 lead in the first inning on a Carroll homer, and kept adding to that total all afternoon.

TCU 7 Rice 2

Trailing 2 to 1 going into the top of the ninth inning, the Frogs suddenly came to life and rewarded the 9-hit pitching of Norris "Nobby" Graves with six runs and a 7-2 victory over the Rice Owls.

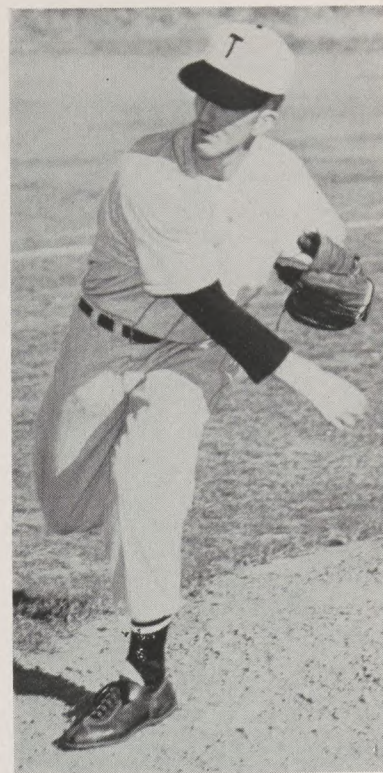

Bill Barnes got the rally under way with a looping single to center. Bill Frick drew a base on balls and Graves brought Barnes home with a single.

Frick scored on a squeeze bunt by Jimmy Stapleton, Johnny Ethridge was hit by a pitched ball and Don Carroll slapped a two-run single to left. Ethridge then came home on a fly ball by Bill Doty.

TCU 5 Missouri 0

Norris "Nobby" Graves whipped a live fast ball down the throats of the Missouri Tigers and allowed only two hits while shutting out the visitors 5-0.

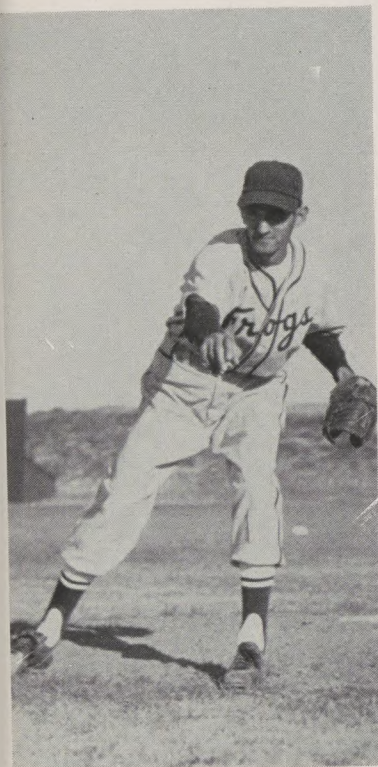

A five-run third inning, featured by Don Ford's bases-loaded triple, ended the scoring for the game.

Graves allowed one hit in both the first and third innings, but after that he was nearly invincible.

A POLE, WIRES and a TRANSFORMER— Symbols of Your Electric Service!

• To many folks, what you see illustrated here is the only part of Texas Electric Service Company's power system with which they are familiar. Actually, they are only three minor units of an extensive net-work of transmission and distribution lines and large steam-electric generating stations located at strategic points in West Texas.

Good electric service in Fort Worth didn't just happen. It is available because Fort Worth is an important part of the Texas Electric Service Company power system made up of hundreds of miles of high-voltage transmission lines, thousands of miles of distribution lines, tens-of-thousands of horsepower in steam-electric generating stations and nearly two thousand skilled men and women who make up the operating personnel of the Company.

So, when you think of your electric service, remember that the pole near your house, with its transformer and the wires leading from it, is only one small part of the power system of Texas Electric Service Company serving you day and night, every day in the year.
