

Burrell's
EST. 1888

PRESS CLIPPING
BUREAU
NEW YORK

N.Y.C. EDITOR & PUBLISHER
OCTOBER 24, 1936

NEWSPAPERMEN ARRIVE IN HONOLULU ON FLIGHT ACROSS PACIFIC

Newspapermen and other notables ready to hop for Manila. This photograph was taken at Honolulu just before the party flew on the Pan-American Airways plane Philippine Clipper to Midway, Wake, Guam and the Philippines. Left to right: Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney; Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, chairman of the board, Pan-American Airways; Senator William G. McAdoo of California; Mrs. McAdoo; E. O. McDonnell, director, Pan-American Airways; Paul Patterson, publisher, Baltimore Sun newspapers; Thomas Beck, president, Crowell Pub. Co. (rear); E. R. Swasey, American Weekly executive; Amon G. Carter, with ten-gallon hat, publisher, Fort Worth Star-Telegram; Roy W. Howard, editor, New York World-Telegram; James G. Stahlman, publisher, Nashville (Tenn.) Banner; Robert Lord, secretary to President Juan Trippe of Pan-American Airways. (Photo mailed via Hawaii Clipper which brought H. R. Ekins to U. S. from world trip.)