

TEXAS
PRESS CLIPPING BUREAU
DALLAS

Del Rio (Tex.) News-Herald

APR 25 1945

Believes Son Of Amon Carter Still Safe qd

LOS ANGELES, April 24 (AP).—Second Lt. William R. Swanson, 30, who escaped from a German prison camp, said tonight that Amon G. Carter Jr., son of the publisher of the Fort Worth, Tex., Star-Telegram, was still safe, although a prisoner, when Swanson last saw him about Jan. 30.

The Germans were attempting to move back inmates of Oflag 64, prison camp in the Polish Corridor, ahead of the advancing Russians, Swanson said.

"Two groups of about 100 each were taken out by train, and Amon may have been on one of them," he added, "but I think he was in the group that was marching. I understand they were taken to the Luckenwalde Camp about 20 miles south of Berlin."

Swanson said prison camp rations consisted of "potatoes, a little bread and soup" and that "Red Cross boxes were the saving factor" although he lost 30 pounds.

Second Lieutenant Carter, an artillery officer, was captured in Africa.