Senator Ben Connally,
U. S. Senate
Washington, D.C.

Following card dated February Seventh received this morning from Amos Junior QUOTE An Clay and in Stalag III A, Oflag Section. Am really tired and worn out but an all night (Several words blacked out) Saw Jones, Beasley, Batte, Henry and Wood on January 26th. They should be here soon. Poteet should be home now, Also Fabban. There are no Red Cross parcels here or anything in fact (WANT A LINE BLACKED OUT) But Don't send clothes, just food and plenty of it (Another line blacked out) I will be home soon. Captain Herring here with me. Address is Stalag III A, Oflag. Love to all UNQUOTE Jesse Jones and Please notify/Senator Herring PERIOD Is there no some way Red Cross can get aid to these boys? As you will note letter states not Red Cross parcels or anything in fact which means they have nothing to eat STOP Many of the boys had no overcoats when they were marched out of Oflag 64 at Schubin notwithstanding the weather was fifteen below zero.
