Dear Amon:

It was with deep satisfaction that I read in the paper that you and Amon, Jr., are finally together again. I know that these past years of the war have taken much out of you, but, my friend, you have taken it on the chin like a champ.

I sincerely hope that you and the Junior will have many happy years together as payment for the hours suffered by both of you.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely,

R. E. Wertz
