Mr. Billy Rose,
235 West 46th Street,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Billy: I have no nephews or relatives of any kind in New York. Never heard of Jimmie Lyles and it is amazing that a battle scarred veteran like you should fall for that kind of crap PERIOD I can't tell which is the worst hardship - to lose seventy five bucks or a good show girl. In this case you seem to have lost both of them PERIOD I understand that Walter Winchell or some columnist in New York had a story about my nephew's marriage to one of your show girls. Would appreciate your telling Walter if it was in his column that the story is a fake PERIOD Incidentally, there has been some boy by the name of Carter from San Antonio impersonating Amon Junior. I have enough troubles of my own without being saddled with further fictitious responsibilities. Affectionate regards.

Amon Carter
