RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES BOOM AT T. C. U.

REVIVAL BEGINS NEXT SUNDAY. REV. ERNEST C. MOBLEY IS THE EVANGELIST

Following up last week's membership campaign, the University church will hold revival services beginning Sunday October 12th. and extending throughout the following week. Rev. Ernest C. Mobley, pastor of the First Christian Church at Gainsville, Texas, will do the preaching. Brother Mobley was born in the good old red hilled state of Georgia and graduated from the University of Kentucky. He also took the course of Law offered by the University of Georgia at Athens. After this he did post-graduate work at Hartley University, in Southampton, England. He has had much experience in evangelistic work, having held meetings in England, Canada, Georgia, and other Southern States. Besides this he was for two years Editor of the religious page of the Atlanta Constitution, has done special Magazine Supplement work for the Dallas News, and has held pastorates in the following places: Rome Ga., Southampton, England, Winnipeg, Canada, Gainsville, Texas. We feel that Brother Mobley will be a man of power among us, and it is the earnest hope of the Skiff staff that it may be so.

Texas Christian University is nobly carrying out the promise of its name this year. The religious leaders started work the first week of school, and at the line-up service held two weeks after the opening seventy eight persons placed their membership in the University church. The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Sunday School and Church officers have united in planning a vigorous campaign for all that is good and holy. A religious census was taken last week and definite work is to be done in trying to bring every student who is not already saved to own his allegiance to his Christ.

Some of the newer students missed the Christian Endeavor meetings which they had been accustomed to attend at home, and on last Sunday morning a live, wideawake C. E. Society was organized. In the Sunday school special classes have been organized to meet the needs of all, and the school is systematically teaching courses of Bible study, problems of social conditions, and other religious topics of interest.

THE CHOIR

Professor and Mrs. Cahoon are drilling a large choir and Sunday School orchestra, and T. C. U. church can proudly say that it now has the best music of any church in Fort Worth. Our Pastor, Bro. Hall, is busy planning and working all the time; and it is the unanimous opinion of all who have expressed themselves that a more consecrated and earnest group of young men and women than our religious leaders could not be found.

GENERAL UNIVERSITY ATMOSPHERE

But not alone in the church organizations themselves is the improvement to be noted. An uplifting, inspiring, and

GRADUATE MAGAZINE TO BE PUBLISHED.

Editor and Business Manager Chosen by Dallas Chapter. Officers Elected

By NELL ANDREWS

One of the biggest things that has happened to T. C. U. in years is the "lining-up" of the Alumni of T. C. U. living in Dallas. Why Dallas? Because they have over there the liveliest bunch ever graduated from this institution. We will not say there could not be other such groups, there could be if they would get busy at once and get "in line" with the leaders. Last week this Alumni met in Dallas and formed a permanent organization calling themselves "The Dallas Chapter of the Alumni Association of T. C. U." A Constitution and By-laws was adopted. The purpose of the chapter is to supervise the publication of a Magazine devoted to the Alumni of the University. The roll of the chapter includes some of the most prominent graduates of the University. They have enrolled almost thirty in the beginning. The following officers were elected. President, Dan D. Rogers; Vice-President, Mrs. J. J. Hart; Secretary, J. B. Frizell; Treasurer, Loy. C. Wright.

Dan D. Rogers, the President of the General Alumni Association will be editor-in-chief of the "Graduate Magazine" with Grover W. Stewart as Business Manager. The first issue will be out about the tenth of October and will appear each month during the school year. It will be a sixteen page pocket edition and will contain no advertising matter.

This will be the first "Graduate Magazine" in the history of T. C. U. and we make in advance our bow to the Dallas Chapter. All the prominent Universities of the United States have hundreds of "Local Alumni Chapters" which are at all times a stimulus to the General Association. This is the first for T. C. U. but may it not be the last. What about the Fort Worth bunch? We will be glad to furnish a list of Fort Worthites if you desire to form a Fort Worth Chapter. Also Waco, South and West Texas! We hope to be able soon to furnish a complete list with the addresses of the Dallas Chapter. Watch for it. Long live the first local alumni association and Graduates Magazine!

FREEMAN---FOOTBALL CAPTAIN.

Allen Freeman last Friday was unanimously elected captain of this year's football team. Freeman is an old man on the gridiron, having played two years with our team prior to this year, and is fully competent as its pilot. He is a Senior and stands high in the estimation of both students and faculty. A winning team is expected under his leadership.

Gordon McFarland orders the Skiff sent to himself at 1004 Avenue D, Galveston, Texas. Gordon is a Freshman in the State University Medical School this year.

PROF. COCKRELL IS HONORED.

Prof. Egbert R. Cockrell was signally honored by the Fort Worth and Dallas bankers when these Chapters of the American Bankers' Institute invited him to lecture to them once every week. Beginning this week and running till June, Prof. Cockrell will address the bankers one week in Fort Worth and the other in Dallas. This is quite a compliment to Prof. Cockrell's knowledge of currency and banking.

Prof. E. R. Cockrell.

Prof. Cockrell is doing many other things. He is teaching the "Challenge of the City" to a Sunday School class which he will take to the slums and other districts of the city every Sunday and investigate conditions as they are.

The Fort Worth Welfare League has appointed Prof. Cockrell as chairman of one of its principal committees. E. R. Bentley, a student in the University, is also on this committee. These things help to draw T. C. U. closer to the city.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT'S NEW LIBRARY.

The Medical Department desires to call attention to its new Library and Reading Room. This new and necessary feature has just been installed, the books being the kind gifts of several of our doctors and the State Medical Association together with the contents of the old library and all of the standard medical, pharmaceutical and other scientific journals and magazines.

We have a large, spacious room, nicely carpeted and furnished with new tables and chairs and many book cases and cabinets, on whose shelves may be found a profusion of modern works on all scientific subjects in any way related to medicine, pharmacy and many other sciences.

In short, we have a thoroughly up-to-date scientific library of which we are very proud and which is always open to and will be of interest and benefit to all T. C. U. students who care to avail themselves of an exceptional opportunity.

Beside the instructive feature, excellent references may be found which will be a great help in those terrible things for which a college student has to rack his brain and strain his resources for material.

The library is presided over by Miss Kate Coughlin, who is an accomplished librarian and who says she will be more than pleased to meet all of our girls and render any assistance in her power to all T. C. U. students.

The library is open from 9 to 12 a. m. and 1 to 5 p. m. G. W. DAY.

T. C. U. OUTPLAYS WEATHERFORD

Freeman, McCowan and Parker Star in Game.

The first game of the season was played by our boys and Weatherford High School, Monday, at Weatherford. Despite the warm weather and the short period of training, our boys played a brilliant game and showed the old-time spirit of aggressiveness.

Although unable to score against Weatherford, our boys outplayed them in every stage of the game. With the exception of the first quarter, the game was played on Weatherford's territory, placing them on the defensive almost entirely. Our line was impregnable and at no time did the High School make first down. McNamara played a stellar game at end, intercepting every attempted forward pass made by Weatherford, besides a number of good tackles.

Parker played a great game at full-back, never failing to make gains when called upon, yet it was his tackling that featured him. He was found blocking almost every play attempted by Weatherford and many times downed them for a loss. Freeman and McCowan each came near getting away for touchdowns, but were downed after making good gains. Clarke, Bivins and Freeman each received a forward pass for good gains but withal our boys failed to pass Weatherford's four-yard line, at which place they were when time was called.

Coach Cahoon is pleased with the showing our boys made and believes they will play an excellent game before the season is over.

The line-up:

T. C. U.	Position.	Morgan
McNamara	left end	W'rd H
Bivins	left tackle	Crowder
Reeder	center	Edwards
Hefner	right guard	Reynolds
Freeman	right tackle	Kuhn
Clarke	right end	Harris
Griffin		Ator
McCowan	quarterback	Hart

T. C. U. GIRLS WIN FROM POLY HIGH.

Visitors Showed More "Scrap," While T. C. U. Played a Steadier, Surer Game.

The basket ball season at T. C. U. opened Monday afternoon when the girls' team got away with the big end of a 14-16 score from Polytechnic High School.

On account of bad weather the past month the T. C. U. team had not touched a ball since last year until Monday. But in spite of this fact the whole aggregation did wonderful playing except in the first quarter, when it looked as if Poly had a walk-over. The entire part of the first ten minutes was played under their goal.

At the beginning of second quarter Harriett Smith and Venice Luce replaced Tot Estes and Alice Boyd at guard. In the second ten minutes of play T. C. U. went ahead with a wide lead, holding the visitors on the defensive, for the most part, during the last three quarters. Only once did Poly come dangerously near their opponents—just before the whistle blew in the fourth, when they threw two field goals in rapid succession and recovered the ball right under their goal when time was up.

The T. C. U. girls had the advantage of weight and clear-headed playing, but the visitors made up for their size in pugnacity, outclassing the locals in this quality by a wide margin. Jumping center for Poly deserves credit for playing her position better than any of her teammates. She was always ready, and seldom failed to put the ball in the hands of her own players on the toss-up. For T. C. U. Minnie Proctor easily played the best game of the afternoon. Out of fourteen trials at goal she made ten successful throws, five of which were from field.

Charlie Koch, for four years a forward on the star team of Van Alstyne High School, showed much speed and cleverness in handling the ball. Although she has not touched a ball since last year, she threw several difficult field goals, and played the game all the time. She will be one of the most valuable players on the team.

Venice Luce and Harriett Smith worked together like machinery. They

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF THE SKIFF

What about the Skiff? We are anxious to know what you are thinking of it. Very few of you have expressed your opinions one way or the other. We are fully aware that it is not perfect but it represents an honest effort to reflect the sentiments of the Student Body. If the Skiff pleases you let us know it. You know what they say about "flowers for the living". If you are not pleased come and suggest where in it can be improved. Maybe you are the very person we need to complete our staff. Boost for the Skiff and help build a greater T. C. U.

Did you know that 16 Texas wives murdered their husbands during the past twelve months? That is not the whole story. Fifteen of the sixteen have been acquitted and the remaining one has not been indicted. It is up to some one to say what is wrong with the Texas wives or (husbands). Then it will be next in order to inquire why the juries let them go free. It would be well for Texas to take a lesson from Oklahoma.

Let us have some cement walks between Main Building and Clark and Goode Halls.

CHAPEL EXERCISES

Have you noticed the marked improvement in Chapel? Several things are operating to make this so. First and foremost, the orchestra is the institution which we have long needed. It is a real pleasure to listen to the music this year. The second great improvement has been brought about by the exit march. Students file out in perfect order and in one half the time which the old jamming system took. These are favorable conditions and much should be made of them. In other words we mean that the other part of the chapel program should be made to keep pace with these already mentioned. It is genuinely refreshing to have the leader to give such a lesson as did Dr. Clinton Lockhart one day last week. His reading and application was unique. It was something we do not hear every day. Dr. Lockhart appreciates the difficulty of interesting those whom he meets almost every day in the class room and always makes careful preparation for his Chapel talk. The students appreciate this consideration.

INTER-CLASS GAMES

The Skiff wants to see the different classes get their men together and challenge other classes for football games. Nothing will give us more class spirit and loyalty. Then why should the girls not organize class basket ball teams and give us some sure enough athletics. There is not a more wholesome and altogether delightful game than Basket ball. Athletics in T. C. U. is not dead. Which class will be first to make a move?

The day that the Ringling show was here the press agent visited the city hall, where he obtained an interview with Mayor Milam. "How many complimentary tickets?" he asked. "Not a complimentary ticket," remarked the chief executive of the city. "Why, this is out of the ordinary," said the astounded press agent, "we always compliment mayors and city officers." "If you wish to compliment me, well and good," said the urbane Milam, "When the show opens I will be at the main entrance. There will be a bunch of ragged little chaps there who are crazy to see the show. If you will grant them free admission I know they will enjoy it." "I am on," was the hearty reply. "I will go to the show grounds with you, you point out the lads and the circus is theirs." He was as good as his word and fifty waifs of the street, newsboys and bootblacks, poor little chaps who did not have the price, were the guests of the Ringlings and Mayor Milam and were the best critics under the big tent. There are missionaries here at home. There are men who do not forget the lad in the street who is there through no fault of his own.

—Ft. Worth Record.

We voted for Mayor Milam and are glad of it. This is just one of many things that he has done which shows the deep human sympathy possessed by our fair city's chief executive. Mayor Milam will do to tie to.

What did you think of the basketball game with Poly High School last Monday? Our girls did excellent work considering that they had never been on the field before this season. There are several of the old stars back, and some excellent new players took part in the game, in other words, we are going to have a number one team one of which T. C. U. will be proud. An enthusiastic crowd of students witnessed the game. They have the proper spirit. Keep it up.

RULES FOR HANDING IN CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE SKIFF.

1. Write on one side of the paper only. Don't tempt the printer to harsh words by becoming too economical.
2. Write in English. There are no interpreters on the staff.
3. Write plainly. If you can't do that, print it.
4. Be brief. We don't want novels or continued stories.
5. Say something interesting. Our readers will appreciate the change.
6. Hand in that bit of news today, not next week. This is no Ancient History.
7. Don't use the editorial style. As long as we must walk the plank for what appears in the editorial column we will write it ourselves.
8. Don't be afraid to contribute. We will use anything when short on news.—Blind Bill.

C. H. WOOD AND CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

C. H. Wood of Ladonia, was the first to subscribe $500 for Clark Hall when the present campaign for funds was begun. Not long since he pledged $250, or a dollar per member, for his church, which pledge is being redeemed by the church. And he is always found in his place in the work and worship of the church.

College Press

In an article conspicuously arranged on the front page of the Skiff of September 25, Texas Christian University states her principles and determination to rise from the rebuke caused by her mistakes in the past. The article follows:

T. C. U. IS BOUND TO EXCEL

Those were significant words uttered by Dean Parks at the Athletic mass meeting on September 20. "Texas Christian University is not BOUND TO WIN," he said; "she is BOUND TO EXCEL." These words ring true. No statement could more clearly and forcibly express the present attitude towards athletics and other activities of the Faculty and Student Body of Texas Christian University. If in the past T. C. U.'s banner has been besmirched, it is now spotless. Never again shall it be tarnished.

"There must be UNION," said the Dean.

AND THERE IS UNION.

In the words of Director Patrick Henry, "The Faculty and Student Body of Texas Christian University are determined that, whatever happens they will stand foursquare and above-board for all that is clean, for all that is right, and all that is honorable." They have taken for their motto, not "BOUND TO WIN," but "MORE AMBITIOUS TO EXCEL THAN TO SHINE."

This is a noble sentiment, and we congratulate T. C. U. on her ideals, and express the hope that we may some day meet our old time rivals for athletic honors again.

The enthusiasm which the faculty and students have shown in such quantities and under such adverse conditions is having results."—Baylor Lariat.

We appreciate the Lariat's kind words. It is encouraging to know that Baylor also endorses the sentiment expressed in the above editorial.

After the formal program of the Philos was completed several new men and visitors were called upon for "speech" among those who responded John L. Lattimore and J. M. Pickett attracted special attention. Mr. Pickett is another Wayland man and Mr. Lattimore is a graduate of Decatur.—Baylor Lariat.

John is also of T. C. U. When Baylor knows him as we do they will never cease to wonder at what the Gods hath done.

College Press notes with a bit of pride that the Battalion editor has learned his lesson well. In the issue of the Battalion of Sept. 26 he sees an editorial under the caption "Foreword." But why is College Press "puffed up." Because he thinks he sees the hand of his superior officer in that editorial. It pays to read the Skiff.

College Press congratulates the manager and editor of the Daily Texan. They are making their new undertaking "go with a vim." C. P. was in State U. long enough to become attached to the Texan, and to learn that State boys usually make things "go."

"The Skiff, a weekly paper published at Texas Christian University by the students thereof, has resumed publication with the opening of the present term, and its pages are filled with live matter relating to University affairs and other matter that is interesting and instructive. The Skiff is well patronized by Fort Worth merchants and it has an appearance of prosperity. Edwin R. Bentley is editor and R. C. Bevan is business manager. The editorial staff is composed of thirteen students of the University." Paste and Pencil.—Fort Worth Record.

The Skiff is a student's paper, they love it and patronize those merchants that enable it to have an appearance of prosperity. It pays to advertise in the Skiff.

In bold type on the front page of the Drake Daily Delphic appears the following article:

To the men of Drake "the Varsity football team is facing a crisis. The squad contains but sixteen eligible men of these but three weigh over 170 pounds. If all the men now out become eligible, there will not be more than two full teams in the field. The game last Saturday was played with four subs. There is not a substitute lineman on the squad."

It seems that Drake's football team is in dire straits. From the Delphic one would get the idea that petty factions between the preachers and lawyers are partly responsible for this situation. Drake men should be bigger than factions.

Edited by Nell Andrew

Correction: Through some mistake the name of E. E. Clanton has for several years been dropped from the class of 1892. This summer at Comanche, Mr. Thornton, a druggist and friend of Mr. Clanton's, called my attention to the error. At the Opening it was again brought to my attention by one of his classmates, Mrs. Carson. We deeply regret this, and in the future it will again appear in its proper place

Correction: We understood Mrs. McGill's initials to be H. B. but are glad to correct this and report that that they are A. B. (Clara Moses, '11.)

In the class of 1882 the name should appear L. W. Adams and not "Mc-Adams" as printed on the list.

Did you know that there were no graduates in 1879?

It is reported that Mrs. W. W. Wood of Sherwood (Mrs. Gineva B. Carson, '92) has not had her name spelled correctly on the "Alumni List" in years, and while we are sure this was through an error of the printers we take pleasure in making the necessary correction.

This department is being conducted with the sole purpose of serving the Alumni and old students. Are we doing it? Not if editor Bently's mailing list speaks the truth. Get busy and send in your dollar and address for the "Live-Wire"—The Skiff. Advertise this fact to your classmates. We have sent you each a sample copy of "The Skiff". The expense is too great to repeat this often, as much as we would like to, so make good, your part, Alumni and Old Students.

CRADLE ROLL HAS REMARKABLE MEMBERS

At Sunday School last Sunday morning the Cradle Roll Class was called on for a special feature. Four bright youngsters responded. Master Vardaman Cockrell, who is only 18 months old, repeated a verse of scripture. Then little Veda May Hall and Helen Cahoon, both age 3, quoted passages from the Bible. Master Higgins, age 4 years, then named in order the books of both the Old and the New Testament without a moment's hesitation.

SOME BIG CONVENTION GUNS AND CLARK HALL.

Most of our ministers have lent me all possible aid in securing funds for Clark Hall; and the fellowship with them in this service has been so sweet and beautiful to me personally. And I appreciate every courtesy shown me, as well as all aid rendered in the work, but when a number of preachers did not respond, either with their means or by aiding me in canvassing their congregations for funds, I feared that the fault was with me.

HEADS OF T. C. U.'S COLLEGE SOCIETIES.

Miss Martin.

Miss Baldwin.

Miss Elsie Martin is president of the Walton Literary Society and Fannie Jack Baldwin president of the Clark Literary Society. These are the only two college societies for women in T. C. U.

The work done by these societies is essentially literary, but many other questions which women will be forced to meet in after life are studied and discussed.

Oct. 13 has been set as the day on which new girls will be admitted to membership.

No girl in T. C. U. can afford to go on without joining one of them.

The Frank North Company will play "His Last Dollar" next week. Mr. Moody and Miss Robinson playing the leading role.

Alias Jimmy Valentine has enjoyed a successful run this week.

So when we thought of soliciting special subscriptions from the preachers, I asked Brother Colby D. Hall, a true and tried man of God, whom everybody knows well and favorably, to do this. For this purpose he is promoting, with success, the $5000.00 Preachers' Club. But it grieves me to say that so many of our big gun preachers, who are so prominent at conventions, and who appear to believe that the common herd of preachers should kiss their popish toes, or be excommunicated, will not respond to this call for assistance in the most important enterprise now before the Disciples of the Southwest. It is sad to me to relate that our cause in Texas has suffered much from some of its self-constituted leaders, and the brethren will hail the day when more leaders may be found who think less of self and more of Christ and his cause. One of our big convention guns formerly had the largest church in his city, but he not only failed to lead his flock to give generously to the different branches of the church work outside of the congregation, but it is said that he even opposed the presentation of these interests by their representatives. Just across the street from his church was one of another faith and order, whose pastor lead his people into the larger work of the church, such as missions, benevolence, church extension, Christian education, etc. And this latter church has gone forward by leaps and bounds, until it has far outstripped every other church in that city along almost all lines. Last year, in addition to large sums for all other causes, it gave for Christian education alone $18,417.07, which is probably more than our church above-mentioned has contributed for this cause in all its history. Here is a concret illustration of how, with a membership of the best people, a great church was spiritually starved for lack of leadership, while another right by it, even under less favorable circumstances to begin with, has taken first place in that city.

The preacher is the pivotal man in the matter of Christian education, as much as in missions or any other department of the church work; and Texas Christian University must depend upon them, largely, for its success. Tell me what our ministers will or will not do for T. C. U. in the coming years, and I will tell you of its success or failure accordingly. From the moment I entered this work, I have been open to suggestions from the ministry, and have plead for preachers on the Board of Trustees and am pleased to say that half of the Advisory Board is now made up of ministers, from whom we expect much valuable assistance.

I expect the great body of our ministers to do the handsome thing for Clark Hall and T. C. U.

W. M. WILLIAMS.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES BOOM AT T. C. U.

enabling atmosphere permeates every part of the campus and buildings and shows forth in every line of student activity. The boy's dormitories are inhabited by gentlemen and for the most part Christian gentlemen. The athletic field is a field of honor and fair play and our teams are such that we are all proud of them. And at least one of our literary societies open its exercises with prayer at every regular meeting. In short the purpose for which T. C. U. was established is being realized to the fullest extent; namely the producing of educated, Christian, boys and girls.

THE FRESHIES FINISH ELECTING OFFICERS

At a late meeting of the Freshman class Miss Fay King was elected Secretary and Miss Corson, Treasurer. Committees were appointed to select a class professor, colors, flowers, etc.

The chief feature of the meeting was a long and weighty discussion as to whether a girl or a boy should be elected to the office of treasurer. The girl faction won.

Miss Sue Webb orders the Skiff sent to her at Mart, Texas, Route No. 3.

LIBRARY NOTES.

So rapid have been the changes in the periodical publishing world within the last few months that it is with difficulty that we keep our records up-to-date. The Hearer's Weekly has been sold and on August 16th Mr. Norman Haggood took charge of this magazine. Mr. Haggood's reputation as an editor is firmly established, with the new change in size and color, with Mr. Haggood's strong editorials and with the new features introduced we have no reason to doubt that this will become one of our best periodicals.

"Current Literature" is now known as "Current Opinion."

Mr. George Harvey is now writing the editorials for "North American Review."

Robert Underwood Johnson has retired from the editorial staff of "The Century" and Mr. Robert Sterling Yard has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

Another editorial change transfers Mr. William B. Howland for over twenty years with "The Outlook", to the editorial force of "The Independent", of which he becomes managing director. Beginning with this week's issue "The Independent" also changes size.

The Hearst people have taken "The World To-Day" and "Harper's Bazar" and made them into one. It is now "Hearst's Magazine" and like the others, shows a remarkable improvement.

Mr. H. M. Durrett, a member of the Board of Trustees and a warm friend of T. C. U. sent out a stack of "Popular Mechanics", "Technical Worlds" and "Physical Culture" which we are very glad to have added to our magazine section.

JIM REEVES.

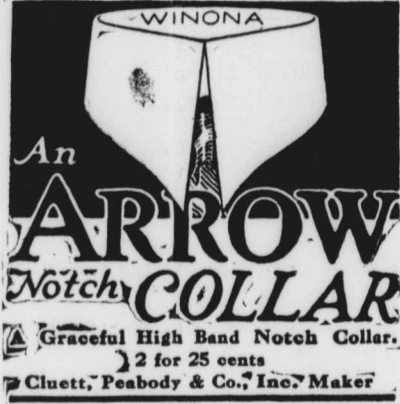

In looking over the Daily Texas we see a notice published by the men's physical director asking certain Freshmen to report to the gym. It seems that all the boys whose names appear on this list have so far "cut" the gym lesson. In the State physical training is compulsory. Evidently Jim thinks that he needs no further physical development.

Mr. C. M. Hall of the Guaranty State Bank at Waxahachie has sent in his subscription to the Skiff.

We pass for what we are. Men imagine that they communicate their virtue and vice only by overt actions, and do not see that virtue or vice emit a breath every moment.—R. W. Emerson.

It does not take a great man to be a Christian, but it takes all there is of him.—The Evangel.

Earl X. Gough, '12, was seen on the campus Sunday evening.

Personals and Locals

Edited by Bruce Knight, Annie Jack Baldwin and Joe Sisk

Miss Amboline Tyson spent last Monday in Dallas.

Jane Barnard's father will be on the campus next week.

Miss Cayle, of Midland College last year, visited here Tuesday.

Ask Mike Linsey why he did not carry out his "black bean" pledge!

Mrs. Geo. P. Ware and son James are here visiting their mother, Mrs. J. B. Sweeney, this week.

Jake Burkhalter came over from Dallas Sunday to visit Miss Helen Welfare.

Mrs. Dr. C. F. Rice of Gainesville is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Sweeney, this week.

Bob Lines, successor to Abe Green, returned Tuesday night from a short visit at home.

Maude Keith is as enthusiastic a basket ball fan as she is an oratory student.

No one doubts that Reeder was in the ball game at Weatherford. He has the evidence.

The student body meeting was a great success. Let's have them oftener.

Football practice is not necessarily a private affair, yet these girls think so.

Dr. J. G. Wright of Big Springs is placing his son, Altus, in school this week. Altus attended Midland College last year.

Carl Tomlinson, R. A. Highsmith and Roy Camp were in Dallas Monday on business for the "Horned Frog." Highsmith spent another day on other business.

Maude Keith is initiating a "reign of terror" in Jarvis Hall by crying "Ship Ahoy!" in blood-curdling accents every night at 2 o'clock.

See Willis Stovall our agent and get our club rates. We'll save you money. Boosters Pressing Club.

Bun Ware is giving the team his assistance by working out with them every afternoon. Bun is a man of football experience and of great help to our boys.

Alvin Street and Carrie Cassell had the shocks of their young lives the other evening. Alvin went into a store to buy some mosquito netting, and took Carrie as a competent judge of the same. Nobody knows whether Alvin said "We" or what it was, but the handsome young clerk, aglow with smiles, leaned over the counter and said: "Why, are you all just newly wed?" Alvin swooned; Carrie blushed, and the clerk proved his competence as a hardware man by making a bolt for the door.

Hal Hunter, an old student spent Sunday with friends in the University.

Ellen Hartgrove visited friends in the city Sunday.

Viola Caldwell spent the week-end with her home folks at Garland.

Ama McLendon spent Sunday and Monday in Oak Cliff with her father.

Katie Mae Cook visited friends in the city Sunday.

Luther Parker and Alvin Street enjoyed a good dinner in the city with Mrs. Payne Sunday.

Miss Jack Baldwin spent Sunday and Monday with her sister Mabel who is in Dallas having her eyes treated.

O. G. Osburn well known to all the old students spent the week-end with friends or a friend, in the university. He holds a position in the Kerens High School.

"WATER CURE" FOR SERENADING

Last Saturday night a bunch of Clark and Goode Hall serenaders, including some of our most prominent "cigarette" tenors and "bowling alley" basses, strolled over beneath the windows of Jarvis Hall to render a few classical selections. Their performance was undoubtedly fine, but proved, alas! to be only another case of unappreciated genius.

When the time for an encore came, the ignorant and uncultured audience rewarded the talented moonlight artists with a copious flood of cold H²O.

And waste its sweetness on a desert air."

FIRST FOOTBALL FATALITY OF SEASON

Verner S. Belyea of Norwich University died Friday as a result of injuries received in a football game with Holy Cross last Wednesday. Belyea, who played left halfback, suffered a broken spine while attempting line smash.

Mr. J. M. Faulkner, recently of Mangum, Oklahoma, but now of Fort Worth, was a visitor of the Stovalls and Geo. Mabee last Sunday night.

He—Did you see that strange girl whom we passed walking on the street smile at me?

NEW MEN.

The time has now come when new men are permitted to join the societies. Every man really interested in society work has had a chance to investigate and should now be prepared to have his name presented to one of the societies for membership.

It is as easy to decide now as any other time, and it is for your good that you do decide. It is always better to begin work at the beginning than to start a month behind everyone else. At the beginning of school, the societies usually start many new plans, and it is well that all new men know what these plans are and become interested therein.

Perhaps many students will be here for only one year. If this be true, it behooves those students to get all they can out of that one year, consequently do not miss another Monday but give your name to some one for presentation.

Society Maxims.

Be loyal to your society.
Choose friends from all societies.
In your rivalry be good natured.
Work for a higher society standard.

Be willing and glad to bear your share of the burdens.

A loafer is like a leper. Beware!
Work! Work! Work!!! For that is the key to success in all walks of life.

Hal Hunter and "Bear" Osburn visited in the University Sunday.

A T. C. U. BOY MAKES GOOD WITH THE NEW YORK GIANTS.

Claud Cooper, who was in School last year is making his reputation as a baseball artist. One of the New York papers has the following to say about him:

"John McGraw put a piece of his reserve talent into play yesterday, and the young man—Claude Cooper—did very well indeed. He was forced into action when Frederick Snodgrass added his name to the list of New York cripples. Cooper covered acres of centre field territory and looked like a regular big leaguer. He made a very timely hit, and in general behaved himself after the manner of a sharp and able citizen. His form at bat pleased the students of the game. The ball had to be in the strike zone before he would have anything to do with it."

Cooper will return to T. C. U. as soon as the world series are over. He has a brother here in School now.
